

mother earth

©2011 ~ Debby Rosenberg

i am one that feels so much my heart becomes a sacred place a look, a smile, a gentle touch i am graced amongst the stars in love i fall to all that is with wings so vast i embrace you all and send the sun to warm yourselves and feel the power of the clouds but maybe it is the moon that phases i feel the weight of painfulness and the thoughts they careless toss i'm blue and bruised with careless ways and tho' they feign in innocence, "it can't be me that hurts her so"

it's like a knife razor sharp, it stabs and rips apart my heart watch the blood run down my peaks and puddle slowly at your feet

I've become weak from evil thoughts i feel my eyes tearing up and you watch, as they flow over into the rains upon your lands, you dare to gasp at floods?

the pressure builds to near explosion but i roll and rock the earth instead shaking off the soot of life that nests inside your minds!

there are those that heed the call and find themselves in service tending the gardens of this life thinking only beauty thoughts my soul is linked to them could you come and kiss me now and dance around the green? heal me now with your love because love, is all there is!

with love, your mother earth

Sacred Differences Poems For Mother Earth

Sacred Differences Poems For Mother Earth:

Poems at the Edge of Differences Renate Papke, 2008 This study consists of two parts The first part offers an overview of feminism s theory of differences The second part deals with the textual analysis of poems about mothering by women from India the Caribbean and Africa Literary criticism has dealt with the representation of mothering in prose texts The exploration of lyrical texts has not yet come Since the late 1970s the acknowledgement of and the commitment to difference has been foundational for feminist theory and activism This investigation promotes a differentiated locational feminism Friedman The comprehensive theoretical discussion of feminism s different concepts of gender race ethnicity and mothering builds the foundation for the main part the presentation and analysis of the poems The issue of mothering foregrounds the communicative aspect of women s experience and wants to bridge the gap between theory and practice This study however does not intend to specify mothering as a universal and unique feminine characteristic It underlines a metaphorical use and discusses the concepts of nurturing maternal practice and social parenthood Regarding the extensive material this study understands itself as an explorative not concluding investigation placed at the intersections of gender studies postcolonial and classical literary studies Most of all it aims at initiating a dialogue and interchange between scholars and students in the Western and the Third World

Religious Diversity and Children's Literature Connie R. Green, Sandra Brenneeman Oldendorf, 2011-05-01 This book is an invaluable resource for enabling teachers religious educators and families to learn about religious diversity themselves and to teach children about both their own religion as well as the beliefs of others The traditions featured include indigenous beliefs throughout the world Native American spirituality Hinduism Buddhism Judaism Christianity Orthodoxy Catholicism and Protestantism Islam Sikhism and other beliefs such as Bah Unitarian Universalism Humanism and Atheism Each chapter highlights a specific religion or spiritual tradition with a brief discussion about major beliefs misconceptions sacred texts and holy days or celebrations This summary of each tradition is followed by extensive annotated recommendations for children s and adolescent literature as well as suggested teaching strategies The recommended literature includes informational books traditional religious stories and fiction with religious themes Teachers religious educators and family members will find the literature from these genres to be invaluable tools for bridging the religious experience of the child with that of the global society in which they live

Time and Nature in the Poetry of Niyi Osundare Chukwunwike Anolue, 2024-08-02 This book provides an ecocritical analysis of the poetry of the famous Nigerian poet Niyi Osundare It interrogates the intricate interface between time and nature in 11 of Osundare s defining poetry collections This is a book of postcolonial ecocriticism from an African perspective It brings together the ecocritical theory of animism and theories of geologic time in the discussion of Osundare s poetry Osundare shows that animism has a lot to offer in enriching human understanding of the ecosystem And while he eloquently catalogues problems undermining the health of the earth in this age of the Anthropocene and the Capitalocene in his poetry he also holds on to the hope of a better future The book concludes that Osundare's optimism is what informs his use of poetry to press humankind to rise to the duty of salvaging the environment Deploying an interdisciplinary approach that stretches across the fields of literature religion geology physics economics and anthropology this book will be an important read for those looking for fresh ways to understand Osundare's poetry and African nature writing

