

An abstract painting featuring several figures in dynamic, expressive poses, rendered in a vibrant palette of reds, yellows, and blues. The figures are overlaid on a grid of thin, light-colored lines, creating a sense of movement and structure. The overall style is reminiscent of modernist or postmodernist art.

Capital Movements and Corporate Dominance in Latin America Noemi Levy-Orlik, Jorge A. Bustamante-Torres, Louis-Philippe Rochon, 2021-06-25 This book addresses the problems of Latin America through two of the most important features of the post Bretton Woods economic order large corporations and weak financial markets In turn it shows that their impact on economic growth and development is feeble and short lived This resulted in income concentration and an extremely unequal distribution of wealth in the region

The Political Economy of Work in the Global South Anita Hammer, Adam Fishwick, 2020-03-28 Part of the Critical Perspectives on Work and Employment series this edited collection brings together contributions from leading international scholars to initiate an important dialogue between labour process analysis and scholarship on work in the Global South This book characterises the forms of work and labour process that characterise globalising capitalism today and addresses core analytical concerns within Labour Process Theory and research on work in the South It explores how a wide range of production relations in the Global South ranging from formal to informal employment and self employment are embedded in wider social relations of gender caste religion and ethnicity and are related to wider patterns of commodification and resistance Drawing on cutting edge research the book's chapters consider a diverse range of working situations covering migrant workers in the Middle East commercial surrogacy work in India and cooperative garment workers in Argentina In offering a novel reading of the political economy of work in the Global South and shedding light on lesser considered fields of work and worker organization this volume will provide new insights for making sense of the changing world of work for students scholars labour activists and practitioners alike

Accumulation in Post-Colonial Capitalism Iman Kumar Mitra, Ranabir Samaddar, Samita Sen, 2016-07-29 This volume looks at how accumulation in postcolonial capitalism blurs the boundaries of space institutions forms financial regimes labour processes and economic segments on one hand and creates zones and corridors on the other It draws our attention to the peculiar but structurally necessary coexistence of both primitive and virtual modes of accumulation in the postcolony From these two major inquiries it develops a new understanding of postcolonial capitalism The case studies in this volume discuss the production of urban spaces of capital extraction institutionalization of postcolonial finance capital gendering of work forms establishment of new forms of labour formation of and changes in caste and racial identities and networks and securitization and thereby confirm that no study of contemporary capitalism is complete without thoroughly addressing the postcolonial condition By challenging the established dualities between citizenship based civil society and welfare based political society exploring critically the question of colonial and postcolonial difference and foregrounding the material processes of accumulation against the culturalism of postcolonial studies this volume redefines postcolonial studies in South Asia and beyond It is invaluable reading for students and scholars of South Asian studies sociology cultural and critical anthropology critical and praxis studies and political science

Inventing the Future Nick Srnicek, Alex

Williams, 2015-10-13 Neoliberalism isn't working Austerity is forcing millions into poverty and many more into precarious work while the left remains trapped in stagnant political practices that offer no respite Inventing the Future is a bold new manifesto for life after capitalism Against the confused understanding of our high tech world by both the right and the left this book claims that the emancipatory and future oriented possibilities of our society can be reclaimed Instead of running from a complex future Nick Srnicek and Alex Williams demand a postcapitalist economy capable of advancing standards liberating humanity from work and developing technologies that expand our freedoms This new edition includes a new chapter where they respond to their various critics

The Economic Ideas of Marx's Capital Ludo Cuyvers, 2016-09-13

Nearly two hundred years have passed since the birth of Karl Marx and continuing to this day the influence of his economic views insights and theories can still be felt However since the publication of Das Kapital the scientific community has not been sitting idle it is time to evaluate Marx as an economist and explore what he can bring to modern economic thinking particularly post Keynesian economics Starting with Marx's schemes of reproduction which it is shown are the basis of the linear model of production as used since the 1960s by Piero Sraffa Michio Morishima and others the book reviews and assesses Marx's major economic theses These include the labour theory of value accumulation and technical change and its impact on labour the concept of unproductive labour the tendential falling rate of profits the evolution and determinants of the share of wages in national income as well as short run and long run economic dynamics The Economic Ideas of Marx's Capital updates the theses of the labour theory of value and the conditions for balanced growth using the recent scholarly literature and also further develops issues related to Marx's concept of productive labour Moreover the book analyses the intellectual relationship of Marx's economic theory with post Keynesian neo Marxism particularly in the writings of Michal Kalecki Joan Robinson and others By doing so the book shows the need and possibilities of integrating major insights of Marxist and post Keynesian theory This volume will be of interest to those who wish to explore Marx's economic theories through a non ideological approach as well as students of Marxist economics post Keynesian economics and the history of economic thought
