specialists in Western Byzantine Islamic and Jewish Art are committed to a comparative and transcultural approach The authors reflect upon the different strategies of clothing sacred texts with precious materials and elaborate forms They show how the pretypographic cultures of the Middle Ages used book ornaments as media for building a close relation between the divine words and their human audience By exploring how art shapes the religious practice of books and how the religious use of books shapes the evolution of artistic practices this book contributes to a new understanding of the deep nexus between sacred scripture and art
