Restitution In Criminal Justice A Critical Assessment Of Sanctions:

Confiscation of the Proceeds of Crime Ariadna H. Ochnio,2025-05-30 The book provides a critical analysis of EU law making policy on the confiscation of the proceeds of crime using a minimalist restorative approach to justice focused on the rights of victims and communities and more proactive roles for all participants in confiscation procedures This book shows how the examined policy has been translated into the EU law standards adopted as its realisation and whether the gaps identified in these standards are reflected in the domestic law of the comparator EU jurisdictions Poland Germany and France The post conviction confiscation regime in England and Wales is also explored as an example of an alternative non EU model of value based confiscation Considering the complex juridical nature of confiscation which challenges the applicability of the civil criminal dichotomy this book recommends a twofold approach when shaping EU confiscation mechanisms focused on linking policy objectives with a restorative approach to justice and making the appropriate choice of criminal or civil routes for confiscation This book will be of key interest to scholars students and practitioners in EU policy and law criminal law EU and national law on confiscation EU criminal justice policy and more broadly to European studies criminology and international organisations

Civilising Criminal Justice David J. Cornwell, John R. Blad, Martin Wright,2013 Probably the best collection there is Civilizing Criminal Justice is an inescapable resource for anyone interested in restorative justice truly international and packed with experience while combining history theory developments and practical advice This volume of specially commissioned contributions by widely respected commentators on crime and punishment from various countries is a break through in bringing together some of the best arguments for long overdue penal reform An increasingly urgent need to change outmoded criminal processes even in advanced democracies demands an end to those penal excesses driven by political expediency and damaging notions of retribution deterrence and punishment for its own sake Civilising criminal justice will make it fairer more consistent understandable and considerate towards victims of crime currently largely excluded from participation Principles of reparative and restorative justice have become increasingly influential in the quest to provide justice which tackles harm compensates victims repairs relationships resolves debilitating conflicts and calls offenders to account And in any case what real justification is there for subjecting more and more people to the expensive but hollow experience of prison especially at a time of economic stringency Civil justice in its various forms can be swifter cheaper and more effective in court or through mediated processes focusing on the harmful consequences of offences rather than inflicting punishment that may satisfy a baying media but come home to haunt the community This brave and generous book 600 pages illustrates the many different ways in which criminal justice can be civilised and how lessons can be learned from practical experience across the world and shared expertise It is a volume that every politician should read every criminal justice professional should possess and that every student of criminology and penology will find invaluable David Cornwell John Blad and Martin Wright are three of the leading international experts on this topic with many publications to their names individually Contributors Serge Gutwirth and Paul De Hert Belgium Federico Reggio Italy Bas van Stokkom The Netherlands Lode Walgrave Belgium Susan Easton and Christine Piper UK Louis Blom Cooper QC UK Tapio Lappi Sepp I Finland Thomas Trenczek Germany Jean Pierre Bonaf Schmitt France Per Andersen Norway Claire Spivakovsky Australia Ann Skelton Republic of South Africa Borb la Fellegi Hungary Judge Fred McElrea New Zealand and the editors John Braithwaite is a Distinguished Professor at the Australian National University author of ground breaking works on restorative justice and recipient of various awards

Errors of Justice Brian Forst,2004 In this book Brian Forst takes a fresh new perspective on the assessment of criminal justice policy examining the prospect of assessing policies based on their impact on errors of justice the error of failing to bring offenders to justice on the one hand and the error of imposing costs on innocent people and excessive costs on offenders on the other Noting that we have sophisticated systems for managing errors in statistical inference and quality control processes and no parallel system for managing errors of a more socially costly variety on matters of guilt and innocence the author lays the foundation for a common sense approach to the management of errors in the criminal justice system from policing and prosecution to sentencing and corrections He examines the sources of error in each sector the harms they impose on society and frameworks for analyzing and reducing them

Lynette Parker,2022-05-30 Restoring Justice An Introduction to Restorative Justice Sixth Edition offers a clear and convincing explanation of restorative justice a movement within criminal justice with ongoing worldwide influence The book explores the broad appeal of this vision and offers a brief history of its roots and development as an alternative to an impersonal justice system focused narrowly on the conviction and punishment of those who break the law Instead restorative justice emphasizes repairing the harm caused or revealed by criminal behavior using cooperative processes that include all the stakeholders The book presents the theory and principles of restorative justice and discusses its four cornerpost ideas Inclusion Encounter Repair and Cohesion Multiple models for how restorative justice may be incorporated into criminal justice are explored and the book proposes an approach to assessing the extent to which programs or systems are actually restorative in practice The authors also suggest six strategic objectives to significantly expand the use and reach of restorative justice and recommended tactics to make progress towards the acceptance and adoption of restorative programs and systems
