TRAMAN In our democratic society government depends on the consent of the governed This important principle means that in the long run the United States government does only what the people want it to do Therefore we can have a Navy only if the people know and understand the importance of the Navy and support it The Navy like the other services depends on this country's citizens for the four key tools of its trade personnel money materials and the authority to carry out its mission As a Navy journalist your main function will be to make the facts about your Navy available to the Navy's three main publics the people at your ship or station Navy people in general and the people of the United States as a whole

Tritium Anomalies on Amchitka Island, Alaska D. C. Castagnola, 1969 Decolonizing the Lens of Power Kerstin Knopf, 2008 This is the first book that comprehensively examines Indigenous filmmaking in North America as it analyzes in detail a variety of representative films by Canadian and US American Indigenous filmmakers two films that contextualize the oral tradition three short films and four dramatic films The book explores how members of colonized groups use the medium of film as a means for cultural and political expression and thus enter the dominant colonial film discourse and create an answering discourse The theoretical framework is developed as an interdisciplinary approach combining postcolonialism Indigenous studies and film studies As Indigenous people are gradually taking control over the imagemaking process in the area of film and video they cease being studied and described objects and become subjects who create self-controlled images of Indigenous cultures The book explores the translatability of Indigenous oral tradition into film touching upon the changes the cultural knowledge is subject to in this process including statements of Indigenous filmmakers on this issue It also asks whether or not there is a definite Indigenous film practice and whether filmmakers tend to dissociate their work from dominant classical filmmaking adapt to it or create new film forms and styles through converging classical film conventions and their conscious violation This approach presupposes that Indigenous filmmakers are constantly in some state of reaction to Western ethnographic filmmaking and to classical narrative filmmaking and its epitome the Hollywood narrative cinema The films analyzed are The Road Allowance People by Maria Campbell Itam Hakim Hopiit by Victor Masayesva Talker by Lloyd Martell Tenacity and Smoke Signals by Chris Eyre Overweight With Crooked Teeth and Honey Moccasin by Shelley Niro Big Bear by Gil Cardinal and Atanarjuat The Fast Runner by Zacharias Kunuk

"Right Makes Might" Wolfgang Mieder, 2019-04-04 A powerful and timely addition to the literature of rhetoric and folklore Choice In 1860 Abraham Lincoln employed the proverb Right makes might opposite of the more aggressive Might makes right in his famed Cooper Union address While Lincoln did not originate the proverb his use of it in this critical speech

indicates that the fourteenth century phrase had taken on new ethical and democratic connotations in the nineteenth century In this collection famed scholar of proverbs Wolfgang Mieder explores the multifaceted use and function of proverbs through the history of the United States from their early beginnings up through their use by such modern day politicians as Barack Obama Hillary Rodham Clinton and Bernie Sanders Building on previous publications and unpublished research Mieder explores sociopolitical aspects of the American worldview as expressed through the use of proverbs in politics women s rights and the civil rights movement and by looking at the use of proverbial phrases Mieder demonstrates how one traditional phrase can take on numerous expressive roles over time and how they continue to play a key role in our contemporary moment

Visual Database Systems 3 Stefano Spaccapietra,Ramesh Jain,2013-06-05 Both the way we look at data through a DBMS and the nature of data we ask a DBMS to manage have drastically evolved over the last decade moving from text to images and to sound to a lesser extent Visual representations are used extensively within new user interfaces Powerful visual approaches are being experimented for data manipulation including the investigation of three dimensional display techniques Similarly sophisticated data visualization techniques are dramatically improving the understanding of the information extracted from a database On the other hand more and more applications use images as basic data or to enhance the quality and richness of data manipulation services Image management has opened a wide area of new research topics in image understanding and analysis The IFIP 2 6 Working Group on Databases strongly believes that a significant mutual enrichment is possible by confronting ideas concepts and techniques supporting the work of researcher and practitioners in the two areas of visual interfaces to DBMS and DBMS management of visual data For this reason IFIP 2 6 has launched a series of conferences on Visual Database Systems The first one has been held in Tokyo 1989 VDB 2 was held in Budapest 1991 This conference is the third in the series As the preceding editions the conference addresses researchers and practitioners active or interested in user interfaces human computer communication knowledge representation and management image processing and understanding multimedia database techniques and computer vision

