Islamic Life and Thought Seyyed Hossein Nasr,2013-10-18 This collection of essays by one of the best known contemporary Muslim scholars writing in English covers many facets of Islamic life and thought The author has brought together studies dealing with the practical as well as intellectual aspects of Islam in both their historical and contemporary reality The contemporary significance of themes such as religion and secularism the meaning of freedom and the tradition of Islamic science and philosophy is given particular attention Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2

Vol. Set) Susan Sinclair,C. H. Bleaney,Pablo García Suárez,2012 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011 This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in Muslim societies Courier ,1970 Secret Languages of Afghanistan and

Their Speakers Jadwiga Pstrusińska,2014-07-18 This is a study of an almost inaccessible area of the intricate linguistic fabric of Afghanistan namely its secret codes of communication The text draws on a profound knowledge of Afghanistan and neighbouring regions as well as the cultural and sociolinguistic processes at work across Eurasia The author situates these sociolinguistic matters within the appropriate diachronic and comparative background and traces the numerous threads which connect them to areas both close to and distant from Afghanistan The book will be of great interest to scholars from a wide range of disciplines including but extending beyond the realms of linguistics cultural history and sociology It will also be of practical value in many areas notably with regards to military and political issues as well as humanitarian aid An Analysis of Yasser Tabbaa's The Transformation of Islamic Art During the Sunni Revival Bilal Badat,2018-02-21 Tabbaa's Transformation offers an innovative approach to understanding the profound changes undergone by Islamic art and architecture during the often neglected Medieval Islamic period Examining devices such as calligraphy arabesque muqarnas and stonework Tabbaa argues we propagated in a moment of confrontation and facilitated the re emergence of the Sunni Abbasid caliphate in a more orthodox image Tabbaa offers a timely and thought provoking alternative to conventional essentialist positivist and ethno narrative interpretations of Islamic art Shi'ism ?usain Na?r, Seyyed Hossein Nasr, Hamid Dabashi, Seyyed Vali Reza Nasr, 1988-01-01 This is an anthology of the most significant writing on the doctrinal intellectual and spiritual dimensions of Shicism The works included here foster an interpretive understanding of Shicism in its dogmatic and cognitive aspects The intent of this book is to balance the attention that has been focused on the political aspect of Shicism Shicism is often seen not only as an essentially political phenomenon but as a creed of violence Understanding Shicism in its total reality will encourage a more balanced approach to issues which are viewed mostly politically While not denying the importance of political manifestations this book offers an understanding of the often neglected religious beliefs and spiritual practices of this world community Discover Islamic Art in the Mediterranean ,2007 Muslim Women Sing Beverly Blow Mack, 2004 An intimate portrait of life and artistry among Hausa women singers Kulliyah ,1970

Islam and the West Iran and The West Cyrus Ghani,2013-09-05 First Published in 1987 this volume offers a bibliography of biographies autobiographies and books on contemporary politics by prominent 20th century figures on the topic of Iran Iran and Persianate Culture in the Indian Ocean World Andrew Peacock,2025-02-06 The first interdisciplinary study of the history of contact between Iranians and the peoples and polities of the Indian Ocean Most of the historiography of the Iranian world focuses on interactions and migrations between Iran Central Asia and India Nonetheless this Iranian world was also closely connected to the maritime one of the Indian Ocean While scholarship has drawn attention to diverse elements of these latter interactions ranging from the claims to Shirazi descent of East African communities to Persian elements in Malay literature and Iranian communities of merchants in China such studies have remained largely isolated from one another The consensus of historiography on the Indian Ocean presents it as an Arabic cosmopolis or in earlier times a Sanskrit one The aim of this book is thus to bring together scholars working on disparate aspects of Persianate interactions with the Indian Ocean world from antiquity to modern times to provide a more rounded picture of both the history of the Persianate world broadly conceived and that of the Indian Ocean The book brings together a collection of internationally renowned scholars from a variety of disciplines including archaeology history literature linguistics art history and covers interactions in Iran s political and commercial relations with the Indian Ocean world in history Persian speaking communities in the Indian Ocean world Persian ate elements in Indian Ocean languages and literatures Persian texts dealing with the Indian Ocean and connections in material culture Studies in the Islamic Decorative Arts Robert Hillenbrand,2019-12-31 Islamic artists channelled their energies not into easel painting and large scale sculpture but rather into what Western scholars obeying a very different hierarchy of art forms rather disparagingly term the decorative arts or even the minor arts In point of fact some of the greatest masterpieces of Islamic art are in the media of ceramics metalwork textiles ivory and glass Often the images they bear express a complex set of meanings for Islam inherited much material from the iconographic systems of earlier civilizations notably those of the ancient Near East and of the classical world Islam also developed its own distinctive vocabulary of signs and symbols Accordingly questions of iconography and meaning bulk large among the studies gathered together in the present volume These studies written over a period of almost thirty years and taken from a wide variety of published sources deal with aspects of the decorative arts from Spain to India and from the 7th to the 17th century They focus in turn upon ceramics and metalwork on coins carpets and calligraphy and on carving in wood and ivory They are arranged under three headings The first comprises general surveys of the field covering the content of these arts and confronting the challenges they present such as the Islamic approach to three dimensional sculpture The second deals with questions of iconography and meaning while the third comprises a series of studies devoted to specific media such as ivory woodwork and numismatics This volume therefore offers not only a general introduction to some of the problems posed by Islamic art but also readings of key objects in an attempt to explore their meaning and finally an in depth
