Who's who in Law J. C. Schwarz, 1937 Documentary John Ellis, 2011-07-20 Documentary Witness and Self Revelation takes an audience centred approach to documentary arguing that everyday experiences of what it feels like to film and to be filmed have developed a new sophistication and skepticism in today's viewers The book argues that documentary has developed a new third phase of its century long history films now tend to document the encounters between filmmakers and the filmed But what do we really know about those encounters A Modern History of Russian Childhood Elizabeth White, 2020-02-20 A Modern History of Russian Childhood examines the changes and continuities in ideas about Russian childhood from the 18th to the 21st century It looks at how children were thought about and treated in Russian and Soviet culture as well as how the radical social political and economic changes across the period affected children It explains how and why childhood became a key concept both in Late Imperial Russia and in the Soviet Union and looks at similarities and differences to models of childhood elsewhere Focusing mainly on children in families telling us much about Russian and Soviet family life in the process Elizabeth White combines theoretical ideas about childhood with examples of real lived experiences of children to provide a comprehensive overview of the subject The book also offers a comprehensive synthesis of a wide range of secondary sources in English and Russian whilst utilizing various textual primary sources as part of the discussion This book is key reading for anyone wanting to understand the social and cultural history of Russia as well as the history of childhood in the modern world Domestication and Foreignization in Translation Studies Hannu Kemppanen, Marja Jänis, Alexandra Belikova, 2012-06-01 Papers from a conference held September 29 October 1 2011 in Joensuu Finland Literary Translation in Russia Maurice Friedberg, 2012-05-31 In this rich historical study Maurice Friedberg recounts the impact of translation on the Russian literary process In tracing the explosion of literary translation in nineteenth century Russia Friedberg determines that it introduced new issues of cultural aesthetic and political values Beginning with Pushkin in the early nineteenth century Friedberg traces the history of translation throughout the lives of

Dostoevsky Tolstoy and more recently Pasternak His analysis includes two translators who became Russia's leading literary figures Zhukovsky whose renditions of German poetry became famous and Vvedensky who introduced Charles Dickens to Russia In the twentieth century Friedberg points to Pasternak's Faust to show how apolitical authors welcomed free translation which offered them an alternative to the original writing from which they had been banned by Soviet authorities By introducing Western literary works Russian translators provided new models for Russian literature Friedberg discusses the usual battles fought between partisans of literalism and of free translation the influence of Stalinist Soviet government on literary translation and the political implications of aesthetic clashes He also considers the impetus of translated Western fiction poetry and drama as remaining links to Western civilization during the decades of Russia's isolation from the West Friedberg argues that literary translation had a profound effect on Russia by helping to erode the Soviet Union's isolation which ultimately came to an end with the dissolution of the Soviet Union in 1991
