Resisting Reform A Policy Analysis Of The Israeli Health Care Delivery System:

Resisting Reform Gerald Steinberg, Etta Bick, 1992-10-06 An overview of the public health care system in Israel

Policy Making at the Margins of Government Yair Zalmanovitch, 2012-02-01 Who makes public policy in vital services that are paid for by the government but provided by autonomous non governmental agencies This book explores this question through the prism of Israel's unique not for profit health system drawing heavily on unpublished archival sources and interviews with key players Starting with the system's roots in Israel's pre state period it traces the almost century long struggle between the country's largest healthcare provider Kupat Holim and successive Israeli governments for control of the tools of policy making allocation regulation and restructuring It analyzes how Kupat Holim acquired and exercised a veto over healthcare policy and then how under the pressure of changing social developments and party politics its veto was eroded and finally lost in the health reform of the 1990s Entering the current debates on health reform and government by proxy the author questions whether the reform actually improved healthcare as promised or allowed the government to renege on its responsibilities

Israel at the Polls, 1992 Daniel Judah Elazar, Shmuel Sandler, 1995 The results of the June 1992 Israeli elections at first indicated a normal transition of power from Likud to Labor in the tradition of Western democracies rather than an upset However one and one half years later there were signs of a major change Israel at the Polls 1992 looks at the parties election campaigns major institutions and analyzes the policies of the new government's first year Co published with the Jerusalem Center for Public Affairs

Work and Organizations in Israel Itzhak Harpaz, 2017-09-04 Since the State of Israel was established its labor force has grown rapidly and has become increasingly diverse in terms of its demographic cultural ethnic and socioeconomic characteristics Israeli work values have shifted towards greater individualism materialism careerism and preference for white collar and knowledge based occupations is evident A major structural change is underway as indicated by the decline of agriculture as a component in the Israeli economy and the growth of the industrial sector mostly towards high technology and innovative enterprises This volume sheds light on trends and developments that have been taking place in the realm of work in Israel in recent years It contains a unique selection of articles presenting empirical evidence of the major features and important changes characterizing work organizations and the regime of work in Israeli society labor relations work values power and management in organizations work in the Kibbutz inter organizational relations women and work migrants and minorities in the Israeli labor force Studies show that another two major trends characterize the contemporary economy and the labor market the trend toward privatization and globalization the results of which are a continuous decrease of job security and an increasing level of unemployed Israeli men and women that are replaced by the low cost labor of foreign workers emigrating from third world countries This timely volume is valuable for its contribution to

Globalisation and increased cultural heterogeneity have had a major impact on states whose identity has been defined in terms of a single often socially constructed allegiance to the state and a single hegemonic ideology Nowhere are changing notions of identity more prevalent than in Israel a country whose dominant Western Jewish society has been subject to understanding their past and present in terms of a single ideology of state formation Zionism This book challenges some of the traditional analytical paradigms prevalent in Israeli social science for the past fifty years Achy But Healthy Yaakov Kop, 1994-09-01 Health policy has been for some time high on the agenda of many countries and where it has not it should be Since no ideal model of health services has ever been devised one may look for favorable elements in the health sector of a given country and examine their applicability to other countries This paper analyzes Israel's health sector in this context

Six Countries, Six Reform Models: The Healthcare Reform Experience Of Israel, The Netherlands, New Zealand, Singapore, Switzerland And Taiwan - Healthcare Reforms "Under The Radar Screen" Kieke G Okma, Iva Bolgiani, Tim Tenbenschel, Toni Ashton, Hans Maarse, Meng-kin Lim, Luca Crivelli, David Chinitz, Tsung-mei Cheng, Rachel Meislin, 2009-12-23

This book presents the healthcare reform experiences of six small to mid sized but dynamic economies spanning the Asia Pacific the Middle East and Europe Usually not given serious consideration in major international comparisons because of their small size each in fact provides a fascinating case study that illuminates the understanding of the dynamics of healthcare reform Although dissimilar in historical and cultural backgrounds they share some important features all faced very similar pressures for change in the 1970s and 1980s all considered a very similar range of policy options and all did not only discuss but actually implemented fundamental changes in their healthcare funding organization contracting and governance structures with strikingly different outcomes All of the authors have lived and worked in one or more of the countries studied in this volume The analytic frameworks they use reflect their broad range of professional and disciplinary backgrounds in health economics and political science Beyond mere descriptions of reform processes and superficial analyses based on aggregate data from the usual OECD or WHO sources they seek to understand and explain the variations in country experiences by examining the politico socio economic factors driving health reform as seen through the respective country lenses In coming together in this unique international collaboration they make an important contribution to the growing field of international comparative health policy studies Contributors Tsung Mei Cheng Princeton University USA David Chinitz The Hebrew University of Jerusalem Israel Luca Crivelli and Iva Bolgiani University of Lugano Switzerland Meng Kin Lim National University of Singapore Singapore Kieke G H Okma and Hans Maarse Maastricht University The Netherlands Toni Ashton and Tim Tenbensen University of Auckland New Zealand International Books in Print ,1997
