Restructuring South Africa:

The State and Development in South Africa Isaac Khambule, 2025-09-16 This book interrogates the nexus between the state and development in post apartheid South Africa It highlights current problems and suggests ways of consolidating state capabilities improving public institutions and enhancing governance and development outcomes Framed around developmental state theory the book argues that the role of the state in South Africa will be fundamental for addressing the triple challenges of unemployment poverty and inequality There is a growing concern that South Africa is at a development impasse with ongoing crises in energy infrastructure and unemployment The chapters investigate the role of the post apartheid state in pursuing development and navigating a neoliberal globalised society The book explores state capacity in all spheres of government the relationship between politics and bureaucracy and the role of state owned enterprises in the country s developmental aspirations The book concludes by summarising the successes challenges and lessons that have emerged over the course of the book and anticipating future directions or possibilities for the state in South Africa s development impasse Bringing together leading voices in the field this book will be an essential read for researchers of African politics political economy and development The book is also relevant for policymakers students and practitioners in social sciences

The Agrarian Question in South Africa Henry Bernstein, 2014-01-21 This is the first collection of its kind It presents a critical political economy of the agrarian question in post apartheid South Africa informed by the results of research undertaken since the transition from apartheid started in 1990 The articles by well known South African British and American scholars cover a variety of topical theoretical empirical and policy issues firmly rooted in an historical perspective

Restructuring South Africa John D. Brewer, 2016-07-27 The volume assesses whether or not South Africa can achieve peace and stability following the violence chaos and disorder that has accompanied the transition from apartheid Some chapters examine important aspects which define the current period of chaos in order to evaluate the prospects of the disorder coming to an end Others address key areas of reform by which peace and stability could be restored in order to assess the likelihood of this being achieved

State And Market In Postapartheid South Africa Merle Lipton, Charles Simkins, 2019-07-11 This book argues that South Africa experienced extensive periods of trade liberalisation in the 1970s and 1980s It discusses the libertarian analysis of state failure particularly the libertarian argument that market failures are less serious and less extensive than was once thought

International Handbook on Privatization David Parker, David S. Saal, 2003-01-01 Privatization has dominated industrial restructuring programs since the 1980s and continues to do so This authoritative and accessible Handbook considers all aspects of this key issue including the theory of privatization privatization in transition developed and developing economies as well the economic regulation of privatized industries

Crime and Policing in Post-Apartheid South Africa Mark Shaw, 2002-06-13 A cogent and well informed discussion of the South African Police Service and the organisational problems it faces Stephen Ellis Since the mid 1990s South Africa has experienced a crime wave of such unprecedented proportions that the ability of the new democracy to form a stable civil society and govern effectively has been called into question In this timely book Mark Shaw describes how a police force that was so effective under apartheid became so ineffectual in the face of rising crime He shows how an increase in violent crime shapes society police and government and discusses possible solutions for the current crisis International crimes such as war terrorism and organized crime are explored along with crimes that affect individual security such as armed robbery murder and rape Crime and Policing in Post Apartheid South Africa draws attention to both the national and the international dimensions of crime in this society in transition

Race, Class and the Changing Division of Labour Under Apartheid

Owen Crankshaw,2002-06 As the only comprehensive empirical analysis of the changing racial and occupational structure of the urban workforce in South Africa under apartheid this study will make an invaluable contribution to our understanding of the complex inter relations of past and present racial inequality and economic development in South Africa

South Africa in Transition Aletta J. Norval,David Howarth,2016-07-27 South Africa in Transition utilises new theoretical perspectives to describe and explain central dimensions of the democratic transition in South Africa during the late 1980s and early 1990s covering changes in the politics of gender and education the political discourses of the ANC NP and the white right constructions of identity in South Africa s black townships and rural areas the role of political violence in the transition and accounts of the democratization process itself

