Communicating with the Gods Matthias Schumann, Elena Valussi, 2023-10-09 Few religious innovations have shaped Chinese history like the emergence of spirit writing during the Song dynasty From a divinatory technique it evolved into a complex ritual practice used to transmit messages and revelations from the Gods This resulted in the production of countless religious scriptures that now form an essential corpus widely venerated and recited to this day that is still largely untapped by research Using historical and ethnographic approaches this volume for the first time offers a comprehensive overview of the history of spirit writing examining its evolution over a millennium the practices and technologies used and the communities involved

Woodsburner John Pipkin, 2010-05-04 Set against the backdrop of a devastating forest fire that Henry David Thoreau accidentally set in 1844 John Pipkin's novel brilliantly illuminates the mind of the young philosopher at a formative moment in his life and in the life of the young nation. The Thoreau of Woodsburner is a lost soul resigned to a career designing pencils for his father's factory while dreaming of better things. On the day of the fire, his path crosses those of three very different people, each of whom also harbors a secret dream. Oddmund Hus, a shy Norwegian farmhand, pines for the wife of his brutal employer. Eliot Calvert, a prosperous bookseller, is also a hilariously inept aspiring playwright. Caleb Dowdy preaches fire and brimstone to his followers through an opium haze. Each of their lives like Thoreau's will be changed forever by the fire.

Nostalgia in Anglophone Arab Literature Tasnim Qutait, 2021-04-22. This book offers an in-depth engagement with the growing body of Anglophone Arab fiction in the context of theoretical debates around memory and identity. Against the critical tendency to dismiss nostalgia as a sentimental trope of immigrant narratives, Qutait sheds light on the creative uses to which it is put in the works of Rabih Alameddine, Ahdaf Soueif, Hisham Matar, Leila Aboulela, Randa Jarrar, Rawi Hage, and others. Arguing for the necessity of theorising cultural memory beyond Eurocentric frameworks, the book demonstrates how Arab novelists writing in English draw on nostalgia as a touchstone of Arabic literary tradition, from pre-Islamic poetry to the present. Qutait situates Anglophone Arab fiction within contentious debates about the place of the past in the Arab world, tracing how writers have deployed nostalgia as an aesthetic strategy to deal with subject matter ranging from the Islamic golden age, the era of anti-colonial struggle, the failures of the postcolonial state, and of pan-Arabism, and the perennial issue of the diaspora's relationship to the homeland. Making a contribution to the transnational turn in memory studies while focusing on a region underrepresented in this field, this book will be of interest for researchers interested in cultural memory, postcolonial studies, and the literatures of the Middle East.

Shadows and Wolves William Herrick, 1980-03. Chaos Rises Melinda Kucsera, 2025-09-27. Sovvan never asked to become the Angel of Death. She didn't want the title, and she definitely doesn't want to stop the Apocalypse. But the former Angel of Death will stop at nothing to reclaim the powers she lost, and she's set her sights on Sovvan's closest friend, Fay, the immortal goddess of fate and the future who thwarted her for thousands of years. Fay and her demigod children can still die, even if Sovvan can't. With the clock ticking, Sovvan must master her new powers to save her friend and protect the fragile future that keeps their world alive. Without Fay, there's no timeline, no future, and no tomorrow. Time itself will grind to a halt, unraveling the world in an explosive final collapse. Death is coming. Time is running out, and the Apocalypse waits for no one. Can Sovvan stop the end of everything, or will her hesitation doom them all?
