

Long Live Man

Poems by Gregory Corso

Long live Man! sings the poet Gregory Corso — despite atom bombs and computers, cold wars that get hot and together — new that isn't, too many cars and too little love . . . and in these new poems he celebrates the wonders (and the laughs and griefs) of being a man alive.

Whether he is musing on artistic glories amid the ruins of the Acropolis or watching a New York child invent games on the city's sidewalks, Corso is there in it, putting us into it, with the magic of vision, with the senses-awakening images that transmute reality into something more — insights that let us share his joy and echo his shout of Long Live Man!

Other books by Gregory Corso: The Happy Birthday of Death (New Directions, $1.20); Gasoline (City Lights, San Francisco, 95c); American Express (Olympia Press, Paris).

Biopolitical Governance Hannah Richter, 2018-05-17 For years critical theorists and Foucauldian biopolitical theorists have argued against the Aristotelian idea that life and politics inhabit two separate domains In the context of receding social security systems and increasing economic inequality within contemporary liberal democracies life is necessarily political This collection brings together contributions from both established scholars and researchers working at the forefront of biopolitical theory gendered and sexualised governance and the politics of race and migration to better understand the central lines along which the body of the governed is produced controlled or excluded