The Social Impacts of Mine Closure in South Africa Lochner

Marais,2022-09-05 This book investigates the relationship between mining mine closure and housing policy in post apartheid South Africa using concepts from new institutional economics and evolutionary governance theory Mine closures present a major challenge to the mining industry and governments with this being particularly noticeable in the Global South This book argues that the dependencies created by the mining industry and mine housing policies while a mine is operational cause serious societal problems when it closes To demonstrate this the book applies the concepts of place attachment asset based development and social disruption Conceptually the book challenges the view that place attachment and asset based development are the most appropriate and often the only policy responses in mining areas In South Africa the mining industry and the government have created comprehensive housing programmes linked to homeownership to promote place attachment stability and wealth among mine workers These programmes do not consider the disruption that mine closure might bring The book challenges the blind application during boom periods of policies which create long term dependencies that are difficult to manage when a mine closes This book will be of interest to students and scholars researching the social impacts of mining and the extractive industries social geography and sustainable development as well as policymakers and practitioners working with mine closure or social impact assessments

Agriculture in Liberalizing Economies DINA L.

UMALI,Charles Maguire,1995 Discusses ways in which the role of the state in promoting agricultural growth and development may be redefined This report presents the proceedings of the 14th World Bank Agricultural Symposium held in

January 1994 The papers explore ways in which the role of the state in promoting agricultural growth and development may be redefined They also capitalize on important lessons emerging from experiences around the world The report suggests that changing the role of government from market domination towards the provision of a regulatory framework that facilitates private sector activity is an ongoing process rather than a one time occurrence The papers also illustrate the wide variety of issues and the different approaches in the various countries that are redefining the role of government in agricultural development

Rescaling municipal governance amidst political competition in Gauteng: Sedibeng's proposed re-demarcation Thembani Mkhize, 2021-08-27 In 2011 the Gauteng Provincial Government proposed that Sedibeng a Category C district municipality located in the province should be restructured Although the original proposal had anticipated that this would happen after the 2016 local elections the issue remains unresolved due largely to fierce party political opposition and vociferous protests against it on the ground This Occasional Paper examines the dynamics particularities peculiarities and challenges of re demarcating the Gauteng City Region While informed by technical reasons the arguments for and against the merger have tended to gravitate more towards party political rationales for why the re demarcation should or should not go ahead Although these debates raise important merits and demerits for the proposal they are difficult to disentangle from the interests of those whose fortunes would be changed by restructuring In this environment municipal demarcation risks being held hostage by party politics with stakeholders such as political parties using any means at their disposal to have things go their way including by scapegoating the Municipal Demarcation Board MDB The case of Sedibeng presents important lessons about attempts to make post transition local government and mechanisms for determining its configuration work for Gauteng It also highlights the need for strengthening and revising demarcation related legislation How can we make sure that the MDB functions effectively with respect to its primary goals

Restructuring the Labour Market Guy Standing, John Sender, John Weeks, 1996 Reflections on South Africa's Restructuring of State-owned Enterprises Cheslyn Mostert, 2002

Reinventing Insolvency Law in Emerging Economies Aurelio Gurrea-Martínez, 2024-06-13 This book explains how and why insolvency law in emerging economies needs to be reinvented It starts by examining the importance of insolvency law for the promotion of economic growth as well as the similarities and divergences in the design of insolvency law around the world The central thesis of the book is that insolvency law in emerging economies fails to serve as a catalyst for growth It is argued that this failure is mainly due to the design of an insolvency legislation that is not tailored to the market and institutional environment generally existing in emerging economies The book also provides a critical analysis of the design of insolvency law in many advanced economies where the insolvency system has proven to be unattractive for debtors creditors or both Therefore in addition to suggesting a new insolvency framework for emerging economies this book ultimately invites readers to rethink insolvency law

South Africa News Update , 1994 Consists of reproductions of articles from South African newspapers Urban Transport XXIII

