Rethinking Middle East Politics:

Rethinking Middle East Politics Simon Bromley, 1994-01-01 Rethinking Middle East Politics considers a range of debates on the character of political and socioeconomic development in the Middle East focusing on the linked processes of state formation and capitalist development Simon Bromley seeks to reformulate the central questions involved in the study of state formation He builds a comparative framework based on an examination of key developmental processes in Turkey Egypt Iraq Saudi Arabia and Iran and offers a range of substantive theses on the place of democracy and Islam in the region His findings explain a very large part of what appears to be significant in the emergence of the modern Middle East Rethinking Middle East Politics presents a new way of analyzing politics in the Middle East offering a perspective that has major implications for rethinking Third World politics more generally and for the social and political theory of modernity

Rethinking Middle East Politics Simon Bromley, 1994 Rethinking the Middle East Efraim Karsh, 2003 Karsh contends that the influence of the Great Powers has not been the primary force behind the Middle East's political development nor the main cause of its famous volatility American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences 12:4 Charles Hirschkind, Salim A. Elwazani, Ahdullah Saeed, Ray Basson and Zein Cajee, The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences AJISS established in 1984 is a quarterly double blind peer reviewed and interdisciplinary journal published by the International Institute of Islamic Thought IIIT and distributed worldwide The journal showcases a wide variety of scholarly research on all facets of Islam and the Muslim world including subjects such as anthropology history philosophy and metaphysics politics psychology religious law and traditional Islam State Formation and Identity in the Middle East and North Africa K. Christie, M. Masad, 2013-12-17 For states in the Middle East North Africa and South Asia the Arab Spring has had different implications and consequences stemming from the politics of identity and the historical and political processes that have shaped development This book focuses on how these factors interact with globalization and affect state formation The Oxford Handbook of Christianity in Asia Felix Wilfred, 2014-05-23 Named by the International Bulletin of Missionary Studies as an Outstanding Book of 2014 for Mission Studies Despite the ongoing global expansion of Christianity there remains a lack of comprehensive scholarship on its development in Asia This volume fills the gap by exploring the world of Asian Christianity and its manifold expressions including worship theology spirituality inter religious relations interventions in society and mission The contributors from over twenty countries deconstruct many of the widespread misconceptions and interpretations of Christianity in Asia They analyze how the growth of Christian beliefs throughout the continent is linked with the socio political and cultural processes of colonization decolonization modernization democratization identity construction of social groups and various social movements With a particular focus on inter religious encounters and emerging theological and spiritual paradigms the volume provides alternative frames for understanding the phenomenon of conversion and studies how the scriptures of other religious traditions are used in the practice of Christianity within Asia The Oxford Handbook of the History of Nationalism John Breuilly, 2013-03-07 Thirty six essays by a team of leading scholars providing a global coverage of the history of nationalism in its different aspects its ideas its sentiments and its politics The Roots of Revolt Angela Joya, 2020-04-02 A conceptually rich historically informed study of the contested politics emerging out of decades of authoritarian neoliberalism in Egypt Centers of Power in the Arab Gulf States Kristian Coates Ulrichsen, 2024-02-01 A comprehensive examination of the nature of power in the Gulf comparing and contrasting its origins exercise and opposition in six Arab countries Sovereignty After Empire Sally N Cummings, 2012-09-11 This is a unique systematic comparison of empires and of their consequences for sovereignty in the Middle East and Central Asia It brings theory on empire and sovereignty to bear on empirical variation across the two regions Turkey's New State in the Making Pinar Bedirhanoglu, Çağlar Dölek, Funda Hülal, Özlem Kaygusuz, 2020-08-20 Since the Gezi uprisings in June 2013 and AKP's temporary loss of parliamentary supremacy after the June 2015 general elections sharp political clashes ascending police operations extra judicial executions suppression of the media and political opposition systematic violation of the constitution and fundamental human rights and the one man rule of President Erdogan have become the identifying characteristics of Turkish politics The failed coup attempt on 15th July 2016 further impaired the situation as the government declared emergency rule at the end of which a political regime defined as the Presidential Government System was established in July 2018 Turkey's New State in the Making examines the historical specificities of the ongoing AKP led radical state transformation in Turkey within a global legal financial ideological and coercive neoliberal context Arguing that rather than being an exception the new Turkish state has the potential to be a model for political transformations elsewhere problematizing how specific policies the AKP adapted to refract social dispositions have been radically redefining the republican democratic and secular features of the modern Turkish state The Maghrib in Question Michel Le Gall, Kenneth Perkins, 2010-07-05 A wealth of historical writing dealing with the Maghrib Morocco Algeria Tunisia and Libya has been published during the roughly forty years since European colonial control ended in the region This book provides a state of the field survey of this postcolonial Maghribi historiography The book contains thirteen essays by leading Maghribi and North American scholars The first section surveys the Maghrib as a whole the second focuses on individual countries of the Maghrib and the third explores theoretical issues and case studies Cutting across chronological categories the book encompasses historiographical writing dealing with all eras from the ancient Maghrib to the contemporary period Global Shaping and Its Alternatives William K. Carroll, Yildiz Atasoy, Y?ld?z Atasoy, 2003-01-01 Global Shaping and its Alternatives offers a unique series of reflections on the connections between market capitalism the politics of alternatives and the cultural elaboration of social change It argues that there is a need for an alternative explanatory framework on globalization one that rejects fatalism and highlights the dynamic roles of states NGOs local fractions of capital democratic movements and gendered social relations Without understanding how global shaping is taking place and how it affects human life across the globe there can be no transformational possibility for humanizing our conditions of existence

