Residential Care National Institute for Social Work, 1988 Literature surveys commissioned by the Independent Review of Residential Care The Wagner Report NISW Staff, 1988-01-01 Residential Care National Institute for Social Work, Gillian Wagner, Independent Review of Residential Care, 1988 End of Life in Care Homes Jeanne Samson Katz, Sheila M. Peace, 2003-04-03 In our society the overwhelming majority of people die in later life They typically die slowly of chronic diseases with multiple co existing problems over long periods of time They spend the majority of their final years at home but many will die in hospitals or care homes This book explores the possibilities for improving the care of older people dying in residential care and nursing homes It argues that there are aspects of palliative care that given the right circumstances are transferable to dying people in settings that are not domestic or hospice based End of Life in Care Homes describes what happens in nursing and residential care homes when a resident is dying how carers cope and the practical health and emotional challenges that carers face on top of their day to day work Based on detailed research from both the UK and US the book shows how the situation can be improved The Child's Journey Through Care Dorota Iwaniec, 2006-08-04 This book focuses on children s journeys through the care system from voluntary admission into care through complicated and often long court proceedings in pursuit of Care or Freeing Orders Problems that arise from taking cases through the courts are examined together with tensions that may arise between judicial and social work decision making The Child s Journey Through Care discusses in full the emotional and behavioural problems of looked after children and elaborates on care planning and helping strategies children s rights whilst in State care and their participation in decision making about their future including preparation for appearances in court the importance and ways of building new attachments and relationships with substitute carers with emphases on resilience and children s strengths pitfalls and successes when seeking permanency of care and emotional stability The book also includes considerations of the European Convention of Human Rights 1998 and describes many of the dilemmas arising in meeting the rights of children and parents without jeopardising the welfare of either The importance of openness consideration and straightforward dealings with parents is given due emphasis especially where preparations for taking cases to court are involved The Child s Journey Through Care will be a valuable source of information for field and residential workers social work supervisors resource managers policy makers and those working in the legal profession Residential Care Transformed J. Johnson, S. Rolph, R. Smith, 2010-05-28 This book now in paperback revisits Peter Townsend s classic study of residential care for older people in Britain conducted in the late 1950s It provides not only a fascinating account of residential care for older people over the last 50 years but is also an important contribution to the literature on research methods Understanding Care, Welfare and Community Vivien Bacigalupo, Joanna Bornat, Bill Bytheway, Julia Johnson, Susan Spurr, 2005-07-08 Care welfare and community are three key concepts in contemporary social policy This reader covers a wide range of topics

associated with them and relevant to the delivery of care and support to adults It includes a wide ranging collection of articles by leading writers and researchers some previously published some newly commissioned It also has first hand accounts by users and providers of care and welfare in the community Groups covered include people with mental health problems homeless people older people people with learning difficulties and people with impairments The focus throughout is on how policies and practice can be developed appropriately and sensitively through an understanding of current issues The 40 chapters are grouped into four sections each with an introduction Five of the chapters are made up of extracts from a wide range of documents and testimonies Power and inequality Difference and identity Rights and risk Territories and boundaries Most of the material relates to a diverse turn of the century Britain but this is set in a wider context enabling the student to explore the alternative realities of other countries and other times Understanding Care Welfare and Community provides an integrated multidisciplinary overview of the many different aspects of community care It is appropriate for students and professionals following a wide range of courses in social work nursing care health social policy medicine voluntary work and welfare services It will also be a valuable resource for carers and practitioners teachers and policy makers Child Abuse and Neglect Thesaurus ,1978 Mental Health and Care Homes Tom Denning,Alison Milne,2011-05-26 The care home sector is large with over 400 000 residents in the UK and a similar number employed within the homes Care home residents are often very old and many have multiple physical and mental health needs meaning that their care poses particular challenges This book offers a coherent and evidence based text exploring these issues

Re-evaluating Residential Care Sheila M. Peace,Leonie A. Kellaher,Dianne M. Willcocks,1997 The authors of this timely book set out to answer this pressing question and offer an explanation as to what makes older people give up their homes Residential care homes provide accommodation for over 300 000 older people in the UK the majority of whom are in their mid eighties More than a quarter of the population over eighty five live in institutional settings most of them in residential care homes Older People in Modern Society Anthea Tinker,2014-10-13 Older People in Modern Society is an established classic text in its field and through subsequent editions its reputation and that of its author has grown In this fourth and renamed edition Anthea Tinker synthesises and discusses a wide range of literature about older people drawing from fields such as medicine sociology and social policy and using primary source material to illustrate the text She also introduces a number of topics that have attained greater importance since publication of the third edition in 1992 for example continuing care and the abuse of older people Child Abuse and Neglect and Family Violence Thesaurus ,1988 The Children Act Great Britain. Dept. of Health,1991 How will the Children Act affect work with disabled children This guidance outlines the responsibilities of social services departments SSDs under the Act stating that they have a clear duty to provide services to children with disabilities Treating disabled children as children first is of paramount importance However there is a need for all staff who may be involved in providing a service to a child with a disability to be aware of legislation and SSDs should ensure that advice expertise and resources are available for their staff when needed

Concepts of Evidence Based Practice for the Physical Therapist Assistant Barbara B. Gresham, 2016-01-11 With physical therapist assistants PTAs performing patient interventions under the direction of a physical therapist you need to know how to read and understand a research article to provide the best possible patient care The PTA must have a reasonable grasp of current evidence to communicate knowledgeably with the therapist the patient and other health care providers This text provides the information and skills you need to actively participate in evidence based practice You ll enter the world of the clinic with confidence

The Dependent Elderly Luke Gormally, 1992-08-28 A distinguished team of contributors from the fields of medicine philosophy and law address some of the issues which arise over the provision of care for dependent elderly patients Some of the chapters are concerned with the challenge of achieving good quality medical care the chronic inadequacies of policy making in the UK context and the prospects for improvement in the medium term Other chapters look at some of the threats to dependent elderly patients posed by longer term social and ideological trends which find expression in proposals for age limits to health care advocacy of living wills and euthanasia arguments for withdrawing tube feeding from certain categories of patient and certain proposals for resource allocation This interdisciplinary volume will have a wide appeal to those involved in care of the dependent elderly to health policy analysts and health care economists and to bioethicists

Embracing the Song of Phrase: An Emotional Symphony within Residential Care The Research Reviewed

In a world eaten by displays and the ceaseless chatter of fast connection, the melodic elegance and psychological symphony developed by the published word often diminish in to the back ground, eclipsed by the persistent noise and disruptions that permeate our lives. However, located within the pages of Residential Care The Research Reviewed an enchanting fictional treasure brimming with raw thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by a masterful composer of language, that interesting masterpiece conducts visitors on an emotional trip, well unraveling the hidden songs and profound affect resonating within each cautiously crafted phrase. Within the depths of this touching analysis, we will explore the book is central harmonies, analyze its enthralling writing type, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
