Sacrifice And Community Jewish Offering And Christian Eucharist:

Sacrifice and Community Matthew Levering, 2006-01-10 This book explores the character of the Eucharist as communion in and through sacrifice It will stimulate discussion because of its controversial critique of the dominant paradigm for Eucharistic theology its reclamation of St Thomas Aquinas s theology of the Eucharist and its response to Pope John Paul II s Ecclesia de Eucharistia Argues that the Eucharist cannot be separated from sacrifice and rediscovers the biblical connections between sacrifice and communion Timed to coincide with the Year of the Eucharist proclaimed by Pope John Paul II Reclaims the riches of St Thomas Aquinas s theology of the Eucharist which had recently been reduced to a metaphysical defence of transubstantiation The Eucharist: Mystery of Presence, Sacrifice, and Communion

Lawrence Feingold, 2018-04-01 The Eucharist Mystery of Presence Sacrifice and Communion explores the three ends of the Sacrament of Sacraments God s true presence His redemptive sacrifice and spiritual nourishment through communion with Him In this follow up to his groundbreaking work Faith Comes From What Is Heard Lawrence Feingold constructs a biblical vision of the Eucharist from its prefigurement in the Old Testament to its fulfillment in the New and presents the Eucharistic theology of the Church Fathers St Thomas Aquinas and magisterial teaching from centuries past through today The Eucharist is a masterful text both challenging and spiritually rich that comprehensively examines the unspeakable mystery that is the Eucharist

Sacrifice and Community Matthew Levering, 2008-04-15 This book explores the character of the Eucharist as communion in and through sacrifice It will stimulate discussion because of its controversial critique of the dominant paradigm for Eucharistic theology its reclamation of St Thomas Aquinas s theology of the Eucharist and its response to Pope John Paul II s Ecclesia de Eucharistia Argues that the Eucharist cannot be separated from sacrifice and rediscovers the biblical connections between sacrifice and communion Timed to coincide with the Year of the Eucharist proclaimed by Pope John Paul II Reclaims the riches of St Thomas Aquinas s theology of the Eucharist which had recently been reduced to a metaphysical defence of transubstantiation The Oxford Handbook of Sacramental Theology Hans Boersma, Matthew

Levering, 2015-08-06 As a multi faceted introduction to sacramental theology the purposes of this Handbook are threefold historical ecumenical and missional The forty four chapters are organized into the following parts five parts Sacramental Roots in Scripture Patristic Sacramental Theology Medieval Sacramental Theology From the Reformation through Today and Philosophical and Theological Issues in Sacramental Doctrine Contributors to this Handbook explain the diverse ways that believers have construed the sacraments both in inspired Scripture and in the history of the Church s practice In Scripture and the early Church Orthodox Protestants and Catholics all find evidence that the first Christian communities celebrated and taught about the sacraments in a manner that Orthodox Protestants and Catholics today affirm as the foundation of their own faith and practice Thus for those who want to understand what has been taught about the sacraments in Scripture and across the generations by the major thinkers of the various Christian traditions this Handbook provides an introduction As the divisions in Christian sacramental understanding and practice are certainly evident in this Handbook it is not thereby without ecumenical and missional value This book evidences that the story of the Christian sacraments is despite divisions in interpretation and practice one of tremendous hope      First Things ,2007      The Indissolubility of Marriage Matthew Levering,2019-05-10 This well researched book explains why the Catholic Church continues to teach marital indissolubility and addresses the numerous contemporary challenges to that teaching It surveys the patristic witness to marital indissolubility along with Orthodox and Protestant views as well as historical critical biblical exegesis on the contested biblical passages It also surveys the Catholic tradition from the Trent through Benedict XVI and it examines a Catholic argument that the Catholic Church s teaching can and should change Then it explores Amoris Laetitia the papal exhortation from Pope Francis on marriage and the various major responses to it with the issue of marital indissolubility at the forefront Finally it retrieves Aquinas s theology of marital indissolubility as a contribution to deepening current theological discussions The author argues that Amoris Laetitia upholds the traditional Catholic teaching that a valid and consummated Christian marriage is absolutely indissoluble in accord with the teachings of Jesus and the Apostle Paul as solemnly and authoritatively taught by the Council of Trent and affirmed by later popes and the Second Vatican Council He says that Amoris Laetitia should be interpreted and implemented in light of the doctrine of marital indissolubility implementations that undermine this doctrine should be avoided Levering says that numerous contemporary Catholic theologians and biblical scholars are mistakenly turning the indissolubility of marriage into contingent dissolubility based upon whether the spouses continue to act in loving ways toward each other The sacrament s gift of objective indissolubility is thereby undermined Fortunately the main interpreters of Amoris Laetitia whose views have been approved by Pope Francis insist that the Apostolic Exhortation does not change the doctrine of marital indissolubility in any way      Searching Her Own Mystery Mark S. Kinzer,2015-03-30 Vatican II s Declaration on the Relation of the Church to Non Christian Religions Nostra Aetate transformed the Catholic view of the Jewish people and the Jewish religious tradition Asserting that the Church discovers her link to the stock of Abraham when searching her own mystery Nostra Aetate intimated that the mystery of Israel is inseparable from the mystery of the Church As interlocking mysteries each community requires the other in order to understand itself In Searching Her Own Mystery noted Messianic Jewish theologian Mark S Kinzer argues that the Church has yet to explore adequately the implications of Nostra Aetate for Christian self understanding The new Catholic teaching concerning Israel should produce fresh perspectives on the entire range of Christian theology including Christology ecclesiology and the theology of the sacraments To this end Kinzer proposes an Israel ecclesiology rooted in Israel Christology in which a restored ecclesia ex circumcissione the church from the circumcision assumes a crucial role as a sacramental sign of the Church s bond with the Jewish people and genealogical Israel s irrevocable election      Catholic Doctrines on the Jewish People after Vatican II Gavin D'Costa,2019-10-10 In this timely study Gavin D Costa explores Roman

