Reflections Of A Black Man:

Reflections of a Black Man Efton F. Geary, 1970 The Revised Spiritual Reflections of a Blackman David L. Cain, 2005-07-15 Originally published in 1997 David L Cain revisited the personal journals that inspired the The Spiritual Reflections of a Black Man The new insights pick up where the original left off and cover a variety of current events that include accepting our differences adopting high values dealing with adversity and making tough life choices By reflecting on life events spiritually we show God that we are ready to learn His promise of ask and it shall be opened unto you has never been and never will be broken We simply have to ask in the right context and since God is a Spirit then it stands to reason that the right context is spiritual Sentiments and Reflections of a Black Man Clint B. Walker, 2011-05-26 This book of poems were written in the attempt to get Gods message out I had a heavenly encounter with God and was taken out of body mind or spirit I can not really tell which but I know it was for the purpose of uniting all people for the common good Some of these poems deals with secular life and some are written from a more spiritual venue but as Jesus use parables to explain the good and bad of our actions so have I been instructed to do as well When we dabble in things that has no profit only destruction then there is an equal reaction to all actions These words are the inspired works of God and will truly bless all that read them They will offer inspiration courage guidance and wisdom If the reader keeps an open mind and let the Holy spirit talk to their subconscious Gods words do not go away into the void but they accomplish what they are sent out to accomplish This book will have a universal appeal to all its readers and will give all readers a greater insight into the mind of the author whom happens to be a black man but more important a child of God Its purpose is to unite all races to come together as one people There is no difference between the Jew and Greek bond nor free for whosoever calls on the name of the Lord will be saved I profess we all are whosoever whether red yellow black brown or white we are all precious in Gods sight Read these poems with an open mind and a receptive heart and I guarantee you will be truly blessed by reading them as I was blessed by writing them May God bless all of his children with good health happiness and prosperity is my hearts desire and prayer Mad Girl: Reflections on Race, Class and Gender Anissa Danielle Moore, 2020-12-02 Are Black people naturally mad at the world Anissa Danielle Moore examines the experience of Blacks in America through a series of mad moments in history through the lens of race class and gender in this timely work mad girl reflections on race class and gender is a collection of essays that tell the personal journey of a Black American girl making the transition from childhood to adulthood in a working class Brooklyn neighborhood in New York City Moore recounts her childhood memories and ushers the reader through experiences which include busing the significance of hip hop culture and racial identity White flight present day segregation gentrification police harassment and Black male and female relationships Furthermore the book powerfully communicates how young black girls are treated within our society mad girl reflections on race class and gender seeks to transform mad moments into an honest dialogue about race class and gender to facilitate positive change among
