

OVERVIEW OF THE RESTITUTION PROGRAMME

- The mandate for restitution emanates from s25(7) of the Constitution.
- Land restitution is one of the four elements of land reform, the others being land redistribution, land tenure reform, and development.
- The Restitution of Land Rights Act, 1994 regulates the restitution process. It provides for the establishment of the Commission (to solicit, investigate and attempt to resolve claims through mediation and negotiation) and the Land Claims Court (which adjudicates disputes arising from the process).

Litigating War Sean D. Murphy, Won Kidane, Thomas R. Snider, 2013-03-25 Litigating War offers an in depth examination of the law and procedure of the Eritrea Ethiopia Claims Commission which was tasked with deciding through binding arbitration claims for losses damages and injuries resulting from the 1998 2000 Eritrean Ethiopian war After providing an overview of the war the authors describe how the Commission was established its jurisdiction the sources of law it applied its treatment of nationality and evidentiary issues and the relief it rendered Separate chapters then address particular topics such as the initiation of the war battlefield conduct belligerent occupation aerial bombardment prisoners of war enemy aliens and their property diplomats and diplomatic property and general economic loss A final chapter examines the lessons that might be learned from the experience of the Claims Commission especially with an eye to the establishment of such commissions in the future The volume includes a preface from James Crawford and also reproduces all the key documents relating to the Commission the bilateral agreement establishing the Commission its rules of procedure and its numerous decisions and arbitral awards The analytical portion of the volume contains extensive cross references to these primary documents Further a comprehensive table of contents and indexes relating to subject matter treaties and cases provide ready access to all the material contained within

Housing, Land and Property Rights Scott Leckie, 2023-09-15 This book explores various contemporary aspects of the growing field of housing land and property HLP rights HLP rights have undergone a major transformation in recent decades but much remains to be done to bring their promise to the billions of people who have yet to access them This work presents several innovative ways by which the entire field of HLP rights can be strengthened in support of those to whom they are promised by human rights laws It outlines the author's suggestions for creating a new World Restitution Agency expanding our understanding of the term internationally wrongful act to HLP crimes the links between mine action and HLP rights in post conflict societies and the need to include HLP issues in peace agreements The book concludes with several chapters that outline suggestions for better addressing climate displacement including the need for national climate land banks the role of the courts and how to redistribute global wealth towards rehousing the millions set to be displaced from their homes and lands due to the effects of climate change The volume will be essential reading for academics researchers and policymakers working in the areas of international human rights law housing land and property issues humanitarian issues and climate change

Land, Memory, Reconstruction, and Justice Cherryl Walker, Anna Bohlin, Ruth Hall, Thembela Kepe, 2010-06-05 Land is a significant and controversial topic in South Africa Addressing the land claims of those dispossessed in the past has proved to be a demanding multidimensional process In many respects the land restitution program that was launched as part of the country's transition to democracy in 1994 has failed to meet expectations with ordinary citizens policymakers and analysts questioning not only its progress but also its outcomes and parameters Land Memory Reconstruction and Justice brings together a wealth of topical material and case studies by leading experts in the field who present a rich mix of perspectives from politics sociology geography social anthropology law history and agricultural economics The collection addresses both the material and the symbolic dimensions of land claims in rural and urban contexts and explores the complex intersection of issues confronting the restitution program from the promotion of livelihoods to questions of rights identity and transitional justice A valuable contribution to the field of land and agrarian studies both in South Africa and internationally it is undoubtedly the most comprehensive treatment to date of South Africa s postapartheid land claims process and will be essential reading for scholars and students of land reform for years to come , From Land Disputes to Sustainable Environmental Development Ozay

Mehmet,Vedat Yorucu,2024-04-20 This book is written to transform land disputes toward win win outcomes utilizing the latest sustainable development theory Land has always been a source of conflict a contest of competing homelands and ideologies but it can also act as an agency of peace making promoting economic and social development This dualism will be the theme of this book as there is a dearth of studies exclusively focused on land The book s coverage is comprehensive examining land and property disputes with case studies in modern times along with a problem solving approach utilizing such economic theorems as Location and Growth Poles theories The UN s Sustainable Development Goals will be used as our over arching framework The overall aim of the book is to transform land disputes toward win win outcomes utilizing latest sustainable development theory Stolen Nation Lena El-Malak,2024-11-28 While Palestinians continue to face the threat of expulsion from their homes identifying legal mechanisms that can be used to assert Palestinian s property rights is needed more than ever This book provides a legal analysis of the right to reparation of Palestinian refugees under international law for the destruction and expropriation of their property during the Nakba Discussing the legal landscape related to property ownership prior to the creation of the State of Israel and the legal basis for the right to reparation under international law Lena El Malak advocates for a law based approach to enforce this right and the form it should take The book demonstrates how the legal rights of Palestinian refugees specifically as related to their properties have been marginalized and excluded from the political discourse of the peace process Here the legal rights of Palestinian refugees are demonstrated challenges for invoking these rights in international and domestic courts are determined and forms of restitution and compensation outlined This study offers a timely contribution to provide a comprehensive legal as opposed to a political economic or historical analysis of the right to reparation of Palestinian refugees for their property losses Additionally the book seeks to demonstrate the importance of adopting a legal framework in any future negotiation for a peaceful resolution to this long standing struggles for liberation The Northeastern Reporter ,1919 Includes the decisions of the Supreme Courts of Massachusetts Ohio Indiana and Illinois and Court of Appeals of New York May July 1891 Mar Apr 1936 Appellate Court of Indiana Dec 1926 Feb 1927 Mar Apr 1936 Courts of Appeals of Ohio Enhancing Urban Safety and Security United Nations Human Settlements Programme,2007 First Published in 2007 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa
