Look Me in the Eye John Elder Robison, 2008-09-09 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER As sweet and funny and sad and true and heartfelt a memoir as one could find from the foreword by Augusten Burroughs Ever since he was young John Robison longed to connect with other people but by the time he was a teenager his odd habits an inclination to blurt out non sequiturs avoid eye contact dismantle radios and dig five foot holes and stick his younger brother Augusten Burroughs in them had earned him the label social deviant It was not until he was forty that he was diagnosed with a form of autism called Asperger's syndrome That understanding transformed the way he saw himself and the world A born storyteller Robison has written a moving darkly funny memoir about a life that has taken him from developing exploding guitars for KISS to building a family of his own It's a strange sly indelible account sometimes alien yet always deeply human

Searching for Shangri-La Laurence Brahm, 2017-04-01 In 2002 author filmmaker and economist Laurence Brahm inspired by James Hilton's novel Lost Horizon and his own quest for meaning began his search for Shangri-la Some say that Shangri-la can be found in sacred Tibet or maybe in wild Qinghai others believe it can be found in artistic Yunnan in the southwest of China The author discovered the spiritual truth that Shangri-la is not a place rather it is a state of mind As Brahm hitchhiked through western China well off the beaten track he recorded the interior changes and illuminations he experienced as his consciousness expanded far beyond the everyday cares of his years of urban life in Beijing The insights of his journey and his meetings with others who searched for their own versions of Shangri-la helped him to understand that the archetypal goal he sought was actually a state of consciousness

Shangri la may be found in a cup of caf latte or yak butter tea if we search carefully enough and with mindfulness and compassion Searching for Shangri la is the first book of the Himalayan Trilogy The reader will discover the need for fresh economic paradigms that call for compassionate capital the empowerment of people and prioritization of the environment Spirituality can be more powerful than materialism The need for sustainability has rarely been so beautifully and eloquently defended