African Literature, Mother Earth and Religion Enna Sukutai Gudhlanga, 2022-03-15 This book is a collection of essays that explore the intersection of Earth Gender and Religion in African literary texts It examines cultural religious theological and philosophical traditions and their construction of perspectives and attitudes about Earth keeping and gender This publication is critical given the current global environmental crisis and its impact on African and global communities The book is multidisciplinary in approach literary environmental theological and sociological exploring the intersection of African creative work religion and the environment in their construction of Earth and gender It presents how the gendered interconnectedness of the natural environment with its broad spirituality and deep identification with the woman features prominently in the myths folklores legends rituals sacred songs and incantations that are explored in this collection Both male and female writers in the collection laud and accept woman's enduring motif as worker symbol and guardian of the environment This interconnectedness mirrors the importance of the environment for the survival of both human and non human components of Mother Earth The ideology of women's agency is emphasised and reinforced by ecofeminist theologians namely those viewing African women as active agents working closely with the environment and not as subordinates In the context of the environmental crisis the nurturing role of women should be bolstered and the rich African traditions that conserved the environment preserved The book advocates the re engagement of women particularly their knowledge and conservation techniques and how these can become reservoirs of dying traditions This volume offers recorded traditions in African literary texts thereby connecting gender religion and the environment and helpful perspectives in Earth keeping

From Here to Diversity Clara Sarmiento, 2010-08-11 From Here to Diversity Globalization and Intercultural Dialogues sees interculturalism as movement transit travel and the dynamics between cultures Contemporary intercultural travel is a global journey a circumnavigation at the speed of light that underwrites all the comings and goings the departures and arrivals the transmissions and receptions that are implicit in this title Hence From Here to Diversity examines the motivations characteristics and implications of cultural interactions in their perpetual movement devoid of spatial or temporal borders in a dangerous but stimulating indefinable of limits In the contemporary intercultural dialogue new voices are making themselves heard as valuable sources of study the voices of women non occidentals the non powerful forgotten narratives of a past that was as intercultural as the present after all what is colonialism other than a perverse form of interculturality global entertainment tourism oral literature diaries mythical narratives the cinema ethnography and new teachings among so many others Because this project is also intercultural at its source and subject From Here to Diversity Globalization and Intercultural Dialogues adds to the coherence of the project by including contributions from the most wide ranging backgrounds and nationalities without fear of the alterity that after all we propose to study

Woman in Sacred Song Eva Munson Smith, 1888

Holy Envy Maeera Shreiber, 2022-11-15 What is between us and the Christians is a deep dark affair which will go for another hundred generations Amos Oz Judas Among the great social shifts of the post World War II era is the unlikely sea change in Jewish Christian relations We read each other's scriptures and openly discuss differences as well as similarities Yet many such encounters have become rote and predictable Powerful emotions stirred up by these conversations are often dismissed or ignored Demonstrating how such emotions as shame envy and desire can inform these encounters Holy Envy Writing in the Jewish Christian Borderzone charts a new way of thinking about interreligious relations Moreover by focusing on modern and contemporary writers novelists and poets who traffic in the volatile space between Judaism and Christianity the book calls attention to the creative implications of these intense encounters While recognizing a long overdue need to address a fundamentally Christian narrative underwriting twentieth century American verse Holy Envy does more than represent Christianity as an aesthetically coercive force or as an adversarial other For the book also suggests how literature can excavate an alternative interreligious space at once risky and generative In bringing together recent accounts of Jewish Christian relations affect theory and poetics Holy Envy offers new ways into difficult and urgent conversations about interreligious encounters Holy Envy is sure to engage readers who are interested in literature religion and above all interfaith dialogue

He Could Not Contain Her: Kathleen McCartan, 2014-09-23 First and foremost this book gives you a glimpse into one creative some say genius bipolar mind which I have had for a little over twelve years Beyond that using a Sacred Feminine Holy Spirit Breath and Wind of God perspective as well as an educational creative perspective and a Course in Miracles perspective I attempt to create a total world reversal of thought on all issues related to the world humans why we're here and what's to come of us This book reverses so called normal human thinking about almost everything including what is life and what is death what the real story of Lucifer and Mary Magdalene John the Baptist and Jesus really is and what the actual laws of the universe really are what's actually normal and abnormal the answer will surprise you what humans are actually like as a species what the current state of our world actually is and what humans mean to Christ John the Baptist Christ Alter Ego Christ in reality and in the great scheme of things It will be no surprise that I determine that to save the world and yes it can be done love is the only question and love is the only answer The only problem is that most people on Earth aren't really listening despite the fact that we live in an almost dead world mentally emotionally and spiritually The spiritual light of the world is very dim if it's even shining at all anymore Humans must wake up now today This book is about starting a creative spiritual educational revolution in America and letting it spread throughout the whole world This book takes a forward looking approach to the future and gives readers a glimpse into upcoming events

