Sacred Places British Columbias Early Churches:

Sacred Places Barry Downs, 1980 Pioneer Churches along the Gold Rush Trail Liz Bryan, 2022-06-14 A fascinating tour through BC's historical gold rush trails focusing on the nineteenth century churches that were pivotal to the establishment of early settler communities. Much has been written about the Cariboo gold rush from the trails and wagon roads to the rowdy mining camps from tales of great luck to those of disappointment and despair. This book paints a different picture of those pioneer days. It is a guide to the nineteenth century churches that were built during the gold rush or in the settlement days that followed. Most of these historic structures were handmade of local wood though they differed greatly in size and style. Some are now abandoned untenanted but still worthy of inspection. All were built to fill the spiritual need of the European migrants who flooded to the area to nurture a sense of community that survived even after the gold was gone. Filled with beautiful colour photography and detailed maps, Pioneer Churches along the Gold Rush Trail highlights the history, geography, architecture, craftsmanship and social context of dozens of gold rush era churches, preserving them in their varying states of decay for posterity. While acknowledging the destructive forces of colonialism including Christianity on Indigenous Peoples, this book also examines the historical role of churches in community building and invites the reader to consider this dichotomy with an open and curious mind. Pioneer Churches of Vancouver Island and the Salish Sea Liz Bryan, 2020-06-23 A concise full colour visitor's guide to dozens of historical churches scattered throughout Vancouver Island from humble country chapels to soaring urban cathedrals. For many European settlers who arrived on Vancouver Island in the late nineteenth century, building a church was as important as establishing a homestead or erecting a school. The church was the heart of the community. Today, although demographics have shifted and church attendance has waned, many of those early structures are still standing. Pioneer Churches of Vancouver Island and the Salish Sea features more than forty surviving churches whose construction dates back to the 1800s. It explores the architecture, the local history of the area and the stories of the builders, worshippers, clergy members, those who are buried in the adjoining graveyards. Divided into geographical sections: Victoria, Esquimalt and the Saanich Peninsula, the Cowichan Valley, Salt Spring Island, Central Vancouver Island and the North Island, this book is a beautifully photographed, easy to follow guide for anyone interested in exploring these architectural treasures and learning more about the history surrounding them. Adventure Roads of BC's Northwest Heartland Liz Bryan, 2022-06-14 An off the beaten track exploration of Interior BC full of scenic photography, maps and fascinating information for tourists and armchair travellers alike. From lush forests to majestic mountains, sleepy ghost towns to pastoral farmland, Adventure Roads of BC's Northwest Heartland captures the beauty, history and unexpected twists and turns of a region often overlooked by tourists and ideal for would-be road trippers. Fuelled by the philosophy that any road can lead to adventure, not always of the visceral sort but of the mind and heart, travel writer, historian and photographer Liz Bryan takes readers on a virtual tour. Taking scenic routes from Merritt to Barkerville,

Kamloops to Bella Coola and into the valleys of the Bulkley and Skeena Rivers Bryan tells the story of this land its peoples and their history With stunning photography and fascinating prose this book will compel anyone to follow their own adventure road wherever it may take them Alex Lord's British Columbia Alexander Russell Lord,1991 Alex Lord a pioneer inspector of rural BC schools shares in these recollections his experiences in a province barely out of the stage coach era Travelling through vast northern territory utilizing unreliable transportation and enduring climatic extremes Lord became familiar with the aspirations of remote communities and their faith in the humanizing effects of tiny assisted schools En route he performed in resolute yet imaginative fashion the supervisory functions of a top government educator developing an educational philosophy of his own based on an understanding of the provincial geography a reverence for citizenship and a work ethic tuned to challenge and accomplishment Although not completed these memoirs invite the reader to experience the British Columbia that Alex Lord knew Through his words we endure the difficulties of travel in this mountainous province We meet many of the unusual characters who inhabited this last frontier and learn of their hopes fears joys sorrows and eccentricities More particularly we are reminded of the historical significance of the one room rural school and its role as an indispensable instrument of community cohesion John Calam has organized the memoirs according to the regions through which Lord travelled He has included in his introduction a biography of Alex Lord a brief description of the British Columbia he knew a sketch of its public education system and an assessment of the place Lord s writing now occupies among other works on education and society Interdisciplinary Approaches to Canadian Society Association for Canadian Studies,1990 Far more than a bibliographic account of the major works in Canadian Studies Interdisciplinary Approaches to Canadian Society provides a broad examination of the state of this growing field of study Each chapter stresses the importance of the interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary approaches which have come to characterize Canadian Studies Also in an unprecedented collaborative effort almost all the chapters are jointly authored by anglophone and francophone scholars The works on Quebec and the francophone community respect the distinct nature of this facet of Canada As stated in the introduction this work is a primer in the field and a guide to further pursuits Its users will welcome it as a friendly introduction to an exciting country Indigenous Peoples And Religious Change Peggy Brock,2005 Ten historians and anthropologists analyse religious change as it was experienced by Indigenous Peoples in and around the Pacific and southern Africa in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The Heavens Are Changing Susan Neylan,2003 A study of Protestant missionization among the Tsimshianic speaking peoples of the North Pacific Coast of British Columbia during the latter half of the nineteenth century Positioning the Missionary Brett Christophers,2011-11-01 Positioning the Missionary examines Anglican missionary work in nineteenth century British Columbia Its chief protagonists are John Booth Good an agent of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel and the Nlha7kapmx poeple of southwestern B C Asking why the Nkha7kapmx embraced Good how he sought to evangelize and civilize them and how they responded it situates Good s mission at several scales the local ethnographic literature histories of contact and conflict in mainland B C from the early nineteenth century the theology and sociology of mission and the recent critical literature on European colonialism Christophers rethinks mission work in the light of contemporary theories of colonial discourse and disciplinary power and speculates about the interpretative potential of such concepts In addition to Good s encounter with the Nlha7kapmx Positioning the Missionary also refers to other colonial missions identifying by turns the peculiarity of Good s experience and the ways in which it conforms to broader patterns of mission history As a reflection on the ongoing politics of colonialism this book discusses Good s contribution to the devastation of Nlha7kapmx culture and his duplicitous role in the appropriation of Nlha7kapmx lands

