Pleasure and Guilt on the Grand Tour Chloe Chard, 1999 This work examines the forms of language that map out Italy as an imaginative topography of pleasure within British and French travel writing over the period 1600 to 1830 It considers the tour with reference to strategies of description and themes

Moving Scenes Alison E. Martin, 2017-12-02 Accounts of travel to England reached unprecedented levels of popularity in the German states in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries Competition therefore increased for travel writers to produce travelogues which offered the most authentic original and vibrant picture of England The wider range of narrative strategies which travellers consequently deployed increasingly drew on the emotional responses of their audience whether to serve a political purpose show concern for the darker side to the Industrial Revolution or simply demonstrate the humanitarian interests of the travellers themselves In this broad ranging study Alison E Martin draws on a variety of travellers men and women canonical and forgotten to chart the fascinating variety of styles and approaches which mark this highly interdisciplinary genre

Making Sense Ralf Hertel, 2021-07-26 Fiction is fascinating All it provides us with is black letters on white pages yet while we read we do not have the impression that we are merely perceiving abstract characters Instead we see the protagonists before our inner eye and hear their voices Descriptions of sumptuous meals make our mouths water we feel physically repelled by depictions of violence or are aroused by the erotic details of sexual conquests We submerge ourselves in the fictional world that no longer stays on the paper but comes to life in our imagination Reading turns into an out of the body experience or rather an in another body experience for we perceive the portrayed world not only through the protagonist's eyes but also through his ears nose tongue and skin In other words we move through the literary text as if through a virtual reality How does literature achieve this trick How does it turn mere letters into vividly experienced worlds This study argues that techniques of sensuous writing contribute decisively to bringing the text to life in the reader's imagination In detailed interpretations of British novels of the 1980s and 1990s by writers such as John Berger John Banville Salman Rushdie Jeanette Winterson or J M Coetzee it uncovers literary strategies for turning the sensuous experience into words and for conveying it to the reader demonstrating how we make sense in and of literature Both readers interested in the contemporary novel and in the sensuousness of the reading experience will profit from this innovative study that not only analyses the interest of contemporary authors in the senses but also pin points literary entry points for the sensuous force of reading

Romanticism and Visuality Sophie Thomas, 2007-12-12 This book investigates the productive crosscurrents between visual culture and literary texts in the Romantic period focusing on the construction and manipulation of the visual the impact of new visual media on the literary and historical imagination and on fragments and ruins as occupying the shifting border between the visible and the invisible It examines a broad selection of instances that reflect debates over how seeing should itself be viewed instances from Daguerre s Diorama to the staging of Coleridge s play Remorse to the figure of the Medusa in Shelley s poetry and at the Phantasmagoria in which the very act of seeing is represented or dramatized In reconsidering literary engagements with the expanding visual field this study argues that the popular culture of Regency Britain reflected not just emergent and highly capitalized forms of mass entertainment but also a lively interest in the aesthetic and conceptual dimensions of looking What is commonly thought to be the Romantic resistance to the visible gives way to a generative fascination with the visual and its imaginative even spectacular possibilities

Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness Harold Bloom,2008 Joseph Conrad s Heart of Darkness is not simply a critique of colonialism in the Congo it is an examination of the human tendency toward self endangering corruptibility In this updated collection of critical essays master literary scholar Harold Bloom suggests that this resonant work has taken on the power of myth Book jacket Beyond 1989 Keith Bullivant,1997 With the opening up of the East in the autumn of 1989 claims were being made on the one hand that German literature had never in fact been divided while others were proclaiming the end of East and West German literatures as they had existed and the beginning of a new era

Embracing the Melody of Term: An Psychological Symphony within Reflecting Senses Perception And Appearance In Literature Culture And The Arts

In some sort of consumed by displays and the ceaseless chatter of fast connection, the melodic elegance and psychological symphony developed by the written term usually fade in to the back ground, eclipsed by the constant sound and interruptions that permeate our lives. Nevertheless, nestled within the pages of Reflecting Senses Perception And Appearance In Literature Culture And The Arts a wonderful fictional treasure filled with organic emotions, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by a masterful composer of language, that interesting masterpiece conducts readers on an emotional trip, skillfully unraveling the hidden songs and profound impact resonating within each cautiously constructed phrase. Within the depths with this poignant examination, we shall explore the book is central harmonies, analyze their enthralling writing design, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
