Personality and Personal Growth Christopher Clemons, 2012-09-18 Find Your Inner Trust Within Personality Personal Growth Will Blossom That Inner Seed

Personality and Personal Growth Desmond Gahan, 2012-05 Getting out of the rut that a person is in is very important for personal growth You can guarantee that you will never move past the hard times if you do not find out what is causing the grief and hardship in your life If you do take the time to go through therapy and get help for your problems you will be able to move past all of it and get on to better and bigger things Perhaps the most important realization that an individual can make in their quest for personal growth is that there is no single formula that defines the path to personal success We all have different goals and priorities which means that different activities and attitudes will make us feel good about ourselves We also have different natural strengths and weaknesses that are a part of our inherent personality type How then as individuals can we feel successful in our lives Understand What s Important to You Each personality type has a different idea of what it means to be successful Self knowledge is one common goal that will help everyone achieve personal success So many people are hung up on somebody else s idea of what it means to be successful and they are unaware of what is truly important to them This is completely normal We all have important role models and influencers in our lives who may have basic values that are quite different from our own If this is the case it s important to recognize that the discrepancy between what we have been taught is truly important and what we personally believe to be truly important is due to a difference in perspective If we spend our time and effort trying to meet somebody else s idea of success and ignore or belittle any conflicting messages from our own psyche then we will find ourselves exhausted and unhappy Realizing what is truly important to us is a major step towards achieving personal success
