Doing Applied Linguistics Nicholas Groom, Jeannette Littlemore, 2012-04-27 Doing Applied Linguistics provides a concise lively and accessible introduction to the field of applied linguistics for readers who have little or no prior knowledge of the subject The book explores the basics of the field then goes on to examine in more depth what applied linguists actually do and the types of research methods that are most frequently used in the field By reading this book students will find the answers to four sets of basic questions What is applied linguistics and what do applied linguists do Why do it What is the point of applied linguistics How and why might I get involved in applied linguistics How to do it What kinds of activities are involved in doing applied linguistic research Written by teachers and researchers in applied linguistics Doing Applied Linguistics is essential reading for all students with interests in this area

Second Language Task-Based Performance Peter Skehan, 2018-07-04 Second Language Task Based Performance is the first book to synthesize Peter Skehan's theoretical and empirical contributions all in one place With three distinct themes explored in each section theory empirical studies and assessment Skehan's influential body of work is organized in such a way that it provides an updated reflection on the material and makes it relevant to today's researchers Also in each section an early publication is matched by at least one later publication followed by a newly written commentary chapter the combination of which provides the important function of offering a wider ranging discussion This book is an invaluable resource for researchers interested in second language task based research or SLA more generally

The Handbook of Classroom Discourse and Interaction Numa Markee, 2019-01-30 Offering an interdisciplinary approach The Handbook of Classroom Discourse and Interaction presents a series of contributions written by educators and applied linguists that explores the latest research methodologies and theories related to classroom language Organized to facilitate a critical understanding of how and why various research traditions differ and how they overlap theoretically and methodologically Discusses key issues in the future development of research in critical areas of education and applied linguistics Provides empirically based analysis of classroom talk to illustrate theoretical claims and methodologies Includes multimodal transcripts an emerging trend in education and applied linguistics particularly in conversation analysis and sociocultural theory

Assessment for Learning Within and Beyond the Classroom Siew Fun Tang, Loshinikarasi Logonnathan, 2016-06-29 These conference proceedings focus on Assessment for Learning Within and Beyond the Classroom in recognition of the power of assessment for learning as a way of boosting student performance They explore the breadth depth and quality of the best models and practices strategies lessons learnt and discuss cases of successful implementation of assessment within the classroom and beyond including the virtual space They also provide fertile ground for stimulating and comparing responsive assessment approaches and practices in relatively new areas of assessment such as graduate capability assessment in view of the need for educational institutions to evidence graduate employability

Task-Based Language Learning - Insights from and for L2 Writing Heidi Byrnes, Rosa M. Manchón, 2014-11-14 The book seeks to enlarge the theoretical scope research agenda and practices associated with TBLT in a two way dynamic by exploring how insights from writing might reconfigure our understanding of tasks and in turn how work associated with TBLT might benefit the learning and teaching of writing In order to enrich the domain of task and to advance the educational interests of TBLT it adopts both a psycholinguistic and a textual meaning making orientation Following an issues oriented introductory chapter Part I of the volume explores tenets methods and findings in task oriented theory and research in the context of writing the chapters in Part II present empirical findings on task based writing by investigating how writing tasks are implemented how writers differentially respond to tasks and how tasks can contribute to language development A coda chapter summarizes the volume s contribution and suggests directions for advancing TBLT constructs and research agendas Investigating Tasks in Formal Language Learning Mar?a Del Pilar Garc?a Mayo, 2007 This book brings together research that makes use of tasks to examine oral interaction written production vocabulary and reading lexical innovation and pragmatics in different formal language learning contexts and in different languages English French German Italian and Spanish It will be of interest to professionals and students working in SLA research and language pedagogy

Reflections on Task-Based Language Teaching Rod Ellis, 2018-06-18 Task based language teaching is now a well established pedagogic approach but problematic issues remain such as whether it is appropriate for all learners and in all instructional contexts This book draws on the author's experience of working with teachers together with his knowledge of relevant research and theory to examine the key issues It proposes flexible ways in which tasks can be designed and implemented in the language classroom to address the problems that teachers often face with task based language teaching It will appeal to researchers and teachers who are interested in task based language teaching and the practical and theoretical issues involved It will also be of interest to students and researchers working in the areas of applied linguistics TESOL and second language acquisition

Second Language Research Alison Mackey, Susan M. Gass, 2021-09-30 Second Language Research Methodology and Design is a clear comprehensive overview of core issues in L2 research Authored by well known scholars in SLA and supported by a wealth of examples from actual studies and extensive pedagogical resources this book first introduces students to the key topics and debates in L2 research It then guides readers step by step through the research process from basic principles and collection methods through study design and reporting to the point of being able to conduct their own research from beginning to end This book is an essential text for students and novice researchers of SLA applied linguistics and second and foreign language teaching Key Features A wealth of graphics visuals and exercises in each chapter Time to Think and Time to Do boxes within chapters Helpful glossary and subject index New to This Edition Substantially reorganized chapters Significantly expanded chapters on qualitative and mixed methods Substantive revised material on computer technology based research Spotlights a variety of new software packages and databases including video mediated technology and games Discusses the Open Science Movement Expanded coverage of corpora processing and psycholinguistics based research Updated references throughout
