Power To Care Clinical Practice Effectiveness With Overwhelmed Clients:

The Power to Care June G. Hopps, Elaine Pinderhughes, Richard Ashok Kumar Shankar, 1995 This much needed book provides an in depth and comprehensive look at both the helpful and problematic aspects of social work with overwhelmed clients those who live in transgenerational poverty and often have a history of little or no employment family violence substance abuse truancy and teenage pregnancy What approaches if any make a difference in the lives of these struggling patients To answer this question the authors follow fifty cases in each of five agencies They examine each client s problems the intervention approaches used by clinicians and the outcomes of these treatments both positive and negative The authors also examine the environment in which the clients live and its effect on their behavior In addition to evaluating the resources and constraints inherent in various agencies the authors also examine the seemingly dysfunctional national policies and programs which although they are set up to address and correct the problem of overwhelming poverty too often merely reinforce these detrimental conditions Special attention is also given to the roles that welfare programs coping skills self esteem authority discrimination power and powerlessness ethnicity and race play in the effectiveness of social work for these clients The authors include a rich variety of examples and cases that illustrate which clinical strategies used by individual social workers are most effective with overwhelmed clients The Power to Care will be invaluable reading for educators clinicians agency directors and policymakers who are currently reassessing programs geared to helping this population

Group Work With Overwhelmed Clients Elaine Pinderhughes, June Gary Hopps, 2002-02 Respected experts June Gary Hopps and Elaine Pinderhughes advocate for the efficiency and power of group therapy in this first of its kind handbook that will aid social service agency administrators clinicians and paraprofessionals in the implementation of group counseling When considering the benefits of group counseling it is no surprise that group psychotherapy is proven to be one of the most effective treatments for overwhelmed clients Now from the educated and experienced minds of Hopps and Pinderhughes comes an authoritative comprehensive guide that explores the use of group therapy in poor and oppressed populations to help cope with addiction gang membership job preparation sex education and many other topics Group Work for Overwhelmed Clients offers case specific vignettes insights on leader issues and practical application methods in the form of hands on guides and step by step instructions to organizing groups targeting and screening members establishing goals and managing group dynamics Unlike books that focus on single issue therapy this one of a kind guide presents an approach to integrated treatment demonstrating that the sharing support and empowerment from group settings can be life transforming
