

37 He said to my disciples and my rest, that it is I myself: I am the way, and said for a spirit such as I had used hence, as I see me have.

38 And when he had thus spoken, he showed them his hands and his feet.

39 And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondered, he said unto them,
Have ye here any meat?

40 And they gave him a piece of a baked fish, and of an honeycomb.

41 In the city of Jerusalem, ordained with power from God. And he said them with Bethany, and he lived up and blessed them.

42 And it came to pass, when they had thus said, he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven.

43 And they worshipped him thence to Jerusalem with joy.

44 And were continually praising and blessing God.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. JOHN.

CHAPTER I.

1 The beginning, the word, and the life of Jesus Christ. 2 The testimony of John. 3 The coming of the Holy Spirit, Peter, etc.

4 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

5 The word was in the beginning with God.

6 All things were made by him: and without him was not any thing made that was made.

7 In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

8 And the light abode in darkness;
and the darkness comprehended it not.

9 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.

10 The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.

11 He was not that Light, but came to bear witness of that Light.

12 That was the true Light, which enlighteneth every man that cometh into the world.

13 He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

14 He came to his own, and his own receiving him, did not receive him.

15 But as many as received him, unto him gave he power to become of God, even to them that believe in him.

16 Which were born, not of the will of the flesh, nor of men, but of God.

17 And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, and we saw the glory as of the only
Son of the Father, full of grace.

18 John came to witness, to testify of the Word, that all men
might believe in him.

19 As John said, I have seen the Word, and I have
testified that he was the Word,
and I have given him a name.

20 For the Word was made
flesh, and dwelt among us, and we
saw the glory as of the only
Son of the Father, full of grace.

21 John came to witness, to
testify of the Word, that all men
might believe in him.

22 As John said, I have
seen the Word, and I have
testified that he was the Word,
and I have given him a name.

23 For the Word was made
flesh, and dwelt among us, and we
saw the glory as of the only
Son of the Father, full of grace.

24 John came to witness, to
testify of the Word, that all men
might believe in him.

25 As John said, I have
seen the Word, and I have
testified that he was the Word,
and I have given him a name.

Charlesworth, Lee Martin McDonald, 2014-04-24 Many of the writings deemed apocryphal and pseudepigraphical were in circulation in the early centuries of Judaism and Christianity Their influences and impacts on the development of early communities and the development of Jewish and Christian thoughts have not yet been sufficiently examined While this judgment is especially true for the so called Christian Apocrypha it also applies for other writings that were not included in the Jewish and Christian Bibles and nor in other sacred collections of Scripture like Rabbinics and Patristics Most of these ancient writings functioned to some degree as sacred texts or scripture sacra scriptura in the communities in which they were produced and in others to which they circulated This volume focuses on how some of these forgotten voices were heard within numerous early religious communities helping to remove the distressing silence in many areas of the ancient world Forgotten Scriptures Lee Martin McDonald, 2009-01-01 The early Christian church had a variety of Scriptures and other source material that informed their faith and shaped their thinking But after a few centuries the church decided to keep the twenty seven books of our present New Testament and to treat them as a canonical in faith and practice But what of the other books Many of them have survived and remain valuable for understanding the diversity of the early Christian church and the astounding claims of faith on which it was founded Learning about these ancient documents need not threaten the church's current orthodoxy and authority in fact learning about these texts can help today's Christians form a deeper understanding of the early church The Journal of Sacred Literature and Biblical Record, 1866 The Journal of sacred literature, ed. by J. Kitto. [Continued as] The Journal of sacred literature and biblical record. [Continued as] The Journal of sacred literature John Kitto, 1866 Jerome and the Jews William L. Krewson, 2017-05-31 Jerome rocked the boat in which the early church had been comfortably settled for two hundred years He upset Christian tradition by arguing for the priority of the Hebrew Old Testament over the supposedly inspired Greek Septuagint He learned Hebrew from a Jewish teacher and translated the Old Testament directly from Hebrew into Latin Not only did his new Latin translation create turmoil but the inclusion of Jewish interpretations in his commentaries furthered the controversy Unlike his contemporaries Jerome viewed the Jews and their homeland as a source of information and inspiration However at the same time Jerome freely admitted his hatred of the Jews and their religion His caustic rhetoric reinforced the Christian church's displacement of the Jews but it seems to oppose his move toward appreciating Jewish resources This book illuminates Jerome's contradictory personality proposes a solution and explores avenues for current Christian and Jewish relations in light of Jerome's model The Encyclopædia Britannica Hugh Chisholm, James Louis Garvin, 1926 The

Heretic's Guide to Doctrine Daboniel Hereticus,2020-03-19 This book is intended to open Christians minds up to other Christians and to help improve dialog between them It deals with where a lot of them are coming from doctrinally and the problems to be dealt with on both sides There is a core to all true Christians that should bind us but we cannot do that as long as we cannot be open with our differences and open minded enough to understand why some people believe what they do Mature Christians should be able to talk about the elephant in the room I am of the firm belief that if everybody was coming from the Bible with what they believed we would have a lot more agreement And the world would hate us all the more I certainly do not expect every Christian to agree with me on everything It is not for nothing I call myself Hereticus

Ancient Jewish and Christian Scriptures John J. Collins,Craig A. Evans, Lee Martin McDonald,2020-08-25 Ancient Jewish and Christian Scriptures examines the writings included in and excluded from the Jewish and Christian canons of Scripture and explores the social settings in which some of this literature was viewed as authoritative and some was viewed either as uninspired or as heretical John J Collins Craig A Evans and Lee Martin McDonald examine how those noncanonical writings demonstrate the historical literary and religious aspects of the culture that gave rise to the writings They also show how literature excluded from the Jewish and Christian canons of Scripture remains valuable today for understanding the questions and conflicts that early Jewish and Christian faith communities faced Through this discussion contemporary readers acquire a broader understanding of biblical Scripture and of Jewish and Christian faith inspired by Scripture

Does It Matter Who Wrote the Bible? David B. Capes,2025-05-20 Students in seminary or graduate theology programs learn that some books in the Bible are anonymous Their professors will make the point that many Pauline letters have disputed authorship and may in fact not be written by Paul Students will also learn about the practice of pseudonymity in the world of the Bible and how some Gospels or letters are written under a false name Now for those who become pastors or church leaders what are they to do with what they learn Do they teach their congregants about these authorship questions Do they ignore that part of their training as irrelevant to the task Do they avoid teaching or reading publicly from disputed books Do these questions not matter in the end because the church settled on the canon This book aims to address these pastoral challenges An international group of scholars from universities seminaries and graduate theology programs convened to discuss these matters at the Lanier Theological Library in May 2022 These essays represent how many faculty are wrestling with the pastoral implications of anonymity and pseudonymity in the New Testament
