Power And Poetry Best Practices For High School Classrooms:

Power & Poetry Jim Mahoney, Jerry Matovic, 2005 In Power and Poetry veteran teachers Mahoney and Matovic discard the scary parts of teaching poems the symbolism and the technical language and instead focus on poetry as a natural expression of individual curiosity emotion and observation

Multilingual classroom contexts Christa van der Walt, Verbra Pfeiffer, 2021-12-01 By far the majority of South African students get their schooling in a second language which means that our classrooms are multilingual This state of affairs is not exclusive to our country as can be seen in the many academic conferences on multilingual learning and teaching Terms like translanguaging and biliteracy appear in many articles and books that discuss the role language in education What makes the multilingual nature of our South African classrooms challenging is the fact that many learners switch from one language of learning and teaching to another at various points in their school career from home language to English or Afrikaans after the foundation phase from one language of learning and teaching to another when they move to new schools high school or tertiary institutions This book is an attempt to highlight the transitions from home to school from foundation to intermediate phase from primary to high school and from high school to tertiary institutions

Resources in Education, 2001

Powerful Readers Kyla Hadden, Adrienne Gear, 2016-10-14 At any age or grade level powerful readers are those who are aware of their thinking as they read The assumption is that high school students don't need to be taught how to read but even if they can decode words and gain literal understanding they often don't think deeply about what they are reading Presenting a balance of theory and practical lessons Powerful Readers demonstrates that instruction in the key strategies of connecting visualizing questioning inferring determining importance and transforming can help students develop their reading skills and get more out of their work with fiction and nonfiction Step by step lessons for introducing and using the strategies connections to literary devices and reading lists for each strategy are all part of this valuable resource

Power and Portfolios Jim Mahoney, 2002 The author discusses his experiences teaching reading and writing and explains how to structure and run high school classrooms with portfolios as the centerpiece

Teaching Literacy in Urban Schools Barbara Purdum-Cassidy, Lakia M. Scott, 2018-03-02 Today's public schools represent greater student diversity than ever before in the history of the United States yet pedagogical approaches as mandated by state education agencies and school districts superimpose mainstream curricula and instructional practices which ultimately disadvantage the academic outcomes of the majority minority African American and Hispanic Latino students Unfortunately national report findings also heighten the educational crisis that exists for Black and Brown children with regard to reading and writing achievement As a result there is need to deeply explore the relationship between Black and Brown student literacy achievement and educational policy teacher education program curriculum and assessment This book seeks to provide some practical insights guided by conceptual and contextual knowledge by understanding how to teach urban African American and Hispanic Latino students by discussing culturally appropriate instructional strategies that have demonstrated success among African American and Hispanic Latino students This book will showcase successful models for teaching literacy to urban students through a discussion of topics that include 1 increasing literacy achievement and motivation 2 multicultural literacy practices and 3 early and elementary literacy instruction Best Practices for Education Professionals Heidi Schnackenberg, Beverly Burnell, 2016-04-19 Best practices currently advocate that education professionals consult and collaborate with colleagues across disciplines as a means of providing students and their families a comprehensive developmental approach to students' academic career and social personal growth Best Practices for Education Professionals has been developed to inform in service American Book Publishing Record, 2005 How to Teach Students Who Don't Look Like You Bonnie M. Davis, 2012-07-18 Engage diverse learners in your classroom with culturally responsive instruction How to Teach Students Who Don't Look like You helps educators recognize the impact that culture has on the learning process The term diverse learners encompasses a variety of student groups including homeless children migrant children English language learners children experiencing gender identity issues children with learning disabilities and children with special needs This revised second edition reflects the latest trends in education and includes new coverage of standards based culturally responsive lesson planning and instruction differentiated instruction RTI and the Common Core State Standards Bonnie M Davis helps all educators Tailor instruction to their own unique student population Reflect on their own cultures and how this shapes their views of the world Cultivate a deeper understanding of race and racism in the U S Create culturally responsive instruction Understand culture and how it affects learning How to Teach Students Who Don't Look like You provides crucial strategies to assist educators in addressing the needs of diverse learners and closing the achievement gap This book fires up educators by speaking from the soul to reach the heart from the research to engage the mind and from the skillful hand to build the necessary expertise Peggy Dickerson Professional Service Provider Region XIII Texas Education Service Center Austin TX The vignettes and classroom situations help the reader understand how race plays out in our society and in our classrooms Dr Davis takes on a very volatile topic and is able to engage the reader without offending The examples vignettes cases and stories will hook the readers just as they did me Once I began reading the book I could not put it down Ava Maria Whittemore Minority Achievement Coordinator Frederick County Public Schools MD
