The Making of Israeli Militarism Uri

Ben-Eliezer, 1998-06-22 an original interpretation of the wide ranging impact of the military on Israeli society one of the most insightful works on Israeli society in general Gershon Shafir From the early days of the Yishuv militarism and the military have become a way of life for Israelis Focusing on the period between 1936 and 1956 Uri Ben Eliezer traces the ways in which military force acquired legitimacy in civilian society and how the use of organized violence became an acceptable solution to conflicts especially the Arab Israeli conflict Feminist Praxis against U.S. Militarism Wonhee Anne Joh, Nami Kim, 2019-12-04 Feminist Praxis against U S Militarism provides critical feminist and womanist analyses of U S militarism that challenge the ongoing U S neoliberal military industrial complex and its multivalent violence that destroys people s lives especially women and other vulnerable populations It highlights the intentional critique of U S militarism from feminist womanist perspectives that seek to show the ways in which gender race ethnicity sexuality and violence intersect to threaten women s lives especially women of color s lives and the broader environment upon which women s lives are dependent Most of all this volume challenges the readers to understand the U S as the warfare counterterrorism carceral state and its devastating effects on the everyday lives of women especially women of color locally nationally and globally This volume also helps readers understand the racialized gendered impacts of U S militarism in conjunction with the ongoing global economies of dispossession and militarized violence across the borders of nation states Interrogating U S military interventions in other countries can show how the U S War on Terror directly affects U S domestic affairs and daily lives in the United States The Theory-Story Reader for Social Studies Bretton A. Varga, Erin C. Adams, 2024 Theory holds the capacity to help educators see the world differently challenge problematic assumptions and practices that cultivate harm and illuminate pathways towards access equity justice joy and love While it is easy to underestimate the role of theory in such pursuits throughout social studies education this book shows that theory is always already present in all productions of teaching and learning In this collection well established scholars highlight a broad range of theories that are currently being used to alter the landscape of social studies instruction Important to these efforts is the position that theory does not exist in a vacuum but rather is the reflection of a certain set of concepts and the relationship that one holds to those ideas Taking this further each chapter author employs storytelling as a means to share their personal history and unpack how they came to understand their selected theoretical topic They address a breadth of concepts such as Black feminism psychoanalysis racial capitalism settler colonialism sustainability and technoskepticism Book Features The only resource of its kind that pairs storying with a far reaching range of theories actively being used by scholars in the field of social studies education and research Brief chapters arranged alphabetically by concept provide structure while also staying true to the book s framing of theory as being curious fragmented nomadic and discursive Embedded connections within each chapter meant to help readers understand the relational and entangled nature of theory Contributors include Sohyun An Kristen Duncan Jillian Ford Jim Garrett Wayne Journell Noreen Naseem Rodriguez Muna Saleh Sandra Schmidt Sarah Shear Cathryn van Kessel and Amanda Vickery Archipelago of Resettlement Evyn Lê Espiritu Gandhi, 2022-04-26 A free open access ebook is available upon publication Learn more at www.luminosoa.org What happens when refugees encounter Indigenous sovereignty struggles in the countries of their resettlement From April to November 1975 the US military processed over 112 000 Vietnamese refugees on the unincorporated territory of Guam from 1977 to 1979 the State of Israel granted asylum and citizenship to 366 non Jewish Vietnamese refugees Evyn L Espiritu Gandhi analyzes these two cases to theorize what she calls the refugee settler condition the fraught positionality of refugee subjects whose resettlement in a settler colonial state is predicated on the unjust dispossession of an Indigenous population This groundbreaking book explores two forms of critical geography first archipelagos of empire examining how the Vietnam War is linked to the US military buildup in Guam and unwavering support of Israel and second corresponding archipelagos of trans Indigenous resistance tracing how Chamorro decolonization efforts and Palestinian liberation struggles are connected through the Vietnamese refugee figure Considering distinct yet overlapping modalities of refugee and Indigenous displacement Gandhi offers tools for imagining emergent forms of decolonial