Lovat, 2012 Society is a complex phenomenon characterized by constant change often entailing conflict This is seen in our own times where philosophies and movements of individualism pluralism and globalization intersect and often collide Still even in this fast moving and highly materialist world religion and spirituality remain crucial aspects of human and social living and therefore must be among the many focusses of the modern school Teachers of Religious and Spiritual Education RSE are therefore expected to support students religious and spiritual understanding as well as their overall development How can they best meet this challenge This book is comprised of various interdisciplinary research findings drawn from international scholarship The findings are of a different order from each other but all have in common an element of surprise sufficient to impel reflection and re thinking of many of the assumptions that normally underpin RSE The book therefore constitutes a contribution to ongoing understanding of the role played by religious and spiritual education and of the proper interface between RSE and the modern school contemporary curricula and the teacher of today Contributions by Robert Crotty Ola Erik Domaas Michael Fricke Liam Gearon Adrian Mario Gellel Eija Hanhimaki Laura Hirsto Tapani Innanen Terence Lovat Klaas Macha Emanuel P Magro Adil Mamodaly Fritz Oser Ulrich Riegel Inkeri Rissanen Sturla Sagberg Kirsi Tirri Theo van der Zee Karen Wenell The Message of Love Patrick Mitchel, 2019-09-19 Love such a deceptively simple and popular little word It is universally agreed that we need love to live and flourish as human beings and yet within our contemporary culture there are numerous confusing competing and evolving ideas about what love is There are few greater subjects in Christian theology than love yet it is a surprisingly complex and challenging concept to understand let alone live out faithfully Patrick Mitchel s conviction is that Christians need to be thinking about and practising love in compelling and authentic ways Our task is not only to articulate what love is but also to show to the world what true Christian love looks like in practice The only thing that counts is faith expressing itself through love Gal 5 6 NIV Mitchel s exposition explores love in the Old Testament how the love of God is supremely revealed in the mission and death of Jesus Christ love in the life and teaching of Jesus and the church s calling to be a community of love He helps us to grasp afresh the breadth depth scope and radically counter cultural nature of the Bible s teaching on love With a fully integrated study guide suitable for both individuals and groups The Message of Love will help you to see how the Bible's unified teaching on this vital theme can impact your life today      Digital Media and Youth Discipleship Vo Huong Nam, 2023-06-30 Today's youth grow up immersed in digital technology. This presents a unique challenge to the church as it seeks to faithfully make disciples of the next generation. What does it look like theologically and practically to minister contextually to those whose lives are permeated by social media and digital culture? In this in-depth study, Dr. Vo Huong Nam offers both social and theological insight into the task of discipling youth in the digital age. He examines the impact of digital media on both society and young people and offers an overview of Christian responses to the changing technological landscape. Engaging such authors as John Calvin, Dietrich Bonhoeffer, and Henri Nouwen, he develops a constructive theology of spiritual formation relevant to the context of twenty-first century youth. He explores the implications of this theology on church practice, urging the church to take seriously its call to be all things for all people. Drawing specific examples from youth ministry in Vietnam, he addresses practical questions of application and contextualization and suggests that silence, solitude, and prayer are spiritual disciplines uniquely vital for the digital age. This book is an important resource for all those involved in discipling young people and longing to see today's youth come to fullness of life in Christ.      Bothering to Love Vogt, Christopher P., Ward, Kate, 2024-08-28      Reflexivity in Love: A Self-Reflexive Portrait of the Little Flower of Jesus Fr. Emmanuel Javert Nnadozie OCD, 2024-09-19 This book focuses particularly on the self-reflexive elements of the divine and human transformation in the Christian life, which we find in St. Therese, especially her ability to wonder and question herself about the mysteries of God as they relate to her spiritual life and growth. It studies Therese's spirit of critical listening and profound spiritual reflection on the things of her experience and explores her self-reflective and interrogative self-understanding of her call to sanctity of life. The author also discusses how the Saint appropriated God's Word and God's grace hidden in the events of her life. The book shows how, through self-reflexivity and meditation on God's Word, she discovered her vocation as love in the heart of the Church, following which she desired to sing of the mercies of the Lord with her whole life by loving God and neighbor in ordinary things in an extraordinary way and by leading a legion of souls through this Little Way of love, which has a general or universal application to all who desire to attain perfection by a straight and short route. While it is recognized that God's grace works in individuals according to their personal vocations, the author believes that spiritual self-reflexivity helps the faithful to integrate meaningfully like St. Therese the general principles of the spiritual life and the example of the Saints into each individual's spiritual life in the events of daily life, irrespective of their individual vocations. And this is why the Little Way as a spiritual path can be lived by all who commit themselves to following the example found in St. Therese's simple, humble, and confident way of spiritual childhood and of loving God and neighbor in the ordinary life and events of every day with reflexivity in love as the key.      Questions and Answers for God Can't Thomas Jay Oord, 2020-07-16 If God can't prevent evil, what can God do? Subversive Spirituality L. Paul Jensen, 2009-08-01 Subversive Spirituality links the practice and study of Christian spirituality with Christian mission It develops a twofold thesis grace spiritual disciplines and mission practices are inseparably linked in the mission of Jesus of the early church and of several historical renewal movements as well as in a contemporary field research sample and amidst the collapse of space and time evidenced by our culture's increasingly hurried pace of life more time and space are needed for regular solitary and communal spiritual practices in church mission and leadership structures if Christian mission is to transform people and culture in our time This requires a subversion of the collapsed spatial and temporal codes that have infected our Christian institutions Jensen employs methods and approaches from a variety of academic disciplines to explore both spirituality in terms of space and time and mission in terms of deed and word Specifically Jensen examines the spirituality and mission of Jesus the early church the apostolic fathers Origen the Devotio Moderna the early Jesuits David Brainerd and several women in 19th century Protestant missions He considers the spirituality and mission that have arisen within the postmodern generations born after 1960 Based on the theological historical cultural and field analyses of this study a model for spirituality and mission is proposed The model addresses the contemporary collapse of space and time and appears to have widespread applicability to diverse cultures and eras Jensen's model is applied to the pluralistic and postmodern milieu of North America with recommendations for spirituality and mission in church mission and educational structures A derivative model for teaching and practicing spirituality and mission in the academy which also has application for non formal leadership development structures is also proposed

