Sourcebook of Family Theories and Methods Pauline Boss,William J. Doherty,Ralph LaRossa,Walter R. Schumm,Suzanne K. Steinmetz,2008-11-19

Origins We call this book on theoretical orientations and methodological strategies in family studies a sourcebook because it details the social and personal roots i e sources from which these orientations and strategies flow Thus an appropriate way to preface this book is to talk first of its roots its beginnings In the mid 1980s there emerged in some quarters the sense that it was time for family studies to take stock of itself A goal was thus set to write a book that like Janus would face both backward and forward a book that would give readers both a perspective on the past and a map for the future There were precedents for such a project The Handbook of Marriage and the Family edited by Harold Christensen and published in 1964 the two Contemporary Theories about the Family volumes edited by Wesley Burr Reuben Hill F Ivan Nye and Ira Reiss published in 1979 and the Handbook of Marriage and the Family edited by Marvin Sussman and Suzanne Steinmetz then in production

Self-Defence in Criminal Law Boaz Sangero,2006-07-24

This book combines a careful philosophical discussion of the rationale justifying self defence with a detailed discussion of the range of statutory self defence requirements as well as discussions of numerous other relevant issues i e putative self defense excessive self defense earlier guilt and battered women The book argues that before formulating definitions for each aspect of self defence necessity proportionality retreat immediacy mental element etc it is imperative to determine the proper rationale for self defence and only then to derive the appropriate solutions The first part contains an in depth discussion of why society allows a justification for acts but does not excuse the actor from criminal liability and the author critically analyzes current theories culpability of the aggressor autonomy of the attacked person protection of the social legal order balancing interests choice of the lesser evil and points out the weaknesses of each theory before proposing a new theory to explain the justification of self defence The new theory is that for the full justification of self defence a balance of interests must be struck between the expected physical injury to the attacked person and the expected physical injury to the aggressor as well as the relevant abstract factors the autonomy of the attacked person the culpability of the aggressor and the social legal order The author demonstrates how ignoring one or more of these factors leads to erroneous results and how the proposed rationale can be applied to develop solutions to the complex questions raised
