Real Police In Action:

The Light Reginald J. Williams, 2012-01-18 The City of Angels is under siege Lil G Henderson a charismatic and totally ruthless street gang leader from Inglewood has his sights set on becoming number one on the drug scene in Southern California To make matters worse he has been recruited and given almost limitless powers by the forces of evil whose soul purpose is to create as much havoc and devastation in the southland as possible Opposing Lil G and his posse of evil doers Los Angeles has three new heroes These three were strangers to each other until thrown together by the powers which have battled these evil forces since the beginning of time Thelma Johnson a feisty middle age community activist James Pettigrew III a Harvard educated financial lawyer from a well known heavily connected black political family and Paul Floatin Logan a white superstar basketball player just drafted by the Los Angeles Clippers are now on the front line standing between Lil G and the innocent and unsuspecting Angelinos Along with Inglewood Homicide Detective L Z Anderson who has been tasked with figuring out just whats happening with all the murder and mayhem that suddenly broke out in the city are all now involved in a dangerous game of intrigue and subterfuge As the battle rages more and more individuals are drawn into the fray exposing deep dark family secrets which reach as far back as World War II secrets which reveled could bring down the citys most powerful and well respected citizens This age old battle between Good and Evil means Life and Death for so many Police Use of Force Through the Lens Mike R. Knetzger, 2025-02-27 Police Use of Force Through the Lens provides a comprehensive look at video recorded use of force incidents and how video influences perceptions about the appropriateness of the force used No other book on the market takes a historical critical and contemporary look at how video footage from dash cameras body worn cameras surveillance cameras or handheld cameras influence how people perceive the appropriateness of force used by law enforcement officers correctional officers and security officers Supported with academic sources along with practical examples that connect academics to the real world the book educates readers about the history of cameras in law enforcement significant events that influenced the proliferation of cameras in law enforcement how use of force incidents are evaluated how camera factors influence perceptions and how human factors can impact how officers perceive and recall what occurred during use of force incidents A thorough discussion of the benefits and disadvantages of cameras including how camera perspectives can be misleading and incomplete challenges the presumption of the objectiveness of video and posits a systematic framework to help evaluators or viewers of video recorded use of force incidents arrive at more objective conclusions

Responding to Domestic Violence Eve S Buzawa, Eva Schlesinger Buzawa, Carl G Buzawa, Evan Stark, 2012 Building on the success of previous editions this book has been expanded to integrate the criminal justice system into a broad systemic response for both victims and offenders

Gender, Drink and Drugs Maryon McDonald, 2020-08-18 Why do so many people feel compelled to drink alcohol or take drugs And why do so many men drink and so many women refrain Using ideas from social anthropology this book attempts to provide a novel

answer to these questions The introduction surveys both gender and addiction It points out that we cannot say what men or women are really like in any culturally innocent sense for gender is always even in the realm of biology a cultural matter The ethnographic chapters ranging from Ancient Rome to modern Japan similarly suggest how any substance from alcohol to tea to heroin inevitably takes its meaning or reality in the cultural system in which it exists This book will be of interest to medical anthropologists medical sociologists anyone with an interest in the contemporary direction of anthropology as well as those working in the fields of alcohol and addiction

