Retablo De Isabel La Catolica:

The Retablo de Isabel la Católica by Juan de Flandes and Michel Sittow Chiyo Ishikawa, 2004 This book is the first serious monograph about the Retablo de Isabel la Católica ca 1496 1504 painted by Juan de Flandes and Michel Sittow Tracing the critical history of the altarpiece and publishing some archival material for the first time it presents the first discussion and technical examination of the individual panels including infrared reflectography and microscopic examination of the painted surface Technical examination also reveals the subject matter was closely related to the religious and political issues that concerned Queen Isabella in the waning years of her reign The conservatism inherent in the austere painted treatment of the lives of Christ and the Virgin Mary is compared to conservative works of religious literature commissioned by or dedicated to the Queen in the years that the altarpiece was being painted Finally a brief catalogue of the surviving twenty eight panels will restore a degree of narrative coherence to a project that is too little understood in large part because of the early dispersal of its paintings

A Companion to the Queenship of Isabel la Católica Hilaire Kallendorf, 2022-11-14 The queenship of the first European Renaissance queen regnant never ceases to fascinate Was she a saint or a bigoted zealot A pious wife or the one wearing the pants Was she ultimately responsible for genocide A case has been made to canonize her Does she deserve to be called Saint Isabel As different groups from fascists to feminists continue to fight over Isabel as cultural capital we ask which if any of these recyclings are legitimate or appropriate Or has this figure taken on a life of her own Contributors to this volume Roger Boase David A Boruchoff John Edwards Emily Francomano Edward Friedman Cristina Guardiola Griffiths Michelle Hamilton Elizabeth Teresa Howe Hilaire Kallendorf William D Phillips Jr Nuria Silleras Fernandez Caroline Travalia and Jessica Weiss

Art, Travel, and Exchange between Iberia and Global Geographies, c. 1400-1550, 2024-12-16 Traditional narratives hold that the art and architecture of the Iberian Peninsula in the late 15th century were transformed by the arrival of artists objects and ideas from northern Europe The year 1492 has been interpreted as a radical rupture marking the end of the Islamic presence on the peninsula the beginning of global encounters and the intensification of exchange between Iberia and Renaissance Italy This volume aims to nuance and challenge this narrative considering the Spanish and Portuguese worlds in conjunction and reimagined by wave after wave of devotees ultimately becoming a sort of God in ways that have always made some Christians uneasy Whether talking about the vast public festivals celebrating Mary that sweep up entire communities or the intense private agony of individual devotion Rubin's book is a triumph of sympathy and intelligence Throughout Christianity's journey from mysterious origins to global religion the Mother of God has been a profound presence in countless lives Mother of God is the story of that presence and a book that raises profound questions about the human experience
