Culture and Identity in Early Modern Europe (1500-1800) Barbara B. Diefendorf, Carla Alison Hesse, 1993 Explores Natalie Zemon Davis's concept of history as a dialogue not only with the past but with other historians The Necessity of Christ's Satisfaction Joshua D. Schendel, 2022-10-04 The seventeenth century Reformed Orthodox discussions of the work of Christ and its various doctrinal constitutive elements were rich and multifaceted ranging across biblical and exegetical historical philosophical and theological fields of inquiry Among the most contested questions in these discussions was the question of the necessity of Christ's satisfaction This study sets that great controverted point as Richard Baxter called it in its historical and traditionary contexts and provides a philosophical and theological analysis of the arguments offered by two representative Reformed scholastic theologians William Twisse and John Owen The Evangelical Counter-Enlightenment William R. Everdell, 2021-05-21 This contribution to the global history of ideas uses biographical profiles of 18th century contemporaries to find what Salafist and Sufi Islam Evangelical Protestant and Jansenist Catholic Christianity and Hasidic Judaism have in common Such figures include Muhammad Ibn Abd al Wahab Count Nikolaus Zinzendorf Jonathan Edwards John Wesley Jean Jacques Rousseau and Israel Ba'al Shem Tov The book is a unique and comprehensive study of the conflicted relationship between the evangelical movements in all three Abrahamic religions and the ideas of the Enlightenment and Counter Enlightenment Centered on the 18th century the book reaches back to the third century for precedents and context and forward to the 21st for the legacy of these movements This text appeals to students and researchers in many fields including Philosophy and Religion their histories and World History while also appealing to the interested lay reader Historical Abstracts, 2000 Voices and Books in the English Renaissance Jennifer Richards, 2019 Discusses how literary culture in the Renaissance was fundamentally oral and studies a variety of literary soundscapes from the schoolroom to the printing house to explore why and how sound was meaningful to Renaissance writers The Cambridge History of Christianity: Volume 7, Enlightenment, Reawakening and Revolution 1660-1815 Stewart J. Brown, Timothy Tackett, 2006-12-07 The Cambridge History of Christianity offers a comprehensive chronological account of the development of Christianity in all its aspects theological intellectual social political regional global from its beginnings to the present day Each volume makes a substantial contribution in its own right to the scholarship of its period and the complete History constitutes a major work of academic reference Far from being merely a history of Western European Christianity and its offshoots the History aims to provide a global perspective Eastern and Coptic Christianity are given full consideration from the early period onwards and later African Far Eastern New World South Asian and other non European developments in Christianity receive proper coverage The volumes cover popular piety and non formal expressions of Christian faith and treat the sociology of Christian formation worship and devotion in a broad cultural context The question of relations between Christianity and other major faiths is also kept in sight throughout The History will provide an invaluable resource for scholars and students alike How did Christianity fare during the tumultuous period in world history from 1660 to 1815 This volume examines issues of church state society and Christian life in Europe and in the wider world It explores the intellectual and political movements that challenged Christianity from the rise of science and the Enlightenment to the French Revolution with its state supported programme of de Christianisation It also considers the movements of Christian renewal and reawakening during this period and Christianity s encounters with world religions in colonial and missionary settings Book jacket A Cultural History of Marriage in the Age of Enlightenment Edward Behrend-Martínez,2021-11-18 Could an institution as sacred and traditional as marriage undergo a revolution Some people living during the so called Age of Enlightenment thought so By marrying for that selfish personal emotion of love rather than to serve religious or family interests to serve political demands or the demands of the pocketbook a few but growing number of people revolutionized matrimony around the end of the eighteenth century Marriage went from being a sacred state instituted by the Church and involving everyone to for a few intrepid people a secular contract a deal struck between two individuals based entirely on their mutual love and affection Few would claim today that love is not the cornerstone of modern marriage The easiest argument in favor of any marriage today no matter how star crossed the individuals is that the couple is deeply and hopelessly in love with one another But that was not always so clear Before the eighteenth century very few couples united simply because they shared a mutual attraction and affection for one another Yet only a century later most people would come to believe that mutual love and even attraction were necessary for any marriage to succeed A Cultural History of Marriage in the Age of Enlightenment explores the ways that new ideas cultural ideals and economic changes big and small reshaped matrimony into the institution that it is today allowing love to become the ultimate essential ingredient for modern marriages A Cultural History of Marriage in the Age of Enlightenment presents an overview of the period with essays on Courtship and Ritual Religion State and Law Kinship and Social Networks the Family Economy Love and Sex the Breaking of Vows and Representations of Marriage The Press and the People Adam Fox,2020 This groundbreaking study examines the production of ephemeral literature and the creation of a mass reading public in lowland Scotland between the sixteenth and eighteenth centuries The Press and the People transforms our understanding of popular culture in early modern Scotland and Britain more widely Confessionalisation and Erudition in Early Modern Europe Nicholas Hardy,Dmitri Levitin,2019-12-26 Confessionalisation and Erudition in Early Modern Europe examines the consequences of the sixteenth century Reformation for the study of ancient texts and of the past in general The volume offers the most comprehensive account thus far of the relationship between religious identity formation and the history of knowledge in early modern Europe The Culture of Translation in Early Modern England and France, 1500-1660 T.