Proceedings of the Future Technologies Conference (FTC) 2020, Volume 2 Kohei Arai, Supriya Kapoor, Rahul Bhatia, 2020-10-31 This book provides the state of the art intelligent methods and techniques for solving real world problems along with a vision of the future research The fifth 2020 Future Technologies Conference was organized virtually and received a total of 590 submissions from academic pioneering researchers scientists industrial engineers and students from all over the world The submitted papers covered a wide range of important topics including but not limited to computing electronics artificial intelligence robotics security and communications and their applications to the real world After a double blind peer review process 210 submissions including 6 poster papers have been selected to be included in these proceedings One of the meaningful and valuable dimensions of this conference is the way it brings together a large group of technology geniuses in one venue to not only present breakthrough research in future technologies but also to promote discussions and debate of relevant issues challenges opportunities and research findings The authors hope that readers find the book interesting exciting and inspiring Hollywood by Hollywood Steven Cohan,2019 The backstudio picture or the movie about movie making is a staple of Hollywood film production harking back to the silent era and extending to the present day What gives backstudios their coherence as a distinctive genre Steven Cohan argues in Hollywood by Hollywood is their fascination with the mystique of Hollywood as a geographic place a self contained industry and a fantasy of fame leisure sexual freedom and modernity Yet by the same token if backstudio pictures have rarely achieved blockbuster box office success what accounts for the film industry s interest in continuing to produce them The backstudio picture has been an enduring genre because aside from offering a director or writer a chance to settle old scores in branding filmmaking with the Hollywood mystique the genre solicits consumers strong investment in the movies Whether inspiring the movie crazy fan girls of the early teens and twenties or the wannabe filmmakers of this century heading to the West Coast after their college graduations backstudios have given emotional weight and cultural heft to filmmaking as the quintessential American success story But more than that a backstudio picture is concerned with shaping perceptions of how the film industry works with masking how its product depends upon an industrial labor force including stardom and with determining how that work s value accrues from the Hollywood brand stamped onto the product Cohan supports his well theorized and well researched claims with nuanced discussions of over fifty backstudios some canonical and well known and others obscure and rarely seen Covering the hundred year timespan of feature length film production Hollywood by Hollywood offers an illuminating perspective for considering anew the history of American movies A Criminological Imagination Pat Carlen,2017-07-05 A Criminological Imagination contains a selection of key articles from Pat Carlen s research studies of magistrates courts and women s imprisonment together with a range of other articles on social control discourse analysis ideology punishment criminology and critique They are all informed by an assumption that while criminal justice must remain imaginary in societies based upon unequal and exploitative social relations one task of a criminological imagination might be to suggest why this is so and how things could be otherwise This is an invaluable collection for anyone interested in crime justice and injustice and the social political and academic contexts in which knowledge of them is constructed Wild Tales from the Police Blotter Charles James Sullivan,2008 Magana's World: J. E. Booker Mariusz Walczak,2024-10-01 Magana s World J E Booker is a gripping crime thriller set in an alternate reality on the grounds of what was once Warsaw now known as City 301 It s a book that blends elements of dark crime with fantasy creating a fascinating tale of a world brimming with magic technology and moral dilemmas The main character of the novel is James Eric Booker an American policeman who as part of an international exchange finds himself in Europe His task is to solve criminal mysteries in a world full of contrasts where magic and technology coexist and various magical races from elves to lycans live alongside humans City 301 is a place where old beliefs merge with modern inventions and towering skyscrapers reach the clouds creating a vision of a futuristic metropolis powered by alternative coal and artificial intelligence The plot of the book is not only centered around criminal threads but also touches on deeper issues related to racism discrimination and rebellion Through the lens of a dark dystopian world the story raises questions about humanity morality and the limits of power The book also addresses themes of the fight for justice in a world ruled by chaos and diversity both technological and magical The novel s style combines cynicism and irony giving it a unique tone filled with exaggerated abstract moments The atmosphere of the book resembles the classic noir crime genre but with the addition of magical elements and futuristic technologies making it a perfect choice for fans of both classic crime fiction and fantasy literature Magana s World J E Booker is a dark intriguing story that will undoubtedly appeal to readers seeking intense multi layered plots If you re interested in stories where magic and technology coexist and criminal mysteries intertwine with philosophical questions about the human condition this book is for you

The Emerald Handbook of Narrative Criminology Jennifer Fleetwood,Lois Presser,Sveinung Sandberg,Thomas Ugelvik,2019-10-07 Over 23 chapters this Handbook reflects the diversity of methodological approaches employed in the emerging field of narrative criminology European Developments in Corporate Criminal Liability James Gobert,Ana-Maria Pascal,2011-06-10 When corporations carry on their business in a grossly negligent manner or take a cavalier approach to risk management the consequences can be catastrophic The harm may be financial as occurred when such well regarded companies as Enron Lehman Brothers Worldcom and Barings collapsed or it may be environmental as illustrated most recently by the Gulf oil spill Sometimes deaths and serious injuries on a mass scale occur as in the Bhopal gas disaster the Chernobyl nuclear explosion the Paris crash of the Concorde the capsizing of the Herald of Free Enterprise and rail crashes at Southall Paddington and Hatfield in England What role can the law play in preventing such debacles and in punishing the corporate offenders This collection of thematic papers and European country reports addresses these questions at both a theoretical and empirical level The thematic papers analyse corporate criminal liability from a range of academic disciplines including law sociology criminology economics philosophy and environmental studies whilst the country reports look at the laws of corporate crime throughout Europe highlighting both common features and irreconcilable differences between the various jurisdictions California.
