Resisting The Anomie:

Resisting the Anomie Kwame Senu Neville Dawes, 1995 Resisting the Anomie is the second book of poetry by Kwame Dawes whose collection Progeny of Air won Britain's prestigious Forward Trust Poetry Prize for Best First Book in the fall of 1994. In Resisting the Anomie Dawes takes as his subject the anxiety of being far from home, the unease of not belonging, the sense of disconnection from culture and custom. Poems of Jamaica, of Canada, of Haiti, tightly controlled poems, wild and free poems, reggae poems, poems of rejoicing of faith, love, anger and humour. Resisting the Anomie is a large collection of substantial works by a new and significant writer.

Resisting Indonesia's Culture of Impunity Jess Melvin, Sri Lestari Wahyuningroem, Annie Pohlman, 2023-08-31 Resisting Indonesia's Culture of Impunity examines the role of Indonesia's first truth and reconciliation commission, the Aceh Truth and Reconciliation Commission or KKR Aceh, in investigating and redressing the extensive human rights violations committed during three decades of brutal separatist conflict, 1976-2005, in the province of Aceh. The KKR Aceh was founded in late 2016 as a product of the 2005 peace deal between the Indonesian government and the Free Aceh Movement (GAM). It has since faced many challenges, not least from Indonesia's security forces and former GAM leaders who have joined together in their determination to maintain impunity for their respective roles in the conflict. Indeed, the commission would not have been established without the tireless work of civil society actors, including non-government organisations and other humanitarian groups. In Resisting Indonesia's Culture of Impunity, the editors set out to amplify the role of these civil society actors in the KKR Aceh and in transitional justice in Indonesia. Each chapter has been written by a team of authors composed predominantly of commissioners and staff from the KKR Aceh itself, members of key civil society organisations and academics. Further, the editors aim to scrutinise the KKR Aceh from the inside and analyse the establishment and operation of what is perhaps the only genuine state-sponsored attempt to implement transitional justice in Indonesia today.

Creativity in Exile, 2016-08-09 Until recently, discussion of creativity in exile has focussed almost exclusively on a few European male writers, from Dante to Joseph Brodsky, who sought refuge abroad from political oppression. This volume, with accompanying 100-minute DVD, ranges much more widely to examine the extraordinary creative endeavours in a range of media of men and women in almost every part of the world who, for a host of different reasons, have experienced displacement from their homelands. It brings together papers by academics, many of whom have experienced exile themselves, on topics as diverse as the visual arts in Colombia, fiction by displaced indigenous peoples, convicts and slaves as exiles, writings about the partition of Bengal, the culture of Palestinian Americans, philosophers on exile and the significance of cooking to refugee communities, which are interspersed with poems by contemporary writers in exile. The use of the DVD format has permitted the inclusion of studio interviews with notable exiled writers from Nigeria, Cyprus and Bulgaria, extracts from two films relating to exile, a live reading of his work by an Iraqi poet, an audio and sculptural installation by a First Nations Canadian artist and a performance by musicians in exile from Burundi.

Scott, 2020-02-28 This Research Handbook offers contextualized perspectives on entrepreneurship in emerging economies Emphasizing how national context profoundly shapes incentives for entrepreneurial efforts chapters dissect the opportunities emerging from various institutions and social practices from the Middle East North and Sub Saharan Africa Asia and Latin America This Handbook is an ideal guide for researchers working on emerging economies particularly those with an interest in global entrepreneurship Readings in Syrian Prison

Literature R. Shareah Taleghani, 2021-06-21 The simple act of inscription both minute and epic can be a powerful tool to bear witness and give voice to those who are oppressed silenced and forgotten In the eras of Hafiz al Asad and his son Bashar Syrian political dissidents have written extensively about their experiences of detention both while in prison and afterwards This body of writing largely untranslated into English is essential to understanding the oppositional political culture among dissidents since the 1970s a culture that laid the foundation for the 2011 Syrian Revolution The emergence of prison literature as a specific genre helped articulate opposition to authoritarian states including the Asad regime However the significance of Syrian prison literature goes beyond a form of witnessing expressing creative opposition and illuminating the larger cultural and historical backstory of the Syrian uprising Prison literature in all its diversity challenges the narrative structures and conventional language of human rights In doing so prison literature has played an essential role in generating the experimental shift in Arabic literature since the 1960s Taleghani's groundbreaking work explores prison writing's critical role in resistance movements in Syria the evolution of Arabic literature and the development of a global human rights

