Researching the Germans from Russia North Dakota Institute for Regional Studies, Germans from Russia Heritage Society, 1987 Archives in Russia: A Directory and Bibliographic Guide to Holdings in Moscow and St. Petersburg Patricia Kennedy Grimsted, Patricia Kennedy Grimstead, 2016-04-01 This is a comprehensive directory and bibliographic guide to Russian archives and manuscript repositories in the capital cities of Moscow and St. Petersburg. It is an essential resource for any researcher interested in Russian sources for topics in diplomatic military and church history, art, dance, film, literature, science, ethnography, and geography. The first part lists general bibliographies of relevant reference literature, directories, bibliographic works, and specialized subject-related sources. In the following sections of the directory, archival listings are grouped in institutional categories. Coverage includes federal ministerial, agency, presidential, local, university, Academy of Sciences, organizational, library, and museum holdings. Individual entries include the name of the repository in Russian and English, basic information on location, staffing, institutional history, holdings, access, and finding aids. More comprehensive and up to date than the 1997 Russian Version, this edition includes Web site information, dozens of additional repositories, several hundred more bibliographical entries, coverage of reorganization issues, four indexes, and a glossary.

German Scholars and Ethnic Cleansing, 1919-1945 Michael Fahlbusch, Ingo Haar, 2005-01-01 Recently there has been a major shift in the focus of historical research on World War II towards the study of the involvements of scholars and academic institutions in the crimes of the Third Reich. The roots of this involvement go back to the 1920s. At that time, right-wing scholars participated in the movement to revise the Versailles Treaty and to create a new German national identity. The contribution of geopolitics to this development is notorious. But there were also the disciplines of history, geography, ethnography, art history, archeology, sociology, and demography that devised a new nationalist ideology and propaganda. Its scholars established an extensive network of personal and institutional contacts. This volume deals with these scholars and their agendas. They provided the Nazi regime with ideas of territorial expansion, colonial exploitation, and racist exclusion, culminating in the Holocaust. Apart from developing ideas and concepts, scholars also actively worked in the SS and Wehrmacht when Hitler began to implement its criminal policies in World War II. This collection of original essays, written by the foremost European scholars in this field, describes key figures and key programs supporting the expansion and exploitation of the Third Reich. In particular, they analyze the historical, geographic, ethnographic, and ethno-political ideas behind the ethnic cleansing and looting of cultural treasures. The Family Tree German Genealogy Guide James M.