The Bible and Feminism Yvonne Sherwood, 2017-11-24 This groundbreaking book breaks with established canons and resists some of the stereotypes of feminist biblical studies It features a wide range of contributors who showcase new methodological and theoretical movements such as feminist materialisms intersectionality postidentitarian nomadic politics gender archaeology and lived religion and theories of the human and the posthuman The Bible and Feminism Remapping the Field engages a range of social and political issues including migration and xenophobia divorce and family law abortion pinkwashing the neoliberal university the second amendment AIDS and sexual trafficking and the politics of the veil Foundational figures in feminist biblical studies work alongside new voices and contributors from a multitude of disciplines in conversations with the Bible that go well beyond the expected canon within the canon assumed to be of interest to feminist biblical scholars Moving beyond the limits of a text orientated model of reading this collection looks at how biblical texts were actualized in the lives of religious revolutionaries such as Joanna Southcott or Sor Juana In s de la Cruz It charts the politics of the Pauline veil in the self understanding of Europe and reads the genealogical halls in the book of Chronicles alongside acts of commemoration and forgetting in 9 11 and Tiananmen Square

Deep: In Love with Life Williamsji Maveli, 2021-03-15 No any light or deep wound nor a heavy scar of ugliness in life No more heart wounds bleeds No scar Yet another mastermind shall become a slave or a servant And pierced are my feet at the bottom peeled to pain in real sense But I am as body as a whole not only heart limbs or hands can the sculpture be modified with fresh wounds and scars Who has no wound nor scar Only an expert creative plastic surgeon or an innovative creator can turn my ugly wounds into a scars of beauty to be enjoyed by others open eyes But there is something more all behind and beneath the piercing splash of human activities in fact they are hidden aches and agonies this novella DEEP in love with life penned by Williamsji Maveli is a heart touching painful story from his own life

A.B.O.D.E WILLIAMSJI MAVELI, 2019-01-30 Love is the ABODE of GOD and we all are living in His domicile This love will reveal a top secret causing a thousand veils to fall each second The first step is to let go of life to take a step with no wings to fly God spoke about heaven the Abode of Heaven or Abode of God It is important to understand the difference between heaven as a kingdom and heaven as the virtual abode pertaining to celestial concepts ABODE means a dwelling place It is described as our future physical bodies into which we will step sometime in the next life These new bodies will be our own abodes or the temples of God There will be no mansions to evoke jealousy or comparison pride or covetousness Worldly wisdom and selfish ambition have devised these interpretations over time Spiritual wisdom interprets something else According to me it simply means a dwelling place

Crafting Contemporary Pagan Identities in a Catholic Society Dr Kathryn

Rountree,2013-06-28 Contemporary western Paganism is now a global religious phenomenon with Pagans in many parts of the world sharing much in common from a nature revering worldview and lifestyle to a host of chants invocations ritual tools and magical practices But there are also locally specific differences Local religious contexts landscapes histories traditions politics values and norms all impact on local Paganisms This is nowhere more evident than in a strongly Catholic society where religion and culture are deeply entwined Taking the Mediterranean society of Malta as a case study this book invites readers inside the world of a small hidden sub culture Showing what it is like being Pagan in a society where the vast majority of the population is Roman Catholic and Catholicism permeates every sphere of public and domestic social and political life Rountree reveals that Paganism here is a unique brew of indigenous and global influences Pagans employ both creativity and borrowing in constructing identities within a cultural context characterized by antagonism as well as continuity This book explores the intersections of religious and cultural identity the global and local Paganism and Christianity with insights grounded in rich ethnographic detail based on long term fieldwork Rountree makes invaluable comparisons with other studies of modern Pagans and their various worlds