Catholic doctrines after the Second Vatican Council regarding the Jewish people 1965 2015 It establishes the emergence of the teaching that God's covenant with the Jewish people is irrevocable What does this mean for Catholics regarding Jewish religious rituals the land and mission Catholic Doctrines on the Jewish People after Vatican II establishes that the Catholic Church has a new teaching about the Jewish people the covenant made with God is irrevocable D Costa faces head on three important issues arising from the new teaching First previous Catholic teachings seem to claim Jewish rituals are invalid He argues this is not the case Earlier teachings allow us positive insights into the modern question Second a nuanced case for Catholic minimalist Zionism is advanced without detriment to the Palestinian cause This is in keeping with Catholic readings of scripture and the development of the Holy See's attitude to the State of Israel Third the painful question of mission is explored D Costa shows the new approach safeguards Jewish identity and allows for the possibility of successful witness by Hebrew Catholics who retain their Jewish identity and religious life The New Isaac Leroy Andrew Huizenga, 2009 Gospel scholarship has long recognized that Matthean Christology is a rich multifaceted tapestry weaving multifold Old Testament figures together in the person of Jesus It is somewhat strange therefore that scholarship has found little role for the figure of Isaac in the Gospel of Matthew Employing Umberto Eco's theory of the Model Reader as a theoretical basis to ground the phenomenon of Matthean intertextuality this work contends that when read rightly as a coherent narrative in its first century setting with proper attention to both biblical texts and extrabiblical traditions about Isaac the Gospel of Matthew evinces a significant Isaac typology in service of presenting Jesus as new temple and decisive sacrifice

Preventive Diplomacy, Peacebuilding And Security In The Asia-Pacific: Evolving Norms, Agenda And Practices Yanjun Guo, Ji

Missa Est! Eugene R. Schlesinger, 2016-12-15 The twenty first century church cannot afford to neglect mission When church and culture no longer share a common outlook the only way forward is mission Pope Francis recognizes this in his call for a missionary conversion of the church Responding to this invitation is a constructive work in ecclesiology addressing the relationship between liturgy and mission in the church's life It advances a notion of the church grounded in both liturgy and mission where neither is subordinated to nor collapsed into the other The church's liturgical rites disclose and enact the church's identity as a missionary community Close examination of the sources at the heart of traditional communion ecclesiology Trinitarian theology the sacraments of initiation and eucharistic theology yields an ecclesiology in which the church is constituted by both liturgy and mission These are two distinct ways of participating in the triune life of God which is revealed in the paschal mystery The church's pilgrimage to God's kingdom takes it through the world in mission The church as the body of Christ is given away to God and to the world for the world's salvation The result is a contemporary restatement of traditional ecclesiology transposed into a missional key     Engaging the Doctrine of the Holy Spirit Matthew Levering, 2016-07-19 A Distinguished Theologian on the Doctrine of the Holy Spirit Distinguished theologian Matthew Levering offers a historical examination of the doctrine of the Holy Spirit defending an Augustinian model against various contemporary theological views A companion piece to Levering's Engaging the Doctrine of Revelation this work critically engages contemporary and classical doctrines of the Holy Spirit in dialogue with Orthodox and Reformed interlocutors Levering makes a strong dogmatic case for conceiving of the Holy Spirit as love between Father and Son given to the people of God as a gift     Leviticus (Brazos Theological Commentary on the Bible) Ephraim Radner, 2008-06-01 This volume like each in the Brazos Theological Commentary on the Bible is designed to serve the church through aid in preaching teaching study groups and so forth and demonstrate the continuing intellectual and practical viability of theological interpretation of the Bible     Christ and the Catholic Priesthood Matthew Levering, 2010     A Scriptural Theology of Eucharistic Blessings Susan I. Bubbers, 2013-09-12 This study examines the scriptural justification for believers to expect the Eucharist to be a place where God will come and bless them with freedom and formation Bubbers focus is not on liturgy but rather on the biblical message of the benefits of participation in the Eucharist Why keep this Feast Why is Eucharist important Bubbers interpretive approach is a synthesis of historical literary aspects of Biblical Theology and canonical creedal aspects of the Theological Reading of Scripture taking into account the biblical historical place of Eucharist as well as its ongoing presence within the Church Bubbers begins by displaying the Last Supper as a Passover meal which bridges between Old Testament motifs and the New Testament Feast She then shows that the Exodus context reveals a paradigm which links blessing with remembrance and suggests that the remembrance motif describes these blessings Finally Bubbers gathers a catalogue of specific blessings summarized by freedom and formation Her conclusion is that the Feast is a divinely designed paradigm for worship which is accompanied by a promise of transformational encounters     The Oxford Handbook of the Reception of Aquinas Matthew Levering, Marcus Plested, 2021 This Handbook provides a comprehensive survey of Catholic Orthodox and Protestant philosophical and theological reception of Thomas Aquinas over the past 750 years     Engaging the Doctrine of Israel Matthew Levering, 2021-09-16 This book is the dogmatic sequel to Levering's Engaging the Doctrine of Marriage in which he argued that God's purpose in creating the cosmos is the eschatological marriage of God and his people God sets this marriage into motion through his covenantal election of a particular people the people of Israel Central to this people's relationship with the Creator God are their Scriptures exodus Torah Temple land and

