Redefining Tertiary Education:

Redefining Tertiary Education OECD, 1998-10-07 Higher levels of participation at the tertiary level driven strongly by demands reflecting the diverse interests of students employers and society are creating challenges to higher education This book explores these challenges Artificial Intelligence, Digital Learning, and Leadership: Redefining Higher Education Areba, George Ngwacho, Gisore, Billiah Nyamoita, Njurai, Evelyn Wanjiru, 2024-10-18 In the rapidly evolving landscape of higher education technology has become the driving force behind revolutionary changes in teaching learning and leadership The intersection of artificial intelligence AI digital learning platforms and innovative leadership practices has created opportunities and challenges that are reshaping education systems around the world Educators and institutions are now tasked with adapting to these shifts while ensuring equitable access to learning resources and maintaining academic integrity It is essential to foster a culture of continuous innovation and critical thinking to prepare students for the complexities of the modern world Artificial Intelligence Digital Learning and Leadership Redefining Higher Education provides a comprehensive overview of how AI digital learning and leadership are shaping the future of higher education By examining various aspects of AI's integration into education it provides valuable insights into the transformative power of technology in academic environments Covering topics such as academic integrity and ethics digital learning and virtual classrooms this book is an excellent resource for administrators educators researchers academicians graduate and postgraduate students and more Redefining Higher Education Melvyn L. Fein, 2022-02-26 Higher education is in trouble Commentators of all stripes bemoan escalating costs and diminishing quality Solutions have been offered from all quarters but tend to be piecemeal and all too often ideological In this tough minded look at the history current climate and future of university education in the United States Melvyn L Fein re examines the mission of higher education and outlines what institutions can do to better prepare students for an ever more complex techno commercial society Fein argues that students must have the opportunity to explore and discover what works for them and that the most important tool for institutions of higher education is self direction Professors must be allowed to teach in their own ways bringing their own experience into the classroom Since university missions differ both universities and professors need the freedom to make decisions independently The imminent need is for a democratic elite consisting of self directed leaders who possess technical and social expertise as well as personal motivation The tools for change are appropriate curricula communities of learners and a genuine marketplace of ideas While there is no magic bullet Fein contends that we can and should build on the achievements of the past so as to evolve more responsive educational institutions those that promote merit responsibility and universalism Redefining Asia Pacific Higher Education in Contexts of Globalization: Private Markets and the Public Good Deane E. Neubauer, 2015-10-18 This edited volume addresses the dynamic global contexts redefining Asia Pacific higher education including cross border education capacity and national birthrate profiles pressures created within ranking status systems and complex shifts in the meanings of the public good that influence public education in an increasingly privatized world

Redefining Tandem Language and Culture Learning in Higher Education Claire Tardieu, Céline Horgues, 2019-08-21 This book provides a comprehensive critical account of tandem learning charting its evolution from its origins in European educational settings to modern programs offering new perspectives on the approach's role within higher education. Taking stock of the ways in which increased globalization has produced new linguistic and sociocultural realities, the volume begins by looking back at the development of tandem learning over the last several decades, growing out of a need to create more opportunities for L2 learners to communicate in their target language. The book then examines the different learning objectives and learning outcomes of tandem learning arrangements, moving toward a discussion of tandem learning's potential role in shaping language policy and the unique challenges involved in implementing tandem programs at higher education institutions. The final section of the book brings the previous discussions together to consider new tools and technology and the ways in which they can better equip language educators to implement tandem learning in their own practice. Highlighting tandem learning's potential to promote multilingual and multicultural learning on a global scale, this volume will be of particular interest to students and researchers in intercultural communication, language education, multilingualism, and applied linguistics.

The Shaping of Tertiary Education in the Anglophone Caribbean Vivienne Roberts, 2003 As tertiary education in the Caribbean enters a period of expansion and maturity, this book is a timely study into how the sector should evolve if it is to meet its target of increasing enrolment from under 10 per cent to 15 per cent by 2005. It explores the issues involved in providing an optimum learning and teaching environment and presents options for policy, strategic design, and leadership to provide an accessible, responsive education system.

OECD Reviews of Tertiary Education: Tertiary Education for the Knowledge Society Volume 1 and Volume 2 OECD, 2008-09-16 Tertiary Education for the Knowledge Society provides a thorough international investigation of tertiary education policy across its many facets: governance, funding, quality assurance, equity, research, and innovation. Academic career links to the labour market and internationalisation.

Rethinking Higher Education in Post-Apartheid South Africa Emnet Tadesse Woldegiorgis, Logan Govender, Dennis Zami Atibuni, 2025-07-25 This book explores the opportunities and epistemological and structural challenges facing higher education in postcolonial South Africa and argues for a fundamental transformation to meet the needs of the 21st century. Taking the concept of transformation as a unifying thread, this book discusses the evolving trajectories of higher education in South Africa with particular emphasis on the decolonial initiatives that have emerged in the post-Apartheid era. During this time, there have been persistent calls for South Africa to move beyond Eurocentric education programmes and curricula in favour of a system that reflects the continent's culture and identities of all South Africans. The book argues that incremental reforms of existing structures are insufficient and that instead, a deeper, more fundamental shift in higher education structures values and systems is needed Overall the book calls for a comprehensive transformation to expand access for historically disadvantaged communities enhance quality and competitiveness address past injustices and improve the quality and capacity to act together for a more sustainable and just future Also exploring the digital transformations which have accelerated in the wake of the COVID 19 pandemic this book will be an essential read for researchers and policymakers working on higher education in South Africa Creating the European Area of Higher Education Voldemar Tomusk, 2007-11-07 COM 91 349 final and the Peripheries of European Higher Education Voldemar Tomusk Open Society Institute Budapest For a man who no longer has a homeland writing becomes a place to live Theodor Adorno Minima Moralia 1 REDEMPTIVE IRONY OF STRATEGIES AND PROCESSES It is unfortunate to a degree that as soon as we begin discussing our human condition in the third millennium since mankind was offered its salvation and the state of our institutions that structure and guide our existence as social beings in order not to act as beasts or mere social animals we cannot avoid the word ironic For the people of intellectual calling who cannot but try to make sense of what is happening around in and with us beyond digestion in the broad sense of the term that is beyond the consuming the resources of the earth ironic is the word without which nothing can be said any longer Deliver Us from Irony is the title of a recent paper by a young historian discussing the last great post modern historian Hayden White in his approach of employing epistemological irony against moral irony Paul 2004 The degree to which our existence has become ironic is truly tragic though it could be worse Human existence has become ironic so much that one can but weep However there are other ways to explain the situation
