Reformed Education The Christian School As Demand Of The Covenant:

Reformed Education David Engelsma, 2000 Treating the place of Scripture in the school the biblical view of culture the qualifications and calling of the Christian teacher and the goal of education the author contends that the covenant of God directs all aspects of the Christian school The book also defends Christian schools against the claim that the state schools are adequate and against the home schooling movement A Critical Examination of the Doctrine of Revelation in Evangelical Theology Carisa A. Ash, 2015-07-14 How God reveals himself is an important matter for Christians especially evangelicals For too long Carisa Ash contends evangelicals have rightly affirmed that God reveals through the created world but then they functionally neglect such revelation In this monograph Ash offers a corrective to this practice by presenting a theology of revelation that explores the commonalities between various forms of revelation world written and spoken word and Incarnate Word Particularly aimed at theologians interested in theological method Ash's study will also benefit people interested in faith and learning or interdisciplinary integration Ash argues that evangelicals must strive to align more closely their affirmations and their practice Her critique of current practices in theological method and integration along with the proposed theology of revelation are designed to help move the conversation forward Reformed Education David J.
