Martin Creed Martin Creed, Gary Genosko, Shirley Madill, Art Gallery of Hamilton, 2002 Martin Creed Martin Creed, 2014-04-22 The first comprehensive survey of the work and career of London based artist Martin Creed Renowned for his straightforward approach to making art and his deft economy of means Martin Creed has produced sculptures installations drawings films performances music and text each of which has found its inspiration in the objects and activities of everyday life This extensive volume documents some 800 works produced over twenty years and selected by the artist himself Always in search of the essential nature of things Creed uses the simplest materials to create a world in which reality appears transformed by conceptual rules as well as by the unexpected breaking of those rules His work is simultaneously subtle and spectacular austere and playful whether it be a sheet of paper crumpled into a ball a protrusion from the wall a door opening and closing the lights going on and off or a soundtrack inside a moving elevator Conceived and designed in close collaboration with the artist the book features a foreword by the artist and accompanying texts by Germaine Greer Colm Toibin Barry Humphries and others supplemented by an exhibition history bibliography and biography Martin Creed Martin Creed, Briony Fer, 2011 Renowned for his straightforward approach to making art and his economy of means Creed creates sculptures installations drawings films performances music and text each of which has found its inspiration in the objects and activities of everyday life Fourteen seminal works span more than a decade of creation and provide an eye popping overview of the career of the 2001 Turner Prize winner An original essay by art scholar Briony Fer looks at the overriding tendency toward repetition and seriality that marks Creeds work whereby he recalls and transforms the work of an earlier generation of artists such as Eva Hesse Dan Flavin Martin Creed Martin Creed, 2000* Martin Creed Martin Creed, 2009 This long overdue survey of the London based 2001 Turner Prize winner s work the first comprehensive look at his career makes up for that delay by reproducing each and every one of his more than 500 works a total that s easy to track because each piece has a number in lieu of a title Creed s sculptures installations and drawings come from the objects works and sounds of everyday life Constantly searching for the essential nature of things he uses the simplest materials to create a world in which obsessions and fantasies radically alter reality and transform it into a catalogue of rigid rules and unexpected exceptions His work is simultaneously spectacular and subtle playful and severe at times almost cruel in its stark dryness Creed s pieces are characterized by their economy of means and site specificity This awareness of context and the role of the viewer leads to a variety of unexpected artistic propositions a protrusion from the wall a sheet of paper crumpled into a ball a door opening and closing the lights going on and off or a soundtrack inside a moving elevator Martin Creed Martin Creed, Sŏnjae Sŏul Misulgwan, Hiroshima-shi Gendai Bijutsukan, Ikon Gallery, 2009 Martin Creed, the Whole World and the Work Martin Creed, 1996 Aesthetics, Philosophy and Martin Creed Elisabeth Schellekens, Davide Dal Sasso, 2022-06-02 What is the future of conceptualism What expressions can it take in the 21st century Is there a new role for aesthetic experience in art and if so what is that role exactly Aesthetics Philosophy and Martin Creed uses one of this generation s most important and influential artists to address themes crucial to contemporary aesthetics Working in an impressive variety of artistic media Creed represents a strikingly innovative take on conceptualism Through his ingenious and thought provoking work a team of international philosophers jurists and art historians illustrate how Creed epitomizes several questions central to philosophical aesthetics today and provides a glimpse of the future both of art and aesthetic discourse They discuss key concepts for Creed s work including immediacy in his photographs of smiling people compositional order in his geometric paintings simplicity in Work No 218 a sheet paper crumpled into a ball and shamelessness in his videos of vomiting people By bringing a working artist into the heart of academic discussions Aesthetics Philosophy and Martin Creed highlights the relevance of philosophical discussions of art to understanding art today

Martin Creed Martin Creed,2010 Renowned for his straightforward approach to making art and his deft economy of means Martin Creed has produced sculptures installations drawings films performances music and text each of which has found its inspiration in the objects and activities of everyday life This extensive volume documents some 800 works produced over twenty years and selected by the artist himself Always in search of the essential nature of things Creed uses the simplest materials to create a world in which reality appears transformed by conceptual rules as well as by the unexpected breaking of those rules His work is simultaneously subtle and spectacular austere and playful whether it be a sheet of paper crumpled into a ball a protrusion from the wall a door opening and closing the lights going on and off or a soundtrack inside a moving elevator Conceived and designed in close collaboration with the artist the book features a foreword by the artist and accompanying texts by Germaine Greer Colm Toibin Barry Humphries and others supplemented by an exhibition history bibliography and biography Martin Creed Martin Creed,2008 Martin Creed : the whole world + the work Pawel