Seeking the Beloved Wayne Simsic, 2012-04-01 Prayer is not just time set aside for God or the use of certain techniques it is primarily an intimate relationship with God the Beloved If we hunger for a prayer that is deeper than words and that we can bring to every part of our lives no matter what we are doing then we can turn to St John of the Cross as our guide Retreat master and author Wayne Simsic insists that while it s easy to write off this saint as an otherworldly ascetic and mystic he was actually a down to earth and wise administrator poet and artist whose writings have great relevance for us today In this book Simsic helps readers discover the gift of contemplative prayer as unfolded by this Carmelite saint whose longing for a deep intimacy and union with God can become our longing as well

The Spirit-Led Leader Timothy C. Geoffrion,2005-11-14 In our postmodern experience oriented culture people are longing for greater authenticity integrity and depth in their pastors and leaders Board directors church members and staff alike are all eagerly seeking leaders who effectively integrate their spirituality and leadership Pastors and executives however often struggle with knowing how to integrate their spiritual values and practices into their leadership and management roles Designed for pastors executives administrators managers coordinators and all who see themselves as leaders and who want to fulfill their God given purpose The Spirit Led Leader addresses the critical fusion of spiritual life and leadership for those who not only want to see results but who also desire to care just as deeply about who they are and how they lead as they do about what they produce and accomplish Geoffrion creates a new vision for spiritual leadership as partly an art partly a result of careful planning and always a working of the grace of God

Tracks and Traces Paul S. Fiddes,2007-09-01 This is a comprehensive yet unusual book on the faith and life of Baptist Christians It explores a Baptist understanding of the church ministry sacraments and mission from a thoroughly theological perspective In a series of interlinked essays the author relates Baptist identity to a theology of covenant and to participation in the communion of the triune God The book thus surveys the tracks of heritage giving a solid historical background to each of the major themes while at the same time offering traces of possible paths for the future based on a tracing out of a vision of God

The Encyclopaedia Britannica ,1888 The Encyclopædia Britannica Thomas Spencer Baynes,1891 Medieval Spiritual Writers Gerard Sitwell,1961 The Middle Ages from about 1000 to the eve of the Renaissance in the late fifteenth century witnessed a great flowering of the spiritual life The author provides a guide to the different movements and trends among writers on the spiritual science during this period Beginning with a discussion of their antecedents in Egyptian monasticism the writings of Cassian and the Rule of St Benedict he goes on to analyze the contemplative spirituality developed by monastic writers from John of F camp through St Bernard and William of St Thierry and the German nuns such as St Gertrude and St Mechtilde to the new trends which become discernible in Dominican and Franciscan spirituality The mystical movement of the fourteenth century and the growth of speculative contemplation are examined as they appear in the works of the Rhineland mystics and the English group represented by Richard Rolle Walter Hilton Julian of Norwich and the author of The Cloud of the Unknowing A final chapter discusses the Imitation of Christ the other writings of Thomas Kempis Gerson and Denis the Carthusian and the emergence of spiritual exercises in Mauburnus and Garcia de Cisneros
