Prepared for the Twentieth-Century? The Life of Emily Bonnycastle Mayne (Aimée) 1872-1958 Michael Armstrong Crouch, 2015-11-25 Aimee Mayne was born into a life of apparent privilege and opportunity However as a woman born in 1872 and living through the first half of the twentieth century these opportunities were severely limited by law culture and tradition This story is of a woman of the British upper middle class whose life was full of colour of living in India of family relationships of travel of the Blitz She kept diaries and wrote an intimate memoir This book explores her emotional conflicts with a revealing analysis that includes revelations about a woman brought up in the late Victorian period encompassing her sex life and the turmoil of an unhappy marriage It is a study of a life that identifies how an upper middle class upbringing that included an attempted tertiary education at a time when this was unheard of for most women induced her into a marriage and life style that was the antithesis of her early aspirations Her life was to engender a sense of grievance that embittered relations with her family While she took advantage of her travels to undertake a successful lecturing career personal fulfilment was only to be found at the end of her life during the London Blitz in World War Two The Imperial Magazine, Or, Compendium of Religious, Moral, & Philosophical Knowledge, 1829

Storytelling: Global Reflections on Narrative Tracy Ann Hayes, Theresa Edlmann, Laurinda Brown, 2019-05-15 This book is a collection of papers from an international inter disciplinary conference focusing on storytelling and human life The chapters in this volume provide unique accounts of how stories shape the narratives and discourses of people s lives and work and those of their families and broader social networks From making sense of history to documenting biographies and current pedagogical approaches to exploring current and emerging spatial and media trends this book explores the possibilities of narrative approaches as a theoretical scaffold across numerous disciplines and in diverse contexts Central to all the chapters is the idea of stories being a creative and reflexive means to make sense of people s past current realities and future possibilities Contributors are Prue Bramwell Davis Brendon Briggs Laurinda Brown Rachel Chung Elizabeth Cummings Szymon Czerkawski Denise Dantas Joanna Davidson Nina Dvorko Sarah Eagle Theresa Edlmann Gavin Fairbairn Keven Fletcher Sarah Garvey Phyllis Hastings Tracy Ann Hayes Welby Ings Stephanie Jacobs Dean Jobb Caroline M Kisiel Maria Dolores Lozano M d lina Moraru Michael R Ogden Nancy Peled Valerie Perry Melissa Lee Price Rasa Ra i nait Pau uolien Irena Ragai ien Remko Smid Paulette Stevens Cheryl Svensson Mary O Brien Tyrrell Shunichi Ueno Leona Ungerer Sarah White Wai ling Wong and Bridget Anthonia Makwemoisa Yakubu Biographies Cultural Impact Emily James, AI, 2025-02-19 Biographies Cultural Impact examines how biographical narratives shape our understanding of history and culture It explores biographies not just as records but as cultural artifacts reflecting societal values and ideologies The book delves into how biographers construct stories how audiences receive them and their lasting cultural effects For example the selection of details and interpretation of evidence by biographers can significantly influence how a historical figure is perceived The book considers biographies impact on collective memory and cultural identity showing how these narratives reinforce norms It explores how biographies of figures like Abraham Lincoln and Marie Curie have shaped public discourse The book progresses from foundational concepts in biographical theory to analyzing specific biographies and their effects offering readers tools to critically assess these narratives This approach emphasizes the dynamic relationship between biographies culture and society Distorted Reflections Stuart Taberner, 2023-11-27 This volume presents a new approach to the political engagement of three major West German authors Uwe Johnson G nther Grass and

Martin Walser Whereas analysis of intellectuals participation in the political upheaval of the late 1960s has tended to focus on speeches written in response to contemporary events this book examines works of fiction for the way in which authors reflected upon their engagement in a more contemplative medium Examination of these literary reflections reveals a mismatch between writers confidence as public intellectuals and their private anxiety Beginning with a survey of intellectual engagement until the late 1960s the present volume moves onto a theoretical discussion of the legitimacy of authors public interventions Three chapters are devoted to the fiction of Uwe Johnson G nther Grass and Martin Walser Uwe Johnson s fiction embodies retreat an acknowledgment of political impotence G nther Grass s novels present the failings of the engaged intellectual as exemplary to an audience which is expected to learn from this inadequacy Finally Martin Walser s intellectual characters stylise private weakness to appeal to a middle brow audience titillated by the public figure s confession of impotence In Walser s work political engagement degenerates into pure form into a Camp gesture of authors obsession with their private selves

Reflections on Lee Charles P. Roland, 2003-10-09 Provocation and Negotiation. Gesche Ipsen, Timothy Mathews, Dragana Obradovic, 2013 This collection of essays takes on two of the most pressing questions that face the discipline of Comparative Literature today Why compare and Where do we go from here At a difficult economic time when universities all over the world once again have to justify the social as well as academic value of their work it is crucial that we consider the function of comparison itself in reaching across disciplinary and cultural boundaries The essays written for this book are by researchers from all over the world and range in topic from the problem of translating biblical Hebrew to modern atheism from Freud to Marlene van Niekerk from the formation of one person s identity to experiences of globalisation and the relation of history to fiction Together they display the ground breaking ideas which lie at the heart of an act as deceptively simple as comparing one piece of writing to another
