Patent Office,1905 Specifications and Drawings of Patents Issued from the U.S. Patent Office United States. Patent Office,1879 Dramatic Mirror of the Stage and Motion Pictures ,1917 Joseph Conrad and the Fictions of Skepticism Mark Wollaeger,1990-11-01 You want more scepticism at the very foundation of your work Scepticism the tonic of minds the tonic of life the agent of truth the way of art and salvation Joseph Conrad wrote these words to John Galsworthy in 1901 and this study argues that Conrad s skepticism forms the basis of his most important works participating in a tradition of philosophical skepticism that extends from Descartes to the present Conrad s epistemological and moral skepticism expressed forestalled mitigated and suppressed provides the terms for the author s rethinking of the peculiar relation between philosophy and literary form in Conrad s writing and more broadly for reconsidering what it means to call any novel philosophical Among the issues freshly argued are Conrad s thematics of coercion isolation and betrayal the complicated relations among author narrator and character and the logic of Conradian romance comedy and tragedy The author also offers a new way of conceptualizing the shape of Conrad s career especially the decline evidenced in the later fiction The uniqueness of Conrad s multifarious literary and cultural inheritance makes it difficult to locate him securely in the dominant tradition of the British novel A philosophical approach to Conrad however reveals links to other novelists notably Hardy Forster and Woolf all of whom share in the increasing philosophical burden of the modern novel by enacting the very philosophical issues that are discussed within their pages Conrad s interest as a skeptic is heightened by the degree to which he resists the insights proffered by his own skepticism The first chapter introduces the idea of the Conradian shelter and the next two use Schopenhauer to show how the language of metaphysical speculation in Tales of Unrest and Heart of Darkness spills over into a religious impulse that resists the disintegrating effect of Conrad s skepticism The author then turns to Hume to model the authorial skepticism that in Lord Jim contests the continuing visionary strain of the earlier fiction and Descartes to analyze the ways in which Romantic vision is more stringently chastened by irony in Nostromo and The Secret Agent The concluding chapter touches on several late novels before examining how competing models of political agency in Conrad s last great fiction of skepticism Under Western Eyes situate it somewhere between ideology critique and a mystified account of the exigencies of individual consciousness Catalog of Prints, Engravings, Photographs, and Original Art Materials Folger Shakespeare Library,1984 STRANGE STRANGE THINGS: 550+ Supernatural Mysteries, Macabre & Horror Classics Edgar Allan Poe, Henry James, Algernon Blackwood, H. 1880 - 1920 Emily Ennis,2022-03-24 At the turn of the 20th century printing and photographic technologies evolved rapidly leading to the birth of mass media and the rise of the amateur photographer Demonstrating how this development happened sybiotically with great changes in the shape of British literature Writing Authorship and Photography in British Literary Culture 1880 1920 explores this co evolution showing that as both writing and photography became tools of mass dissemination literary writers were forced to re evaluate their professional and personal identities Focusing on four key authors Thomas Hardy Bram Stoker Joseph Conrad and Virginia Woolf each of which had their own private and professional connections to photographs this book offers valuable historical contexts for contemporary cultural developments and anxieties At first establishing the authors response to developing technologies through their non fiction personal correspondences and working drafts Ennis moves on to examine how their perceptions of photography extend into their major works of fiction A Laodicean Dracula The Secret Agent The Inheritors and The Voyage Out Reflecting on the first graphic revolution in a world where text and image are now reproduced digitally and circulated en masse and online Ennis redirects our attention to when image and text appeared alongside each other for the first time and the crises this sparked for authors how they would respond to increasingly photographic depictions of everyday life and in turn how their writing adapted to a distinctly visual mass media Catalogue of the Works of British Artists in the Gallery of the British Institution
