Reading Circles,

Novels and Adult Reading Development Sam Duncan, 2012-02-23 Adult literacy teachers are constantly searching for effective engaging and distinctly adult ways to develop adult emergent reading and for at least the past two hundred years adults have formed themselves into reading circles to read and discuss novels on a weekly or monthly basis Why then are reading circles rarely used or studied in formal adult literacy provision This book explores adult reading development novel reading and reading circles in the context of a wider examination of reading pedagogies and practices in the English speaking world It discusses reading as both an individual and a communal act and investigates the relationship between literature and literacy development practice and pedagogy including a reassessment of the controversial approaches of reading aloud and phonics for adults Sam Duncan reviews a case study of an adult reading circle in a large London further education college and identifies the wider implications for the teaching and learning of adult emergent reading for the use and understanding of reading circles and for how we understand the novel reading experience more broadly Across the Divide Ann Knight, 2012-08-14 South Africa is a country where the dichotomy is divided between black and white rich and poor Where the rich are usually white and the poor usually black This is a story about how a white woman from a wealthy privileged background and a black woman from rural background become friends And through circumstances which bring them closer together and where colour has no place they and their children form a bond which is unbreakable Phumlas battle with Aids after being raped and the subsequent rape of her only child give Mary Ann an insight of the hardships of African women They both cross the divide Whoppers Christine Seifert, 2024-05-07 History of full of liars Not just little white telling liars but big honkin whopper telling liars people who can convince us that even the most improbable outrageous nonsensical stories are true And the worst part is that we ll believe it Whoppers tells the story of history s greatest liars and the lies they told providing a mix of narrative profiles of super famous liars lies and or hoaxes as well as more obscure episodes Famous liars include people you might have learned about in school like P T Barnum who basically made a living lying to people for money liars you might never have heard of before like Victor Lustig who managed to sell the Eiffel Tower twice in the 1920s and hoaxes like the Loch Ness Monster Photo Hoax The book will also include illustrations sidebars and infographics English Literature John Miller Dow Meiklejohn, 1913 Short Stories Alfred V. Cafiero, 2016-09-28 I have completed a book of twenty short stories the subjects of which encompasses a wide range of topics and situations that include adventure Western art romance history animal behavior and more Because of its variety and uniqueness of presentation these stories are bound to please the reader I have published two novels Vengeance and Electra and my autobiography The Life and Times of Albert Capo Sierra Stories Gary Noy, 2014-08-01 The author of Gold Rush Stories shares tales of the larger than life characters from the history of the legendary Sierra Nevada mountain range With its 14 000 foot granite mountains crystalline lakes conifer forests and hidden valleys the Sierra Nevada has long been the domain of dreams attracting the heroic and the delusional the best of humanity and the worst Stories abound and characters emerge so outlandish and outrageous that they must be real Could the human imagination have invented someone like Eliza Gilbert Born in Limerick Ireland in 1818 she transformed herself into Lola Montez born in Seville Spain in 1823 and brought to the Gold Country the provocative Spider Dance impersonating a young woman repelling a legion of angry spiders under her petticoats Or Otto Esche who in 1860 imported fifteen two humped Bactrian camels from Asia to transport goods to the mines Or the artist Albert Bierstadt whose paintings Mark Twain characterized as having more the atmosphere of Kingdom Come than of California Or multimillionaire George Whittell Jr who was frequently spotted driving around Lake Tahoe in a luxurious convertible with his pet lion in the front seat These and scores more spill out of the pages of this well illustrated and lively tribute to the Sierra by a native son