solidarity between refugee settlers and Indigenous peoples The Routledge Handbook of Refugee Narratives Evyn Lê Espiritu Gandhi, Vinh Nguyen, 2023-02-17 This Handbook presents a transnational and interdisciplinary study of refugee narratives broadly defined Interrogating who can be considered a refugee and what constitutes a narrative the thirty eight chapters included in this collection encompass a range of forcibly displaced subjects a mix of geographical and historical contexts and a variety of storytelling modalities Analyzing novels poetry memoirs comics films photography music social media data graffiti letters reports eco design video games archival remnants and ethnography the individual chapters counter dominant representations of refugees as voiceless victims Addressing key characteristics and thematics of refugee narratives this Handbook examines how refugee cultural productions are shaped by and in turn shape socio political landscapes It will be of interest to researchers teachers students and practitioners committed to engaging refugee narratives in the contemporary moment The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license The Sage Encyclopedia of Refugee Studies Yen Le Espiritu, 2025-09-18 Refugees and displacement are defining issues of the 21st century with over 70 million asylum seekers refugees and stateless individuals forced from their homes as of 2020 Every two seconds one person is forcibly displaced due to climate change global epidemics and ongoing conflicts The SAGE Encyclopedia of Refugee Studies edited by members of The Critical Refugee Studies Collective serves as a vital and comprehensive resource for understanding the historical political and cultural dimensions of displacement Featuring over

Transpacific Studies Janet Alison Hoskins, Viet Thanh Nguyen, 2014-08-31 The Pacific has long been a space of conquest exploration fantasy and resistance Pacific Islanders had established civilizations and cultures of travel well before European explorers arrived initiating centuries of upheaval and transformation The twentieth century with its various wars fought in and over the Pacific is only the most recent era to witness military strife and economic competition While Asia Pacific and Pacific Rim were late twentieth century terms that dealt with the importance of the Pacific to the economic political and cultural arrangements that span Asia and the Americas a new term has arisen the transpacific In the twenty first century U S efforts to dominate the ocean are symbolized not only in the Pacific pivot of American policy but also the development of a Transpacific Partnership This partnership brings together a dozen countries not including China in a trade pact whose aim is to cement U S influence That pact signals how the transpacific up to now an academic term has reached mass consciousness Recognizing the increasing importance of the transpacific as a word and concept this anthology proposes a framework for transpacific studies that examines the flows of culture capital ideas and labor across the Pacific These flows involve Asia the Americas and the Pacific Islands The introduction to the anthology by its editors Janet Hoskins and Viet Thanh Nguyen consider the advantages and limitations of models found in Asian studies American studies and Asian American studies for dealing with these flows The editors argue that transpacific studies can draw from all three in order to provide a critical model for considering the geopolitical struggle over the Pacific with its attendant possibilities for inequality and exploitation Transpacific studies also sheds light on the cultural and political movements artistic works and ideas that have arisen to contest state corporate and military ambitions In sum the transpacific as a concept illuminates how flows across the Pacific can be harnessed for purposes of both domination and resistance The anthology's contributors include geographers Brenda S A Yeoh Weiqiang Lin sociologists Yen Le Espiritu Hung Cam Thai literary critics John Carlos Rowe J Francisco Benitez Yunte Huang Viet Thanh Nguyen and anthropologists Xiang Biao Heonik Kwon Nancy Lutkehaus Janet Hoskins as well as a historian Laurie J Sears and a film scholar Akira Lippit Together these contributors demonstrate how a transpacific model can be deployed across multiple disciplines and from varied locations with scholars working from the United States Singapore Japan and England Topics include the Cold War the Chinese state U S imperialism diasporic and refugee cultures and economies national cinemas transpacific art and the view of the transpacific from Asia These varied topics are a result of the anthology's purpose in bringing scholars into conversation and illuminating how location influences the perception of the transpacific But regardless of the individual view what the essays gathered here collectively demonstrate is the energy excitement and insight that can be generated from within a transpacific framework
