dance career loses a three year old daughter Raised without religion and now mired in grief she senses a persistent connection to the little girl a love somehow more powerful than the brute fact of death This awareness leads her over three years to the Catholic Church After the accident her marriage is greatly stressed by the entrance of religion into married life and she and her husband each accuse the other of being too religious or too secular at various times Despite conflict dialogue keeps the marriage intimate and vital Following study of liturgy at Catholic Theological Union she teaches and tours sacred dance nationally and internationally exploring the arts as a spiritual path Moving forward and looking back at once she discovers early hints of religious experience in childhood celebrations encounters with art and marriage Her husband dies Now a single parent of a ten year old and a developmentally disabled teenager as well as college aged sons she continues her search

Cast in Paradise Howard Chadwick, 2005 Cast in Paradise is an historic novel that follows the fortunes of working families in Witton Park a small village in County Durham from the opening of the iron works in the mid 1800s during its zenith in the 1860s to its decline and closure in the 1880s Through the eyes and lives of migrants from other parts of Britain the times and tribulations of this tough down to earth and sometimes bitterly divided community are brought to life Witton Park in the late nineteenth century was a bonanza to capital investors and attracted workers in droves numbers that far outstripped the more famous gold rushes of California and the Klondike Wages erupted so that men labouring in the iron works or mining coal from the local pits earned three or four times what an agricultural worker did Employment at Witton Park brought unparalleled wealth to many ordinary people but for others it brought misery Bouts of excessive drinking and addiction to gambling resulted in domestic violence and ruin to some And life in such close proximity also brought to a head ingrained religious differences that festered just below the surface Paradise attracted hard men good and bad It became home to thousands who lived loved and laboured for a better life They built a village and set down roots in the iron hard ground roots that hold together still