Resisting Disappearance Ather Zia, 2019-06-26 In Kashmir's frigid winter a woman leaves her door cracked open waiting for the return of her only son Every month in a public park in Srinagar a child remembers her father as she joins her mother in collective mourning The activist women who form the Association of the Parents of the Disappeared Persons APDP keep public attention focused on the 8 000 to 10 000 Kashmiri men disappeared by the Indian government forces since 1989 Surrounded by Indian troops international photojournalists and curious onlookers the APDP activists cry lament and sing while holding photos and files documenting the lives of their disappeared loved ones In this radical departure from traditionally private rituals of mourning they create a spectacle of mourning that combats the government's threatening silence about the fates of their sons husbands and fathers Drawn from Ather Zia's ten years of engagement with the APDP as an anthropologist and fellow Kashmiri activist Resisting Disappearance follows mothers and half widows as they step boldly into courts military camps and morgues in search of their disappeared kin Through an amalgam of ethnography poetry and photography Zia illuminates how dynamics of gender and trauma in Kashmir have been transformed in the face of South Asia's longest running conflict providing profound insight into how Kashmiri women and men nurture a politics of resistance while facing increasing military violence under India Music in Crime, Resistance, and Identity Eleanor Peters, 2023-02-10 This book considers the intersection of music politics and identity focusing on music genres across the world as a form of political expression and protest positive identity formations and also how the criminalisation censoring policing and prosecution of musicians and fans can occur All encompassing in this book is analyses of the unique contribution of music to various aspects of human activity through an international multi disciplinary approach The book will serve as a starting point for scholars in those areas where there has been an uncertain approach to this subject while those from disciplines with a more established canon of music analysis will be informed about what each perspective can offer The approach is international and multi disciplinary with the contributing authors focusing on a range of countries and the differing social and cultural impact of music for both musicians and fans Academic disciplines can provide some explanations but the importance of the contribution of practitioners is vital for a fully rounded understanding of the impact of music Therefore this book takes the reader on a journey beginning with theoretical and philosophical perspectives on music and society proceeding to an analysis of laws and policies and concluding with the use of music by educational practitioners and the people with whom they work This book will appeal to students and scholars in subjects such as sociology criminology cultural studies and across the wider social sciences It will also be of interest to practitioners in youth justice or those with other involvement in the criminal justice system

New & Selected Poems, 1994-2002 Kwame Senu Neville Dawes, 2003 Since Kwame Dawes published his Forward Poetry prize winning Progeny of Air in 1994 six further collections have followed which have had a huge impact on Caribbean poetry This collection contains a generous selection from all these volumes showing the breadth and depth of Dawes achievement

Alienation, Society, and the Individual R. Felix Geyer, Walter R. Heinz, 1992-01-01 The concept of alienation is an umbrella concept that includes powerlessness meaninglessness social isolation cultural estrangement and self estrangement For researchers the study of alienation is a three fold task first understanding the discrepancy between individual values and actions and general living and working conditions second analyzing the overt and latent forms of oppression in social structures third accounting for social circumstances that hinder or facilitate individual or collective action against those alienating structures Alienation Society and the Individual provides a timely and broadly representative overview of the most recent developments in alienation research and theory Alienation Society and the Individual makes it clear that alienation research has come of age Further theoretical developments remain important and as demonstrated In this volume which revives theoretical debate so as to reformulate classical concepts in view of developments in modern society the concept of alienation is now increasingly applied to empirical research in a variety of fields Included here are theory driven evaluations of empirical research on migrant workers as well as comparative studies on differing liberation ideologies in South Africa This volume reflects the effects of political developments in Eastern Europe on Marxist alienation theory While Marxist theory remains important it is no longer directed exclusively toward criticism of capitalist society New applications include a critique of Eastern European state socialism analysis of consumer rather than capitalist society and uncommon examples of empirical research carried out within a Marxist framework The book concludes with a chapter that evaluates recent theoretical and methodological innovations and sets priorities for future

The Afghan Conundrum: intervention, statebuilding and resistance

Jonathan Goodhand, Mark Sedra, 2016-04-14 This book covers the period spanning the international invasion of Afghanistan in 2001 to the foreign military withdrawal in 2014 It explores and dissects the conflictual encounter between international troops statebuilders and donors on the one hand and Afghan elites and the wider population on the other It brings together a group of leading experts and analysts on Afghanistan who examine the varied reasons behind the mixed and often perverse effects of exogenous state building and reflects upon their implications for wider theory and practice The starting point of the various contributions is a serious engagement with empirical realities drawing upon extended experience and field research Their exploration of the unfolding dynamics and effects of external intervention raise fundamental questions about the core premises underlying the state building project This book was published as a special issue of Central Asian Survey