Persistent State Weakness in the Global Age Vesna Bojicic-Dzelilovic, 2016-05-13 Persistent State Weakness in the Global Age addresses the question of why state weakness in the global era persists It debunks a common assumption that state weakness is a stop gap on the path to state failure and state collapse Informed by a globalization perspective the book shows how state weakness is frequently self reproducing and functional The interplay of global actors policies and norms is analyzed from the standpoint of their internalization in a weak state through transnational networks Contributors examine the reproduction of partial and discriminatory rule at the heart of persistent state weakness drawing on a wide geographical range of case studies including the Middle East the Balkans the post Soviet states and sub Saharan Africa The study of state weakening dynamics related to institutional incapacity colonial and war legacies legitimacy gaps economic informality democratization and state building provides an insight into durability and resilience of weak states in the global age

A History of Stability and Change in Lebanon Joseph Bayeh, 2017-06-30 Lebanon is a country whose domestic politics have even more than others in the region been at the mercy of changes on the international stage Having been under Ottoman and French rule in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries the post World War II era has seen Lebanon subjected to Israeli Syrian and American interventions which have all threatened the country's stability as a state Joseph Bayeh argues that it is this international dimension which holds the key to an in depth understanding of the country In support of this argument Bayeh examines Lebanese history from its early days under the Ottomans to the present day in order to show how international shifts and conflicts have had their impact on Lebanon With changes such as the fall of the Ottoman empire the rise of US power after World War II the end of the Cold War and the new focus on the region in the aftermath of 9 11

Lebanon has at various junctures been bolstered or undermined Bayeh tracks all of this offering insights into the workings of Lebanon s domestic politics which will appeal to researchers of the international relations of the Middle East and Lebanon s political history The New Politics of Strategic Resources David Steven,Emily O'Brien,Bruce D. Jones,2014-11-21 Since 2008 energy and food markets those most fundamental to human existence have remained in turmoil Resource scarcity has had a much bigger global impact in recent years than has been predicted with ongoing volatility a sign that the world is only part way through navigating a treacherous transition in the way it uses resources Scarcity and perceptions of scarcity increase political risks while geopolitical turmoil exacerbates shortages and complicates the search for solutions The New Politics of Strategic Resources examines the political dimensions of strategic resource challenges at the domestic and international levels For better or worse energy and food markets are shaped by perceptions of national interest and do not behave as traditional market goods So while markets are an essential part of any response to tighter resource supplies governments also will play a key role David Steven Emily O'Brien Bruce Jones and their colleagues discuss what those roles are and what they should be The architecture for coordinating multilateral responses to these dynamics has fallen short raising questions about the effective international management of these issues Politics impede here too as the major powers must negotiate political and security trade offs to cooperate on the design of more robust international regimes and mechanisms for resource security and the provision of global public goods This timely volume includes chapters on major powers United States India China and key suppliers Russia Saudi Arabia The contributors also address thematic topics such as the interaction between oil and state fragility the changing political dynamics of climate change and the politics of resource subsidies Chaos in Yemen Isa Blumi,2010-09-13 Chaos in Yemen challenges recent interpretations of Yemen s complex social political and economic transformations since unification in 1990 By offering a new perspective to the violence afflicting the larger region it explains why the Abdullah Ali Salih regime has become the principal beneficiary of these conflicts Adopting an inter disciplinary approach the author offers an alternative understanding of what is creating discord in the Red Sea region by integrating the region s history to an interpretation of current events In turn by refusing to solely link Yemen to the global struggle against Islamists this work sheds new light on the issues policy makers are facing in the larger Middle East As such this study offers an alternative perspective to Yemen s complex domestic affairs that challenge the over emphasis on the tribe and sectarianism Offering an alternative set of approaches to studying societies facing new forms of state authoritarianism this timely contribution will be of great relevance to students and scholars of the Middle East and the larger Islamic world Conflict Resolution Comparative Politics and International Relations American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences 19:1 Mahmoud Dhaouadi,Katherine Bullock,Abdullah Y.S. After Khomeini Anoushiravan Ehteshami, 2002-03-11 For Iran the years since Ayatollah Khomeini's death have been dominated by the need for political consolidation and economic reconstruction The book assesses the critical dilemmas of the regime both previous to and since the demise of its first spiritual leader The vital issues of political succession and constitutional reform are addressed contributing to an analysis of the structures and politics of power How these have reflected upon economic policy is considered with close attention being given to the reform policies of Rafsanjani Foreign policy and security issues are discussed in both regional and global terms and include a study of Iranian defence strategy and its controversial re armament drive The final chapter examines the direction and context of all of these major policy areas providing an analysis of whether the Islamic Republic truly represents a revolutionary alternative for the Third World or whether in fact it has developed in time to fall within a similar mould to other notable revolutions casting by the wayside any uniquely Islamic agenda and alternatives At the heart of this study is the belief that the Islamic regime has since the cease fire with Iraq but more specifically since Ayatollah Khomeini's death passed into a new stage of development referred to in the book as the Second Republic
