to the Byzantine traditions in producing the first Russian enamels Progress was interrupted by the Mongol invasions in the 13th century There was however a revival of the arts in the 16th century and during the 17th century the Kremlin Armory in Moscow and various northern trading centers emerged as major bases for the manufacture of liturgical and secular enamels while the program of westernization initiated by Peter the Great in the early 18th century attracted foreign artisans who brought their own techniques to the capital St Petersburg The 19th century closed with a dichotomy of styles classicizing courtly traditions flourished in St Petersburg as demonstrated in the art of pre eminent master Carl Faberge However Moscow served as the heart of the Russian Revival movement and the vibrantly colored and exotic looking revival enamels are also prized by collectors today
