Rethinking The Transatlantic Partnership Security And Economics In A New Era:

Rethinking the Transatlantic Partnership Gary L. Geipel, 1996      Ukraine and European Security David Albright, Semyen J. Appatov, 1999-04-26 Ukraine has emerged as a new factor on the European security scene since 1991 and this book explores the ramifications of that development. It lays out the views of leading North American, West European and Ukrainian security analysts on European security issues during the next decade and their priority strategies for approaching these issues. Ukraine's role in European security and the Atlantic Community and Ukraine's security. Then it compares these views and assesses the implications of the complex pattern of similarities and differences in perspective.      Managing EU-US Relations Rebecca Steffenson, 2005-10-07 This book examines developments in E U U S political and economic relations in the 1990s. It contributes to the existing literature by combining knowledge about actors and institutions to outline the transatlantic decision making process. It focuses not only on how states co-operate but how they effectively govern the transatlantic marketplace and the international political order through transatlantic institutions. Studying transatlantic governance enables us to understand not only how domestic or E U level decision making structures affect transatlantic decisions but also how transatlantic decisions affect domestic institutions. In short, employing decision making structures as an analytical approach helps us identify who governs and how and who or what determines policy outcomes. This book is the result of a comprehensive research project and it includes detailed case studies on E U U S efforts to fight people trafficking, E U U S regulatory co-operation in the form of Mutual Recognition Agreements and the transatlantic trade dispute over bananas. The book is aimed at anyone with an interest in what transatlantic relations entail outside the confines of NATO security.      Parameters, 1996      The Real and the Ideal Anthony Lake, David A. Ochmanek, 2001 A series of 13 essays engage different aspects of Richard Ullmann's work on U S foreign and security policy over the years he was teaching at Princeton and Oxford as well as the time he served in the U S government. Presented by Lake, diplomacy Georgetown U and Ochmanek, the RAND corporation, the essays sometimes directly address the work of Ullmann but more often look at contemporary issues of foreign policy from the lens of the intellectual school that he established. After a appreciation of Ullmann's life and work, essays treat such topics as transatlantic relations after the Cold War, isolationism in U S foreign policy, humanitarian interventions and polarization in policy processes. c Book News Inc      Rethinking Security in Post-Cold-War Europe William Park, G. Wyn Rees, 2014-06-11 Provides a survey of the principal items on the agenda following the end of the Cold War, focusing upon the institutions and regions where the reconsideration of security issues has been particularly profound. The book is organised into three main sections: the first examines the changed roles of the main security institutions which have survived the Cold War: NATO, the European Union, Western European Union and the Organisation for Security and Cooperation in Europe. The second analyses the Central European countries, Russia and States of the former Soviet Union in terms of their ideologies, political structures and relationships of the Cold War period. Lastly, the text examines the northern and southern regions of Europe where quite different perspectives and agendas are concerned

Rethinking Corporate Governance Roger Blanpain, William Bromwich, Olga Rymkevich, Iacopo Senatori, 2011-01-01
Now that the economic orthodoxy of light touch regulation has been widely discredited by recent events in the financial markets and shareholder oriented management has come under intense scrutiny it is time to seriously consider the merits of stakeholder oriented economies In this far reaching symposium on this aspect of comparative labour relations 35 scholars examine case studies and evolving scenarios in a wide variety of countries from leading economic powers such as the United States the United Kingdom and Germany to post socialist states such as Poland Hungary and Bulgaria to the formidable global economic presences of Brazil Russia and India With contributions from leading experts from all around the world in the fields of labour law industrial relations labour economics labour statistics human resources management organization theory and other related subjects the papers focus on the impact of the global economic crisis and its implications for the future of employment Specific contexts covered include adversarial versus strategic collective bargaining transnational collective bargaining long term employees as the most valuable corporate stakeholders workers voice and participation in the restructuring of undertakings privatization of state owned companies executive pay investment in vocational training in times of economic crisis the impact of the EU s Cross Border Merger Directive inherent dangers in the EMU one size fits all monetary policy and cases of large scale corporate fraud Of particular interest is the treatment of important developments in Singapore and Nigeria as well as lessons to be learned from pitfalls encountered in South Africa and other countries With its theoretical arguments and empirical data this volume is certainly a major contribution to the debate over whether shareholder or stakeholder approaches to management yield the best results in terms of employment outcomes As the world economic crisis continues to take its toll on employment pension funds public services and living standards the book is sure to find a wide audience among policymakers and lawyers worldwide concerned with the future of employment relations and their effect on both productivity and social stability This volume includes a selection of papers from the Eighth International Conference in commemoration of Marco Biagi held at the Marco Biagi Foundation in Modena Italy in March 2010 Fast Lane to the Future Joseph M. Giglio, 1996
Rethinking (In)Security in the European Union Claudia Anamaria Iov, 2020-05-14 This book is the result of a series of studies devoted to assessing the consequences of migration from the perspective of the migration identity in security causality with a specific focus on the Roma issue in France It demonstrates that in the context of the new European agenda on security following the events of 9 11 immigrants in general and the Roma in particular have found themselves trapped in a spiral of insecurity through which migration has been raised to the level of meta problem and they have become scapegoats The book argues that these issues reflect a broader political discussion on the EU s identity and social policy It shows that the socio economic and security dimension of the Roma dossier is a case that may require policymakers in Brussels to rethink the EU s social responsibilities towards its citizens thus giving up their ambiguous attitude regarding migration      Annual Report Council on Foreign Relations,2000      Repertorio Mundial de Instituciones de Investigación Y de Formación Sobre la Paz ,2000      WEU at Fifty Guido Lenzi,1998      Index of Conference Proceedings British Library.