The Promise of Paradise Andrew Scott,2017-03-25 The West has long attracted visionaries and schemers from around the world And no other region in North America can outstrip British Columbia for the number of utopian or intentional settlement attempts in the past 150 years Andrew Scott delves into the dramatic stories of these fascinating but often doomed communities From Doukhobor farmers to Finnish coal miners Quakers and hippies many groups have struggled to build idealistic colonies in BC s inspiring landscape While most discovered hardship disillusionment and failure new groups sprang up and continue to spring up to take their place Meet the quick tempered slave driving Madame Zee partner of the infamous Brother XII who reportedly beat followers with a riding crop Hear from Richard The Troll Schaller who founded the Legal Front Commune General Store and Funny Food Farm on the Sunshine Coast setting off a storm of hostility from locals Congregate with Jerry LeBourdais and fellow members of the Ochiltree Organic Commune who rebelled from hippie communes by embracing meat eating and coffee drinking With careful research and engaging first person accounts Scott sifts through the wreckage of the utopia seekers dreams and delves into the practices and philosophies of contemporary intentional communities This book is a compendium of astounding misadventures as well as an intriguing analysis of what moves people to search for paradise

Vanishing British Columbia Michael Kluckner,2011-11-01 The old buildings and historic places of British Columbia form a kind of roadside memory a tangible link with stories of settlement change and abandonment that reflect the great themes of our history With small towns declining and old rural properties changing so little of the history of these places has been recorded in museums or archives and so much of it may disappear as families disperse and memories dim More than a decade ago Michael Kluckner began painting these dots on his personal map of the province in a watercolour sketchbook In 1999 after he put a few of the sketches on his website a network of correspondents emerged that eventually led him to the family letters photo albums and memories all from a disappearing era of the province Vanishing British Columbia is a record of these places and the stories they tell It combines engaging and insightful historical commentary with over 160 of the author s original paintings It has an exceptional assortment of historic imagery including old postcards architectural plans and photographs The study of roadside memory demonstrates the visceral connection that people especially those who are part of the rural to urban diaspora of modern times have for the sites of their family memories On a grander scale this approach leads to a broader understanding of more abstract historical themes and of the province s history and culture It also presents a compelling argument for stewardship of regional history in the face of urbanization and globalization Sights of Resistance Robert James Belton,2001 CD ROM contains Chapters from text Glossary Encyclopedia of British Columbia Daniel Francis,2000 The BC publishing event of the decade 30 000 copies in print Commerce of Taste Barry Magrill,2012 How books of church drawings marketed taste and status alongside social change A History of Canadian Architecture Harold Kalman,1994 Listening for the Heartbeat of Being Brent Wood,Mark Dickinson,2015-11-01 Poet philosopher translator typographer and cultural historian Robert Bringhurst is a modern day Renaissance man He has forged a career from diverse but interwoven vocations finding ways to make accessible to contemporary readers the wisdom of poets and thinkers from ancient Greece the Middle East Asia and North American First Nations This collection shows the ways in which his industry standard textbook The Elements of Typographic Style his remarkable translations of Haida oral epics and his experimental and traditional poetry and prose form a single coherent project Listening for the Heartbeat of Being brings together a range of literary scholars poets journalists and publishers to comment on Bringhurst s far reaching body of work The essays include a comprehensive biography of Bringhurst first hand accounts of his book design and production efforts an analysis of his ground breaking polyphonic performance poems and re considerations of the Masterworks of the Classical Haida Mythtellers translation trilogy Experienced Bringhurst scholars join well known writers such as Dennis Lee and Margaret Atwood to create a multi dimensional view of Bringhurst s career Guided by the simple faith that everything is connected to everything else Bringhurst s ability to listen closely to the great minds of many cultures and represent their voices pragmatically is as this diverse and insightful book shows of greater interest than ever in a world facing unprecedented ecological crisis and intensive cultural evolution Contributors include Margaret Atwood Nicholas Bradley University of Victoria Crispin Elsted Barbarian Press Clare Goulet Mount St Vincent University Iain Higgins University of Victoria Ishmael Hope Peter Koch Peter Koch Printers Dennis Lee Scott McIntyre Katherine McLeod Concordia University Kevin McNeilly University of British Columbia Kawan Sang a and Erica Wagner Avery Index to Architectural Periodicals. 2d Ed., Rev. and Enl Avery Library,1993 A Guide to Canadian Architectural Styles, Second Edition Shannon Ricketts,Leslie Maitland,Jacqueline Hucker,2004 A thoughtful elegantly written and easy to read guide to over three hundred years of architectural style in Canada Kelly Crossman Carleton University Journal of the Society of Architectural Historians Society of Architectural Historians,1981 Includes special issues