Davidic kingship As a Christian Israelology this book devotes a chapter to each of these topics investigating their theological significance both in light of ongoing Judaism and in light of Christian Scripture Old and New Testaments and Christian theology The book makes a significant contribution to charting a path forward for Jewish Christian dialogue from the perspective of post Vatican II Catholicism So Great a Salvation Jon C. Laansma, George H. Guthrie, Cynthia Long Westfall, 2019-06-27 This volume presents a dialogue between historians exegetes and theologians on the background and key themes of the atonement in Hebrews Presenting a range of differing perspectives and contributing to the renewed conversation between biblical and theological scholarship the argument is structured in two parts contexts and themes within Hebrews Focusing on atonement not only in the Old Testament but also in the Greco Roman world and touching on themes such as sacrifice plight and solution and faith these contributions shed light on the concept of the atonement in a directly scriptural way The whole is a definitive collection of studies on the atonement in Hebrews that will be of service well beyond the confines of Hebrews specialists a collection as important for what it says about the atonement and the 21st century church as for what it says about Hebrews Reconfiguring Thomistic Christology Matthew Levering, 2023-03-30 Unites eschatologically charged biblical Christology with metaphysical and dogmatic Thomistic Christology by highlighting shared typological Christologies The Broken Body Sarah Coakley, 2024-04-09 A fascinating collection of essays exploring a fresh contemporary approach to the person and doctrine of Jesus Christ How should Christians think about the person of Jesus Christ today In this volume Sarah Coakley argues that this question has to be broken open in new and unexpected ways by an awareness of the deep spiritual demands of the christological task and its strikingly apophatic dimensions by a probing of the paradoxical ways in which Judaism and Christianity are drawn together in Christ even by those issues which seem to break them most decisively apart and by an exploration of the mode of Christ's presence in the eucharist with its intensification breaking and re gathering of human desires In this sequel to her celebrated earlier volume of essays Powers and Submissions Coakley returns to its unifying theme of divine power and contemplative submission and weaves a new web of christological outcomes which remain replete with controversial implications for gender spirituality and ethics The Broken Body will be of interest to those working in the fields of systematic theology philosophy of religion early Christian studies Jewish Christian relations and feminist and gender theory Fusing biblical and patristic theology analytic philosophy and spiritual tradition Sarah Coakley has produced a fascinating inspiring and compelling account of Christ's identity and its importance for questions of life Professor Mark Wynn University of Oxford Coakley argues that good Christology arises only from intellectual and spiritual postures learnt by encountering Christ openly This volume subtly and powerfully facilitates such encounter with God and in him with our neighbours especially the Jewish people Professor Judith Wolfe University of St Andrews Everything we have come to expect from Sarah Coakley is here in this extraordinary collection wonderful clarity startling and fruitful comparisons within and beyond the theological canon a brisk defiance of feminist conventions that in turn sharpens and deepens feminist analysis a resistance to cheap theological certainties and an abiding faithfulness anchored in Christ borne aloft by the Spirit Christology is here shown to embrace abjection and jouissance to advocate sacrifice that is itself the end of patriarchal violence and to demand a eucharistic sharing that is incomplete without solidarity to the outcast and the poor themselves the face of the living Christ In these essays Coakley exemplifies the semiotic richness of priest and scholar a breaking open of theological reserves that will transgress startle renew instruct This is sacrifice re made Professor Katherine Sonderegger Virginia Theological Seminary
