A Wider Type of Freedom Daniel Martinez HoSang,2023-07-04 In Where Do We Go From Here 1967 Dr Martin Luther King Jr described racism as a philosophy based on a contempt for life a totalizing social theory that could only be confronted with an equally massive response by restructuring the whole of American society This book provides a survey of the truly transformative visions of racial justice in the United States an often hidden history that has produced conceptions of freedom and interdependence never envisioned in the nation s dominant political framework This book brings together the stories of the social movements intellectuals artists and cultural formations that have centered racial justice and the abolition of white supremacy as the foundation for a universal liberation Daniel Martinez HoSang taps into moments across time and place to reveal the long driving force toward this vision of universal emancipation From the abolition democracy of the nineteenth century and the struggle to end forced sterilizations to domestic worker organizing campaigns and the twenty first century s environmental justice movement we see a desire to realize the antithesis of a philosophy based on a contempt for life These movements emphasized transformations that would liberate everyone from the violence of militarism labor exploitation
