complete landscape of this area of study and contribute to security studies in fields of international relations geo politics changes in the character of war technology organisational changes and internal security threats and responses They empower the reader to carry out further research on strategic studies The Year Book provides an increased upstream focus on defence and security policy practice for military civilian administrative and political leadership and further empowers them in making considered decisions It will also be of great interest to those researching strategic and security issues

Strategic Culture and Ways of War Lawrence Sondhaus, 2006-08-21 A much needed survey and synopsis of literature on strategic culture and ways of war It clearly shows how national strategies and approaches to warfare are to a significant extent culturally determined The concept of national ways of war dates from the 1930s when Basil H Liddell Hart theorized that there was a British Way in Warfare The concept of strategic culture dates from the 1970s when Jack Snyder introduced it to explain why leaders of the Soviet Union did not behave according to rational choice theory These ideas have gained wide acceptance among historians of international politics and warfare and remain controversial for political scientists seeking general or universal theoretical understanding of such subjects Because political scientists have focused on strategic culture and historians on ways of war this work will greatly benefit both audiences and provide each with valuable exposure to the ideas of the other

Conflict Between India and Pakistan Peter Lyon, 2008-10-02 This up to date encyclopedia examines the conflict between India and Pakistan from Independence to the present day with an authoritative treatment that presents the issues evenhandedly and from both countries perspectives Tensions between India and Pakistan are deeply rooted Many go back to 1947 or earlier when with the partitioning of the provinces of Punjab and Bengal British India was succeeded by two independent countries a primarily Hindu India and a Muslim Pakistan Subsequently the two countries have fought three wars and come close to open war several other times especially over Kashmir Conflict Between India and Pakistan begins with a discussion of the partition of India and those who figured prominently in it notably Mohammed Ali Jinnah Clem Attlee the last viceroy Admiral Louis Mountbatten and Jawaharlal Nehru Then in a series of evenhanded carefully crafted portraits it describes the people political parties foreign and domestic policies and economic religious and cultural pressures that have played a role in the conflicts between these nations from 1947 to the present

Nationbuilding, Gender and War Crimes in South Asia Bina D'Costa, 2012-07-26 This book gives a detailed political analysis of nationbuilding processes and how these are closely linked to statebuilding and to issues of war crime gender and sexuality and marginalization of minority groups With a focus on the Indian subcontinent the author demonstrates how the state itself is involved in the construction of a gendered identity and how control of women and their sexuality is central to the nationbuilding project She applies a critical feminist approach to two major conflicts in the Indian subcontinent the Partition of India in 1947 and the Liberation War of Bangladesh in 1971 and offers suggestions for addressing historical injustices and war crimes in the context of modern Bangladesh Addressing how the social and political elites were able to construct and legitimize a history of the state that ignored these issues the author suggests a critical re examination of the national narrative of the creation of Bangladesh which takes into account the rise of Islamic rights and their alleged involvement in war crimes Looking at the impact that notions of nation state and nationalism have on women from a critical feminist perspective the book will be an important addition to the literature on gender studies international relations and South Asian politics      Nuclear Deterrence in Southern Asia Arpit Rajain,2005-05 This important and topical book examines the triangular relationship of China India and Pakistan through the prism of nuclear deterrence The author highlights the interplay and role of strategic culture nuclear weaponisation and deployment command and control arms control non state actors and foreign policy issues which affect relations between the three countries With two main purposes a conceptual investigation into the notion of deterrence and a study of the theory and practice of limited war this book addresses the strategic political and military dimensions of the role of nuclear weapons through examples of the only cases of nuclear weapon states having gone into armed conflict the Cuban missile crisis the Ussuri river clashes and the Kargil conflict discusses the various pressures exerted on decision makers in the context of the notions of deterrence the rational deterrence model and a limited war under a nuclear umbrella evaluates all three countries with regard to their strategic culture the role of nuclear weapons in their military strategy the nature of public opinion and political rhetoric responses to the various arms control treaties and foreign policy choices Based on a variety of sources including interviews with key individuals in various sector this is the first book length study of the triangular relationship between China India and Pakistan      Natural Allies? Stephen Blank,2005      The Upside of Down Thomas Homer-Dixon,2010-04-16 Environmental disasters Terrorist wars Energy scarcity Is this the world s fate a downward spiral that ultimately spells the collapse of society Perhaps says acclaimed author Thomas Homer Dixon or perhaps these crises can actually lead to renewal for ourselves and planet earth The Upside of Down takes the reader on a mind stretching tour of societies management or mismanagement of disasters over time From the demise of ancient Rome to contemporary climate change this spellbinding book analyzes what happens when multiple crises compound to cause what the author calls synchronous failure But crisis doesn t have to mean total calamity Through catagenesis or creative bold reform in the wake of breakdown it is possible to reinvent our future Drawing on the worlds of archeology poetry politics science and economics The Upside of Down is certain to provoke controversy and stir imaginations across the globe The author s wide ranging expertise makes his insights and proposals particularly acute as people of all nations try to grapple with how we can survive tomorrow s inevitable shocks to our global system There is no guarantee of success but there are ways to begin thinking about a better world and The Upside of Down is the ideal place to start thinking      US Policy Towards the Muslim World M. Saleem Kidwai,2010 By all accounts the overall relationship between the US and the Muslim world is marked by confrontation at several levels In the aftermath of 9 11 a great deal needs to be done to build bridges between America and the Muslim world A broad and immediate shift in America s policies towards the Muslim world is necessary What is the appropriate paradigm for the war on terrorism How should the US now deal with authoritarian regimes considered its traditional allies in the Muslim world How should the US deal with civil society opposition parties and other Islamist groups often located within these friends and allies How can the US maintain a close alliance with Israel while still continuing positive relations with Muslim states and movements US Policy Towards the Muslim World seeks to find answers to these and similar questions The volume is comprised of fourteen contributions from specialists in the field It is a serious attempt to address and analyze key factors affecting US interests and suggests measures for the US policy makers The main objective is to provide a policy framework that will enable the US to face the challenges posed and Opportunities thrown open in the Muslim world Book jacket      Pakistan C.
