Reflections of a Common Man Scott Eagan, The Reflection of Images and Stereotypes of the Canadian North in the Poetry of Robert Service Rebecca Mahnkopf, 2012-05 Seminar paper from the year 2004 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Culture and Applied Geography grade 2.0 University of Rostock language English abstract The term stereotype means a conventional or formulaic conception or image In general the expression is used to describe an oversimplified mental picture of some group of people who are sharing certain characteristic or stereotypical qualities It is often used in a negative sense because many people see stereotypes as illogical but deeply held beliefs that can only be changed through education Common stereotypes of the past included a variety of allegations about different racial groups and predictions of behaviour based on social status and wealth Common stereotypical characters in America are for example the snobbish butler speaking with a British English accent the overweight doughnut eating cop and the drunken Irishman But people do not only have stereotypes for persons or groups They also have developed a generalized mental image of countries or certain regions In my research paper I want to identify the common image of the Canadian North and how it has developed Furthermore I am going to analyse a selection of the poetry of one of the most famous Canadian writers Robert Service The analysis takes place on the basis of the question Are stereotypical characteristics of the Canadian North reflected in Service's poems Many people state that Service's work represents the truth of the gold rush Morrison 1998 p 102 which was one of the most important episodes in the history of the North But I do not agree with this claim because I have found many elements in his poetry that are either untrue or only stereotypes I want to prove this thesis with my research paper An Uncommon Poet for the Common Man Lolette Kuby, 2013-10-10 The Lyric in the Age of the Brain Nikki Skillman, 2016-06-06 Science has transformed understandings of the mind supplying physiological explanations for what once seemed transcendental Nikki Skillman shows how lyric poets caught between a reductive scientific view and naive literary metaphors struggled to articulate a vision of consciousness that was both scientifically informed and poetically truthful Critical Reflections on Poetry and Painting (2 vols.) Jean-Baptiste Du Bos, 2021-07-15 Jean Baptiste Du Bos Critical Reflections on Poetry and Painting first published in French in 1719 is one of the seminal works of modern aesthetics Du Bos rejected the seventeenth century view that works of art are assessed by reason Instead he believed audience members have sentiments in response to artworks Their sentiments are fainter versions of those they would feel in response to actually seeing what the work of art imitates Du Bos was influenced by John Locke's empiricism and in turn had a major impact on virtually every major eighteenth century contributor to philosophy of art including Voltaire Montesquieu Diderot Rousseau Herder Lessing Mendelssohn Kames Gerard and Hume This is the first modern annotated and scholarly edition of the Critical Reflections in any language Selective Guide to Chinese Literature 1900-1949, Volume 3 Poem Haft, 2023-07-24 A Selective Guide to Chinese Literature, 1900-1949 Nils Göran David Malmqvist, European Science
