Richard Burn

Marriage By The:

Marriage by Capture in the Book of Judges Katherine E. Southwood, 2017-03-24 In this book Katherine E Southwood offers a new approach to interpreting Judges 21 Breaking away from traditional interpretations of kingship feminism or comparisons with Greek or Roman mythology she explores the concepts of marriage ethnicity rape and power as means of ethnic preservation and exclusion She also exposes the many reasons why marriage by capture occurred during the post exilic period Judges 21 served as a warning against compromise submission to superficial unity between the Israelites and the Benjaminites Any such unity would result in drastic changes in the character culture and values of the ethnic group Israel The chapter encouraged post exilic audiences to socially construct those categorised as Benjaminites as foreigners who do not belong within the group thereby silencing doubts about the merits of unity
