Social Cohesion and Legal Coercion Leon Shaskolsky Sheleff,2021-11-15 The book is a critical analysis of the work of Max Weber Emile Durkheim and Karl Marx It focuses on their separate analyses of the role of law in society pointing out their faults and errors and the resultant impact on modern social science The author takes issue with Weber s work on rationality with Durkheim s work on repressive and restitutive law and with Marx s work on social justice and law as part of the super structure In each section of the book he shows the implications that flow from a re assessment and re interpretation of their work for an understanding of society The book is multi disciplinary making ample reference to law sociology anthropology history religion ecology criminology philosophy and economics Its various chapters discuss a wide range of themes including rationality tradition science political authority conflict resolution community justice and altruism

The Interception of Vessels on the High Seas Efthymios Papastavridis,2014-08-28 The principal aim of this book is to address the international legal questions arising from the right of visit on the high seas in the twenty first century This right is considered the most significant exception to the fundamental principle of the freedom of the high seas the freedom in peacetime to remain free of interference by ships of another flag It is this freedom that has been challenged by a recent significant increase in interceptions to counter the threats of international terrorism and WMD proliferation or to suppress transnational organised crime at sea particularly the trafficking of narcotics and smuggling of migrants The author questions whether the principle of non interference has been so significantly curtailed as to have lost its relevance in the contemporary legal order of the oceans The book begins with an historical and theoretical examination of the framework underlying interception This historical survey informs the remainder of the work which then looks at the legal framework of the right of visit contemporary challenges to the traditional right interference on the high seas for the maintenance of international