Polit,2004 Contemporary Art, Systems and the Aesthetics of Dispersion Francis Halsall,2023-05-16 Using five case studies of contemporary art this book uses ideas of systems and dispersion to understand identity and experience in late capitalism This book considers five artists who exemplify contemporary art practice Seth Price Liam Gillick Martin Creed Hito Steyerl and Theaster Gates Given the diversity of materials used in art today once traditional artistic mediums and practices have become obsolete in describing what artists do today Francis Halsall argues that in the face of this obsolescence the ideas of system and dispersion become very useful in understanding contemporary art That is practitioners now can be seen to be using whatever systems of distribution and display are available to them as their creative mediums The two central arguments are first that any understanding of what art is will always be underwritten by a related view of what a human being is and second that these both have a particular character in late capitalism or as is named here the Age of Dispersion The book will be of interest to scholars and students working in art history contemporary art studio art and theories of systems and networks Almost nothing Anna Dezeuze,2016-12-21 What does an assemblage made out of crumpled newspaper have in common with an empty room in which the lights go on and off every five seconds This book argues that they are both examples of a precarious art that flourished from the late 1950s to the first decade of the twenty first century in light of a growing awareness of the individual s fragile existence in capitalist society Focusing on comparative case studies drawn from European North and South American practices this study maps out a network of similar concerns and practices while outlining its evolution from the 1960s to the beginning of the twenty first century This book will provide students and amateurs of contemporary art and culture with new insights into contemporary art practices and the critical issues that they raise concerning the material status of the art object the role of the artist in society and the relation between art and everyday life

Fair Play - Art, Performance and Neoliberalism J. Harvie, 2013-08-29 This book asks what is the quality of participation in contemporary art and performance Has it been damaged by cultural policies which have entrepreneurialized artists cut arts funding and cultivated corporate philanthropy Has it been fortified by crowdfunding pop ups and craftsmanship And how can it help us to understand social welfare

Art Bollockese Jeff Andrews, 2019-01-15 A critique of abstract modern art from a constructive common sense perspective

Art Now Illuminations, 2002-01-01 Art Now is a series of interview based profiles of prominent contemporary visual artists bringing together the work of Howard Hodgkin Antony Gormley Rachel Whiteread Julian Opie Mark Wallinger and 2001 Turner Prize winner Martin Creed Sandy Nairne s introductory essay offers a comprehensive overview of the state of contemporary art highlighting how the six artists manifest some of the best recent and emerging art in Britain today Each interview presents a thought provoking survey of the artist s work and ideas and offers a rare and personal insight into their influences and creative processes Art Now is an excellent introduction to some of today s most important contemporary artists and provides an accessible way to engage with the pleasures and puzzles of art in the twenty first century

The Kantian Aesthetic Paul Crowther, 2010-03-25 The Kantian Aesthetic explains the kind of perceptual knowledge involved in aesthetic judgments It does so by linking Kant s aesthetics to a critically upgraded account of his theory of knowledge This upgraded theory emphasizes those conceptual and imaginative structures which Kant terms respectively categories and schemata By describing examples of aesthetic judgment it is shown that these judgments must involve categories and fundamental schemata even though Kant himself and most commentators after him have not fully appreciated the fact It is argued in turn that this shows the aesthetic to be not just one kind of pleasurable experience amongst others but one based on factors necessary to objective knowledge and personal identity and which indeed itself plays a role in how these capacities develop In order to explain how individual aesthetic judgments are justified and the aesthetic basis of art however the Kantian position just outlined has to be developed further This is done by exploring some of his other ideas concerning how critical comparisons inform our cultivation of taste and art s relation to genius By linking the points made earlier to a more developed account of this horizon of critical comparisons a Kantian approach can be shown to be both a satisfying and comprehensive explanation of the cognitive basis of aesthetic experiences It is shown also that the approach can even cover some of the kinds of avant garde works which were thought previously to limit its relevance

Martin Creed Martin Creed, 2017 Maverick London based Scottish artist Martin Creed b 1968 has spent the past twenty years subverting the fine lines between art and life art and silliness and art and provocation Melding Conceptual Art smarts and Minimalist literal mindedness in his videos paintings and sculptures Creed undermines the preciousness skill and aloofness of art This new monograph is not large but it is extensive enough to document the six site specific installations currently at the Kunsthalle Vogelmann including essays by Anouchka Grose and Matthia L bke and an interview with the artist by Beate Ermacora Awarded the Turner Prize in 2001 for a piece consisting of regularly switching a light on and off in a room Martin Creeds playful but rigorous work challenges the viewer to engage with art space and the world in general When asked why he made art Creed answered To make myself feel better His current turn at the Park Avenue Armory NY 2016 a kind of extended happening must be making him feel very good indeed

The Uses of Reason in the Evaluation of Artworks Les Gillon, 2017-07-19 This book uses an examination of the annual Turner Prize to defend the view that the evaluation of artworks is a reason based activity notwithstanding the lack of any agreed criteria for judging excellence in art It undertakes an empirical investigation of actual critical practice as evident within published commentaries on the Prize in order to examine and test theories of critical evaluation including the ideas of Noel Carroll Frank Sibley Kendall Walton and Suzanne Langer Case studies of work by Turner Prize winners such as Steve McQueen Martin Creed Tomma Abts are used to explore definitions of art and concepts of artistic value and meaning The book will be of interest to academics in the fields of aesthetics contemporary art and cultural studies but also to practitioners working in the arts media and education

Aesthetics on the Edge Dominic Lopes, 2018 This book proposes a new methodology for aesthetics where problems in philosophy are addressed by examining how aesthetic phenomena are understood in the human sciences Lopes then puts the methodology to work illuminating the perceptual and social pragmatic capacities involved in responding to works of visual art literature and music