C.A. Brebbia, S. Ricci, 2017-12-11 Forming the 23rd addition to a successful series this book contains papers presented by an extensive selection of international delegates at the 23rd International Conference on Urban Transport and the Environment. Due to its continued success and multiplicity of topics the series is considered to be a leading source of new research in the area of transport engineering. Transportation in urban areas with its related environmental and social impacts is of significant concern for government policymakers and for the urban citizens who need efficient transport systems. Extensive reviews of these systems are required to devise and then safeguard their operational use, maintenance, safety and security. The continuing requirement for better and more efficient urban transport systems and the need for a healthier environment has added to the increasing international desire for new technologies and developments in this essential field. The variety of topics covered reflects the complex interaction of urban transport systems with their environment and the need to establish integrated strategies. These topics include: Public transport systems, Urban transport planning and management, Environmental impact, Economic and social impact, Safety and security, Transportation modelling and simulation, Intelligent and advanced transport systems, City logistics, Inter modal transport systems, Mass transport strategies, Freight transport, Railway systems, Port and city, Mobility and public space, Innovative electric transportation, Eco mobility transport systems, Integrated network systems, Traditional and alternative fuels and energy, Public policies and governance. The Global Economic Crisis and the Developing World Ashwini Deshpande, Keith Nurse, 2012 The world economy is currently in the throes of a global economic crisis reminiscent of the great depressions of the 1930s and the 1870s. As back then the crisis has exposed the major structural imbalances in financial and credit markets in addition to global trade forcing many governments developed and developing to impose debilitating austerity measures that are exacerbating the structural weaknesses that caused the crisis in the first place. This volume offers historical insights into the origins of the contemporary crisis as well as detailed analyses of the financial and trade dimensions, an assessment of the technological and innovation context along with perspectives on the implications for unemployment and gender imbalances. Agenda Setting and Public Policy in Africa Kelechi A. Kalu, 2017-03-02 Agenda Setting and Public Policy in Africa examines how decision makers have managed and mismanaged public policy issues in sub-Saharan Africa. It analyses the neglected issue of how ideas about public policy are generated by whom and for what purpose. Persistent problems such as political instability, environmental pollution, famine, hunger, desertification, rent seeking and incessant intra conflicts across the continent are explored in a systematic and structured manner. Each contributor proffers convincing solutions to clearly identified problems. Well researched and solution orientated, this book will engage scholars and policy makers who are interested in public policy and development issues in Africa. Insolvency Prospects Among Small-and-Medium-Sized Enterprises in Advanced Economies Mr. Federico J. Diez, Mr. Romain A. Duval, Jiayue Fan, José Garrido, Sebnem Kalemli-Ozcan, Chiara Maggi, Ms. Maria Soledad Martinez Peria, Mr. Nicola Pierri, 2021-04-02 The COVID 19 pandemic has increased insolvency risks especially among small and medium enterprises SMEs which are vastly overrepresented in hard hit sectors Without government intervention even firms that are viable a priori could end up being liquidated particularly in sectors characterized by labor intensive technologies threatening both macroeconomic and social stability This staff discussion note assesses the impact of the pandemic on SME insolvency risks and policy options to address them It quantifies the impact of weaker aggregate demand changes in sectoral consumption patterns and lockdowns on firm balance sheets and estimates the impact of a range of policy options for a large sample of SMEs in mostly advanced economies Infrastructure Mandates for Change, 1994-1999 Meshack M. Khosa, 2000 This book Infrastructure Mandates for Change 1994 1999 as does its accompanying volume Empowerment through Service Delivery appraises infrastructure policy since 1994 Whereas Empowerment through Service Delivery analyses selected case studies on infrastructure and service delivery this book focuses on the transformation of infrastructure in South Africa since 1994 particularly those relating to water health land electricity housing and transport Meshack Khosa has brought together the key figures working on empowerment and service delivery and this book in its scope sophistication and rigor represents one of the most important contributions to the debates over the achievements of and challenges confronting the new South Africa A book which deserves to be read widely in and outside of academia
