Prospects ,1986 Meeting the Mandate: Renewing the College and Departmental Curriculum William Toombs,William G. Tierney,1991-10-14 This monograph addresses the need for reshaping the college undergraduate curriculum in order to meet the new and compelling issues that have emerged from the criticism and analysis of the past decade These issues are as follows 1 how to accommodate diverse races and ethnic traditions and both genders 2 how to incorporate global perspectives on the environment and exchange among nations and 3 how to deal more effectively within the human dimensions of the educational equation Discussed are five conditions for changing the curriculum First a firmer grasp is needed on what the curriculum is as an idea what language can describe it and at what levels it operates The concept of design and a pragmatic terminology give an operational definition Second the flood of criticism dissection recommendation and interpretation visited on the collegiate curriculum merits a careful review Third the need is continuous for modest self analysis dealing with what the academic profession is and what its condition of practice should be Fourth because little is known about what the solutions might be a longer perspective is needed Finally there is a need for wider understanding of the organization and its content Together it is noted these factors can help higher education institutions to recognize the shape of change and the forces of culture within which it moves Contains over 270 references GLR The Pauling Catalogue: Newspaper clippings, personal library Oregon State University.
