Rediscovery Of The Holy Land In The Nineteenth Century:

The Rediscovery of the Holy Land in the Nineteenth Century Yehoshua Ben-Arieh, 1979 Yehoshua Ben Arieh has written a significant number of books and articles dealing with the Historical Geography of Israel and of Jerusalem in modern times The Rediscovery of the Holy Land in the 19th Century deals with the main historical sources of the western travelers explorers and scholars who made their way to the Holy Land in the 19th Century woodcuts and maps Painting the Holy Land in the Nineteenth Century Yehoshua Ben-Arieh, 1997 The Holy Land has captures the attention of mankind since the very beginning of human civilization and even more so from the early days of Christianity Nineteenth century Palestine fired the imagination of the Western world Improved travel facilities and greater political stability in the Near East brought ever increasing numbers of visitors to the Holy Land affecting the quantity and quality of the pictorial depictions of its sites and scenes Like other countries in the exotic Muslim East Palestine also became a point of focal interest for painters of the Orientalist school The author has assembled a fascinating collection of unique works of art executed in the diverse styles of nineteenth century painting Around these reproductions many of them in colour he reconstructs the story of the artists who produced them who came from many European countries and from North America The result is an important and unique perspective on the sites persons events and customs of the Holy Land in that century The Making of Eretz Israel in the Modern Era Yehoshua Ben-Arieh, 2020-03-09 Napoleon's invasion of the Middle East marks the beginning of the modern era in the region This book traces the developments that led to the making of a new and separate geographical political entity in the Middle East known as Eretz Israel and the establishment of the State of Israel within its bounds Thus its time frame runs from Napoleon's invasion of Eretz Israel Palestine in 1799 to the establishment of Israel in 1948 1949 Eretz Israel as the formal name of a separate entity in the modern era first appeared in the early translations into Hebrew of the Balfour Declaration while in the original document the country was referred to as Palestine During the period of Ottoman rule the territory that would in time be called Eretz Israel Palestine was not a separate political unit Among Jews use of Eretz Israel increased only after the beginning of Zionist aliyot Had the Zionist movement not arisen it is doubtful whether the development to which this study is devoted would have occurred The motivating force behind that process is without doubt the Zionist element That is why Jews are the major protagonists in this book Tourists, Travellers and Hotels in 19th-Century Jerusalem Rupert L. Chapman III, 2018-12-13 Jerusalem was a constant focus in the hearts and minds of all pilgrims and tourists travelling to the Holy Land in the nineteenth century but knowing exactly where they might get clean and decent accommodations on arrival was of the utmost importance This volume is a study of the rise of commercial hotel keeping in Jerusalem from the beginnings in the early 1840s drawing extensively on travel accounts and archives notably those of the Palestine Exploration Fund A Survey of Palestine Under the British Mandate, 1920-1948 Dov Gavish, 2005 This book is a historical study of the survey and mapping system of Palestine under the British Mandate It traces the background and the reasoning behind the establishment of the survey programme examines the foundations upon which the system was based and strives to understand the motivation of those who implemented it This study shows that the roots of the modern survey system of Palestine are to be sought in the Balfour Declaration and its implications regarding land in Palestine The land issue was at the core of the mapping of Mandatory Palestine and it remains as a core issue at the heart of the Israeli Palestinian dispute The Cambridge Companion to Travel Writing Peter Hulme,Tim Youngs,2002-11-21

Table of contents Teaching Jewish Civilization Moshe Davis,1995-06 Examines the development of the International Center for University Teaching of Jewish Civilization against the backdrop of university Jewish studies in different parts of the world and provides a world register of university studies on Jewish civilization listing institutions around the world in which Jewish civilization is taught or researched Essays offer a historical perspective on issues confronting university Jewish studies and look at specific projects and the Israel experience No index Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

Melville's Bibles Ilana Pardes,2008-02-05 Many writers in antebellum America sought to reinvent the Bible but no one Ilana Pardes argues was as insistent as Melville on redefining biblical exegesis while doing so In Moby Dick he not only ventured to fashion a grand new inverted Bible in which biblical rebels and outcasts assume center stage but also aspired to comment on every imaginable mode of biblical interpretation calling for a radical reconsideration of the politics of biblical reception In Melville's Bibles Pardes traces Melville's response to a whole array of nineteenth century exegetical writings literary scriptures biblical scholarship Holy Land travel narratives political sermons and women's bibles She shows how Melville raised with unparalleled verve the question of what counts as Bible and what counts as interpretation Place, Culture, and Identity Alan R. H. Baker,2001 Alan R H Baker of the Geography Department of the University of Cambridge has played a leading role in the development of historical geography This book which features twelve specially commissioned essays recognizes his highly influential and innovative contributions The contributors address the following topics methodology and ideology in historical geography historical geographies of state regulation and political discourse the social and cultural use of public and private space and the interpretation of images of place in relation to cultural and national identity A History of Palestine Gudrun Krämer,2011-02-22 Krämer focuses on patterns of interaction amongst Jews and Arabs Muslim as well as Christian in Palestine an interaction that deeply affected the economic political social and cultural evolution of both communities under Ottoman and British rule