Dodgers! Jim Alexander, 2022-07-20 In the 1880s a Brooklyn baseball manager plotted to steal pitching signs and alert batters with a hidden electrical wire In 1951 the Brooklyn Dodgers were robbed of a pennant via a sign stealing scheme involving a center field office a telescope and a button connected to the bullpen phone In 2017 the Los Angeles Dodgers were robbed of a World Series championship via a sign stealing system involving a TV camera a monitor a trash can and a bat History has often repeated itself around the Dodgers franchise From their beginnings as the Brooklyn Atlantics to their move from Flatbush to L A and into the 21st Century the Dodgers have seen heartbreaking losses and stirring triumphs broken the color barrier turned the game into a true coast to coast sport and produced many Hall of Famers This is their story Echo and Narcissus Amy Lawrence, 1991-07-23 Do women in classical Hollywood cinema ever truly speak for themselves In Echo and Narcissus Amy Lawrence examines eight classic films to show how women's speech is repeatedly constructed as a problem an affront to male authority This book expands feminist studies of the representation of women in film enabling us to see individual films in new ways and to ask new questions of other films Using Sadie Thompson 1928 Blackmail 1929 Rain 1932 The Spiral Staircase Sorry Wrong Number Notorious Sunset Boulevard 1950 and To Kill a Mockingbird 1962 Lawrence illustrates how women's voices are positioned within narratives that require their submission to patriarchal roles and how their attempts to speak provoke increasingly severe repression She also shows how women's natural ability to speak is interrupted made difficult or conditioned to a suffocating degree by sound technology itself Telephones phonographs voice overs and dubbing are foregrounded called upon to silence women and to restore the primacy of the image Unlike the usage of voice by feminist and literary critics to discuss broad issues of authorship and point of view in film studies the physical voice itself is a primary focus Echo and Narcissus shows how assumptions about the deficiencies of women's voices and speech are embedded in sound's history technology uses and marketing Moreover the construction of the woman's voice is inserted into the ideologically loaded cinematic and narrative conventions governing the representation of women in Hollywood film

Thinking in Pictures Joyce E. Jesionowski, 1987-01-01 Discusses Griffith's distinctive style provides detailed analysis of his films and assesses his influence on the development of narrative cinema Directing the Sitcom Joel Zwick, Rosario J. Roveto, Jr., 2016-10-03 This guided tour of the American situation comedy is given by one of the most prolific directors of the genre Brooklyn native Joel Zwick began his career in the late 1960s at La MaMa a New York experimental theater club before moving to Hollywood to become a successful director during the sitcom's golden age He describes the 10 steps of sitcom production and outlines the five day process from the early table read to the final shoot in front of a live audience Behind the scenes anecdotes include personal and professional experiences with actors Tom Hanks Penny Marshall

Robin Williams Jamie Foxx the cast of Full House and many more Introducing Social Semiotics Theo Van Leeuwen, 2005 Introducing Social Semiotics uses a wide variety of texts including photographs adverts magazine pages and film stills to explain how meaning is created through complex semiotic interactions Practical exercises and examples as wide ranging as furniture arrangements in public places advertising jingles photojournalism and the rhythm of a rapper's speech provide readers with the knowledge and skills they need to be able to analyse and also produce successful multimodal texts and designs The book traces the development of semiotic resources through particular channels such as the history of the Press and advertising and explores how and why these resources change over time for reasons such as advancing technology Featuring a full glossary of terms exercises discussion points and suggestions for further reading Introducing Social Semiotics makes concrete the complexities of meaning making and is essential reading for anyone interested in how communication works Motion Pictures and the Image of the City Xiaofei Hao, 2016-06-03 If you've ever had a special attachment to a film and also an attachment to the city it was shot in Xiaofei Hao's book will give you a fresh eye on how the city is expressed in the film by the filmmaker From the perspective of social science each face of the city in a film comes from a choice shown only on the basis of the filmmakers selection criteria In this process the film becomes the cognitive map of that city The interweaving of the city space and film language will be elaborated first from the perspective of urban studies Then some viewpoints of tourism studies will be provided to explore the relation between the image of the city in the film and in reality Two films about the city Taipei are looked at as case studies A One and a Two Yi Yi Director Edward Yang 2000 and Au Revoir Taipei Director Arvin Chen 2010 Contemporary French Cinema Alan J. Singerman, Michèle Bissière, 2018-09-15 Like its French language companion volume Le Cinéma français contemporain Manuel de classe Alan Singerman and Michèle Bissière's Contemporary French Cinema A Student's Book offers a detailed look at recent French cinema through its analyses of twenty notable and representative French films that have appeared since 1980 Sure to delight Anglophone fans of French film it can be used with equal success in English language courses and when paired with its companion volume dual language ones Acclaim for Le Cinéma français contemporain Manuel de classe From Le Dernier Métro to Intouchables Bissière and Singerman cover the latest trends of French cinema emphasizing context and analytical method as Singerman did in Apprentissage du cinéma français Focus 2004 The authors offer a selection of films most French cinephiles will applaud and they incorporate insights from some of the best critical work on French cinema Students of French film will also find all the bibliographical pointers they need to dig deeper and instructors will appreciate the pedagogical components included in the chapters Jonathan Walsh Department of French Studies Wheaton College Massachusetts This remarkable book comes to us from two seasoned teachers and critics and beautifully complements an earlier work Alan Singerman's Apprentissage du cinéma français The time period covered more targeted here than in the preceding text is admirably well chosen and the breakdown by broad category each offering multiple options guides the teacher while offering a choice among an abundance of interesting films The preliminary chapters both succinct and informative give students an excellent overview of French cinema as a whole and of the technical knowledge needed for film analysis Each of the subsequent chapters offers an indispensable introduction discussing the plot director production actors reception and context of the film in question and also provides a very useful filmography and bibliography an exemplary work Brigitte E Humbert Department of French and Francophone Studies Middlebury College
