Resurrectionists Iowa Short Fiction Award:

Resurrectionists Russell Working, 1987 The Insurrectionist Russell Working, 2025-05-06 Russell Working's satirical novel The Insurrectionist Chicago Bullet newspaper editors renege on their promise to send reporter Ian Landquart to the Paris bureau. Instead, he is demoted to a suburban office. After quarreling with an editor, he is forced to spend his days redacting racist language from the historical archives. To salvage his career, he investigates an elephant-owning farmer who protested nonviolently on Capitol Hill on January 6, 2021. But as Ian gins up an FBI probe, he learns that his progressive teenage daughter is dating the farmer's conservative gun-owning son, ensnaring her in the case. With a Swiftian eye, Working mercilessly lampoons woke modern journalism and abusive prosecutions. Fruit of the Month Abby Frucht, 1988

My Body To You Elizabeth Searle, 1993-02-01 In the thirteen stories of My Body to You, thirteen women or girls pilot their own bodies through a shifting universe of lovers, old and young parents, devoted and destructive sisters of different sexes, children and adults living in the mysterious world of autism. All these characters share keen powers of observation and a heightened sensuality. In a wild variety of settings, they struggle to control or dare to abandon themselves to their intensely private passions. A woman in love with a gay man she calls Sister Kin attempts to escape the bonds of her own body. An eighteen-year-old virgin enters into a passionate affair with an older man who turns out to be a virgin of a different sort. A special education teacher in a school for aggressive teenagers finds herself attracted to another teacher, also female. An intelligent outcast girl bonds with her mindlessly seductive mother to form one person. Searle reveals other characters through inventive and often comic feats of narrative daring. A girl grows into womanhood during a single family dinner that spans twenty years. A middle-aged wife, once dubbed The First Most Beautiful Woman in the World, watches her former selves parade before her family in a lively evening of home movies. Two women, one recently divorced, the other a group home resident in love with The Who, join forces as they figure out What to Do in an Emergency. An old woman experiences both physical breakdown and spiritual breakdown in a supermarket's vegetable department. A young woman is drawn into the emotional and sexual life of an autistic boy obsessed with the number 8. Each of these stories is written in a language that strives to match the intensity of Searle's characters; each gives the reader an exceptionally intimate portrait of a unique female and the central sensual mystery of her body. A Hole in the Language Marly A. Swick, 2010-09-13 These stories are delicate seismographic meditations on disaster and its aftershocks. The characters are survivors digging their way out of the past, shaken but hopeful. Despite all their tragic losses, there is a pervasive sense of humor, hope, and forgiveness. Abandonment leads ultimately to reunion, grief to solace. This is contemporary America, a jigsaw puzzle of fragmented families constantly picking up the pieces and fitting themselves together in new ways to form unforgettable pictures. May You Live in Interesting Times Tereze Glück, 1995 Twenty-one stories, mostly on women. In the title story, a woman reminisces about her loves. Gone Fishing is on a romance by e-mail, while Bill Hilgendorf is a woman's reflections on her childhood sweetheart. A
