Dorje, 2005 The Dalai Lama and the King Demon Raimondo Bultrini, 2013-06-07 A triple homicide committed a few hundred yards away from the residence in exile of the Dalai Lama opens the doors to an unknown universe for Superintendent Rajeev Kumar Singh of the Indian police He goes over every step of the crime and identifies its perpetrators as members of an exclusive cult dedicated to a demonic spirit with fearsome earthly powers The chief suspects include the leading figures of a society devoted to the cult of Gyalpo Shugden whose headquarters are to be found in the heart of Delhi s Tibetan exile neighborhood Raimondo Bultrini an investigative journalist decides to open a new trail by reconstructing the mystical aspect of the events The Dalai Lama himself determined to combat the sectarian outlook fostered in the name of the king demon by a group within the clergy of the Gelukpa school of Tibetan Buddhism reveals to Bultrini hitherto secret religious and historical details regarding the impact of the cult Recent events and developments seem to bear out his perspective since many Gyalpo Shugden followers have found common ground with the Chinese authorities The links between these renegade lamas and the Communist regime are becoming stronger creating an alliance aimed at removing all traces of the Dalai Lama s lineage from Tibet s future This is the first major expos of this intriguing struggle at the heart of the mysticism and politics surrounding the Dalai Lama and the Tibetan quest for freedom Steps toward a Tibetan

The singular role of Shabkar in the development of the idea of Tibet Shabkar 1781 1851 the Singer of the Land of Snows was a renowned yogi and poet who through his autobiography and songs developed a vision of Tibet as a Buddhist imagined community By incorporating vernacular literature providing a narrative mapping of the Tibetan plateau reviving and adapting the legend of Tibetans as Avalokite vara s chosen people and promoting shared Buddhist values and practices

Shabkar's concept of Tibet opened up the discursive space for the articulation of modern forms of Tibetan nationalism. Employing analytical lenses of cultural nationalism and literary studies, Rachel Pang explores the indigenous epistemologies of identity, community, and territory that predate contemporary state-centric definitions of nation and nationalism in Tibet and provides the definitive treatment of this foundational figure.
